A man may borrow money, steal from a widow, discount his own whiskey bill, or "nip" a prayer book from a dying heathen, and still have some chance of pardon; but when he swindles a poor printer out of his bill, we think the devil has such a firm grip on the seat of his pantalons that the repentance and forgiveness are utterly out of the question.

The cold and frosty weather has had the effect of completely blocking canal navigation by ice and snow for nearly the entire length of the Erie canal. Ice two inches thick was formed on last Wednesday night. The opinion is general that canal navigation will be closed for the season at Syracuse, Oswego, Rome, Little Falls and Schenectady, and one hundred boats are frozen in at Rome.

A curious fact is related of the Maine woodchoppers, who, in the winter months, while felling trees amid snow and ice, cannot wear close-fitting boots, but very large sizes, that allow their feet to slip and to freeze, thus causing friction and warmth. But from this they have their feet completely encased with corns. In the spring, when they raft their logs, they do not change their clothing or boots for weeks, until their arrival at the saw-mills. All the while their feet have been saturated in water, and when the boots are removed, the corns fall off like nutshells from the kernel.
