FARM AND HOUSEHOLD ITEMS

We invite communications from all persons who are interested in matters properly belonging to this department.

Hens in Place of Dogs.

There is hardly a family that does not throw away enough table scraps to keep at least half a dozen hens, and many that keep a nuisance in the shape of a dog...

To Settle Coffee.

The genuine article can be nicely settled by beating an egg and stirring it in a batch of coffee, just as it is browned.

Adulteration of Clover-seed.

A confidential circular from an enterprising German in Hamburg has lately come to light containing an offer to sell several tons of sand suitable for mixture with clover seed...

A Crop that Paid.

A man from Bay River was in the city yesterday, says the Newbern, N. C., Times, disposing of 12,000 pounds of leaf tobacco which he had grown on ten acres of ground...

Apple Dumplings.

As the season for apple dumplings is at hand, it may not be out of place to say how they can be made so that every one, even of delicate digestive powers, it is said, can eat of them with impunity.

An English farmer possesses a novelty in the form of a cow with a wooden leg. The animal having lamed one of her hind legs, a skillful veterinary surgeon tried the experiment of amputation.

To Relieve Frosted Feet.

To relieve the intense itching of frosted feet, dissolve a lump of alum in a little water, and bathe the part with it, warming in before the fire.

To Remove Salt From Pork.

Take a piece of pork from the brine, and place in sour milk for a few hours; then put in cold water a short time, and you will return it almost to its former freshness.

To Keep Insects from Smoked Meats.

While smoking your meat, with chips or saw-dust, put on the fire a few red peppers. The fumes will prevent all insects from attacking your meat.

A correspondent of an Illinois paper published at Galesburg, says that he has cured several colts and cows that had been bitten on the nose by rattlesnakes, by rubbing spirits of turpentine on their heads.

Lemon for Cough.

Roast the lemon very carefully without burning it; when it is hot, cut and squeeze into a cup upon three ounces of sugar, finely powdered. Take a spoonful whenever your cough troubles you.
