 Hundreds of Thousands
 Bear testimony to their Wonderful
 Cures of Various Ailments.
WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE
FANCY DRINK,
 Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Infused with a doctor's opium and directed to please the taste, called "Tonic," "Appetizer," "Restorer," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE a perfect Tonic and Invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the Blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions and remain long unwell.
 $1.00 will be given for an incurable case of any of the above, or not detected by medical or other means, and the vital organs weak, &c., at the point of death.
 For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia, or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidney, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are cured by Vitriolated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.
DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION. Head ache, Pain in the Stomach, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Bloating, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Inflammation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidney, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.
 They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and bowels, which render them effectually efficient in cleansing the Blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.
FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Itch, Rheum, Bores, Eruptions, Itch, Scalds, Pimples, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald-head, Itch of the Eyes, Eruptions, Itch, Scalds, Eruptions of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever nature or extent, are literally cured up and eradicated from the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.
 Cleanse the Vitriolated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Bores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the Blood pure and the health of the system will follow.
PIN, TALE AND OTHER WOUNDS. Nothing in the system so common and so difficult to cure as this disease, and it is cured by the use of these Bitters, and especially the circular around each bottle, which contains directions—English, German, French and Spanish.

PROSPECTUS FOR 1872.
FIFTH YEAR.
 A Representative and Champion of American Art.
THE ALDINE:
 An Illustrated Monthly Journal claimed to be the handsomest Paper in the World.
 "Give my love to the artist workmen of THE ALDINE who are striving to make their profession worthy of admiration for beauty, as it has always been for usefulness."—Hens. Ward Beecher.
NEW FEATURES FOR 1872.
ART DEPARTMENT.
 As a guarantee of the excellence of this department, the publishers would beg to announce during the coming year, specimens from the following eminent American artists:
 W. T. Richards, Granville Perkins, Jas. Smiley, Wm. Hart, F. O. Darley, R. E. Piquet, Wm. Beard, Victor Neillig, Frank Beard, Geo. Smiley, Wm. H. Wilcox, Paul Dixon, Aug. Will, James H. Beard and J. Hovs.
 These pictures are being reproduced regardless of expense, by the very best engravers in the country, and will bear the severest critical comparison with the best foreign work, it being the determination of the publishers that THE ALDINE shall be a successful vindicator of American taste in competition with any existing publication in the world.
LITERARY DEPARTMENT.
 Where so much attention is paid to illustration and get up of the work, too much dependence on appearances may very naturally be feared. To anticipate such misgivings, it is only necessary to state, that the editorial management of THE ALDINE has been intrusted to Mr. Richard H. Stoddard, who has received assurances of assistance from a host of the most popular writers and poets of the country.
THE VOLUME FOR 1872
 will contain nearly 300 pages, and 250 fine engravings, commencing with the number for January. Every third number will contain a beautiful tinted picture on plate paper, inserted as a frontispiece.
 The Christmas number of 1872 will be a splendid volume in itself, containing fifty engravings, (four in tint) and although retailed at $1, will be sent without extra charge to all yearly subscribers.
A CHROMO TO EVERY SUBSCRIBER
 was a very popular feature last year, and will be repeated with the present volume. The publishers have purchased and reproduced, at great expense, the beautiful oil painting by Sims, entitled "Dante Nature's School." The chromo is 11x13 inches, and is an exact fac-simile, in size and appearance, of the original picture.
TERMS FOR 1872.
 One Copy, one year, with Oil Chromo, $5.00
 Five Copies, 25.00
 Any person sending 10 names and $10 will receive an extra copy gratis, making 11 copies for the money.

HUMEROUS.
 No Relation.
 Monkeys are scarce in Michigan. A saddler in Detroit kept one for a pet, that usually sat on the counter. A workman one day came in, the proprietor being in the back room. The customer, seeing a saddle that suited him, asked the price.
 Monkey said nothing.
 Customer said, "I'll give you twenty dollars for it," laying down the money, which the monkey shoved into the drawer. The man then took the saddle, but the monkey mounted him tore his hair, scratched his face, and the frightened customer screamed for dear life. Proprietor rushed in and wanted to know what was the fuss.
 "Fuss?" said the customer, "fuss? I bought a saddle of your son sitting there, and when I went to take it he wouldn't let me have it."
 The saddler apologized for the monkey, but assured him that he was no relation.
Sharp Shooting.
 The following dialogue on sharpshooting quietly took place between a Virginia and a Yankee picket:
 "I say can you fellows shoot?"
 "Wall, I reckon we can, some. Down in Mississippi we knock a humble bee's eye-winker off at three hundred yards.
 Oh, that ain't nothing to the way we shoot up in Vermont. I belonged to a military company up there of a hundred men, and went out for practice every week. The captain draws us single file, and sets a cider barrel rolling down hill, and each man takes his shot at the bung hole as it turns up. It is afterwards examined, and if there is a shot that didn't go in the bung-hole the member who missed it is expelled. I belonged to the company ten years, and there ain't been nobody expelled yet.
A Certain Cure.
 A tender and touching Teuton, practising as a peddler, went out to deal out a liquid exterminator of bed-bugs, he hit upon a customer who put up his cash and pocketed the prize.
 "Now I've got the article, tell me how to use it," said Joe Harness.
 "Ketch to pug nut drop von leetle drop into his moult," answered the peddler.
 "Der tuyfel you say!" exclaimed the purchaser; "I kills it in half the time by stamping on it."
 "Vell," calmly replied the peddler, "dat ish a goot way too, to kill him."
 And so Joe Harness thought.
 A newly converted young man at one of the recent camp meetings giving his experience to the congregation, remarked: "I have always tried to live a Christian life, and I don't think I ever did any body any harm but one time, when my nigh ox didn't come to the scratch—I swore—yes, I cussed him"—taking his handkerchief to wipe the tears from his eyes. A wag from the rear of the crowd asked, "What did you say to him?" "I told him to go up, you darned old geranium."
 They tell a story of a young telegraph operator, who, to show his dexterity before his intended, escorted her to the telegraph office, and took off the first message that came to hand. It happened to be from a lady to her husband, and was in these simple words, "Isaiah, ix, 6." Curious to know what the words imparted, the young lovers referred to the nearest Bible. The first line of the text satisfied their curiosity.
 Mr. Theophilus Popp, of Poppville, in Pop county, fancying himself to be very popular with his lady love, popped the question to her under a poplar tree, where she referred him to her poppy, when, when asked his consent, laboring under the influence of ginger pop, popped him out of the door to the tune of "Pop goes the weasel."
 A Western editor was serenaded, and in the next issue of his paper complimented the serenading party on their judicious musical taste in the selection of pieces." He was informed by a listener, after the publication, that they had played the "Rogue's March."
 "Secrets," says Josh Billings, "are poor property, anyhow; ef yew circulate them yew lose them, and if yew keep them yew lose the interest on the investment."
 A very slender man asked a friend what character he had better take at a masquerade, and was advised to braid his legs and appear as a whiplash.
 Two ladies were traveling together in the cars when a stranger asked the elder what relationship she bore to the younger. The answer was quick and pertinent:—She is my sister's daughter, and my daughter's sister's!" How?
 A sick man was told that his wife would probably marry again. "All right," said he, "for there will be one man to lament my death."
 Men make their wills when dying; women are not allowed the same legal privilege because they are held to have had them during their lives.
