THE AMERICAN WASHER PRICE, $5.50!

THE AMERICAN WASHER SAVES MONEY, TIME, AND DRUDGERY.

The Fatigue of Washing Day no Longer Dreaded, but Economy, Efficiency, and Clean Clothing, Sure.

The Patigue of Washing Day no Longer Dreaded, but Economy, Efficiency, and Clean Clothing, Sure.

In calling public attention to this little machine, a few of the invaluable qualities, (not possessed by any other washing machine yet invented.) are here enumerated.

It is the smallest, most compact, most portable, most simple in construction, most easily operated. A child ten years old, with a few hours' practice, can thoroughly comprehend and effectually use it. There is no adjusting, no screws to annoy, no delay in adapting! It is always ready for use! It is a perfect little wonder! It is a miniature giant, doing more work and of better quality, than the most elaborate and costly. One half of the labor is fully saved by its use, and the clothes will last one half longer than by the old plan of the rob sene half longer than by the old plan of the rob board. It will wash the largest blanket, or three shirts at a time, washing thoroughly! In a word, the ablution of any fabric, from a Quilt to a Lace Cartain or Cambric Handkerchief, are equally in the capacity of this LITTLE GEM! It can be fastened to any tub and taken off at will.

No matter how deep rooted a prejudice may exist against Washing Machines, the moment this little machine is seen to perform its wonders, all doubts of its cleaning efficacy and utility are banished, and the doubter and detractor at once become the fast friends of the machine.

We have testimonials without end, setting forth its numerous advantages over all others, and from hundreds who have thrown aside the unwieldy, useless machines, which have signally failed to accomplish the object promised in prominent and loud sounding advertisements.

It is as perfect for washing as a wringer is for wringing. The price, another paramount inducement to purchasers, has been placed so low that it is within the reach of every housekeeper, and there is no article of domestic economy that will repay the small investment so soon.

All that is asked for this GREAT LABOR SAVER, is a fair trial. We guarantee each ma-shine to do its work perfectly. SOLE AGENTS FOR THE UNITED STATES.

PROSPECTUS FOR 1872. FIFTH YEAR.

A Representative and Champion of American Art.

THE ALDINE: An Illustrated Monthly Journal claimed to be the handsomest Paper in the World.

"Give my love to the artist workmen of THE ALDINE who are striving to make their profession worthy of admiration for beauty, as it has always been for usefulness."—Henry Ward Beacher. NEW FEATURES FOR 1872.

ART DEPARTMENT.

ART DEPARTMENT.

As a guarantee of the excellence of this department, the publishers would beg to announce during the coming year, specimens from the following eminent American artists:

W. T. Richards, Granville Perkins, Jas. Smiley, Wm. Hart. F. O. C. Darley, R. E. Piguet, Wm. Beard, Victor Nehlig, Frank Beard, Goo, Smiley, Wm. H. Wileox, Paul Dixon, Aug. Will, James H. Beard and J. Hows.

These pictures are being reproduced regardless of expense, by the very best engravers in the country, and will bear the severest critical comparison with the best foreign work, it being the determination of the publishers that THE ALDINE shall be a successful vindication of American taste in competition with any existing publication in the world.

LITERARY DEPARTMENT.

LITERARY DEPARTMENT. Where so much attention is paid to illustration and get up of the work, too much dependence on appearances may very naturally be feared. To anticipate such misglvings, it is only necessary to state, that, the editorial management of THE ALDINE has been intrusted to Mr. Richard H. Stoddard, who has received assurances of assistance from a host of the most popular writers and poets of the country.

will contain nearly 300 pages, and 250 fine engravings. Commencing with the number for January, every third number will contain a beautiful tinted picture on plate paper, inserted as a frontispiece.

The Christmas number of 1872, will be a splendid volume in itself, containing fity engravings, (four in tint) and, although retailed at $1, will be sent without extra charge to all yearly subscribers. THE VOLUME FOR 1872 A CHROMO TO EVERY SUBSCRIBER was a very popular feature last year, and will be repeated with the present volume. The publish-ers have purchased and reproduced, at great ex-pense, the beautiful oil painting by SERS, entitled "Dame Nature's School." The chromo is 11x13 inches, and is an exact fac-simile, in size and ap-pearance, of the original picture. TERMS FOR 1872.

One Copy, one year, with Oil Chromo, Any person sending 10 names and $40 will receive an extra copy gratis, making 11 copies for the money.

Mary, I am glad your heel has got well." "Why," said Mary, opening wide her large blue eyes, with astonishment. "Oh, nothing, said John, only I see it's able to be out."

Bey" "I'll give that girl a piece of my mind," said a young fellow, speaking of one who had jilted him. "I would't," replied a by-stander, "you've none to spare."

A woman in Wisconsin says that when her husband is a little drunk he kicks her, and when he is very drunk she kicks him; she adds that she does most of the kicking.

A good story is told of a popular railroad conductor recently chosen deacon of a church in Middlesex county. A few Sundays after his new appointment, it became his duty to ass ist in taking up a collection. He surprised the congregation by starting out with the characteristic ejaculation, "Tickets, gentlemen !" The contribution that day was unusually large.

One vote was lost in California thus: With considerable trouble the voter deciphered a poster announcing that certain candidates would address the inbabitants of Gilroy and vicinity, and after a moment's deep meditation exclaimed: "Vicinity! Whar's vicinity? I've lived hyar-abouts for nigh onto fifteen years, and there is no such place nigh, an' any party what don't know the geography of the country better nor that can't get my

"A St. Louis man, who believes in St. Louis and his beer, visited Dubuque recently, and being thirsty, called for a glass of lager beer. After drinking, he remarked, with indescribable gusto. "A-h-h! that's splendid, St. Louis beer is it not." "St. Louis?" reiterated the Teuton, "no sir-ee! that is Topook peer!" "What, have you a brewery here?" queried surprised St. Louis. "A prewery? seffen tousant Cherman's and one prewery? Where you was leaf when you was home?"

Some one asked Mrs. Cady Stanton if she thought that girls possessed the physique necessary for the wear and tear of a college course of study. Her reply is both sensible and sarcastic. "I would like to see you," said Mrs. Stan-ton, "take thirteen hundred young men and lace them up, and hang ten to twen-ty pounds weight of clothes to their waists, perch them upon three inch heels, cover their heads with ripples, chignons, rats and mice, and stick ten thousand bair pins into their scalps; if they can stand all this, they can stand a little Latin and Greek."

When King James was once passing through Colchester, it was resolved that the Mayor should compliment him on his arrival. It so happened that this chief magie-trate was eminently stupid, which is looked upon as no strange thing in England. The town clerk was appointed to attend him at his back, and whisper what he was to say to the King. When they came into his Majesty's presence, the clerk, desiring to encourage the Mayor, whispered in his ear : " Hold up your head and look like a

"Hold up your head and look like a man!" did the Mayor bawl to the King. The clerk, astonished, whispered: "What the deuce do you mean?" The Mayor balled out:

"What the deuce do you mean?" The clerk, sweating with fear and vexation, whispered : " By heaven, you will ruin us all."

The Mayor immediately repeated: " By heaven you will ruin us all!" "The clerk, in a violent rage, said :-"Oh, you blundering puppy, I wish you had never come here."

The Mayor again bawled: "O, you blundering puppy, I wish you had never come here."

The clerk, on this, immediately took to his heels, and the mayor followed him. leaving the King in a fit of laughter, though not without rage.

Quick Work.

Several years ago when new churches were erected, and prosperity dawned upon Virginia City, a certain earnest clergyman on a Sunday morning, was exhorting those with anxious and troubled conscience to be sure and call on their pastor for guidance and prayer.

Said he, "To show you my brethern, the blessed results of these visits with your pastor, I will state to you that only yesterday a gentleman of wealth called upon me for counsel and instruction; and now to-day my friends-to-day-be sits among us a happpy husband, and a father and a Christian.

A young lady in the audience whispered to a matron, "Was'ut that pretty quick
