A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY
Dr. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA
VINEGAR BITTERS
 Hundreds of Thousands
 Bear testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.
WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,
 Made of Pure Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors, doctor, and are so prepared to please the taste, called "Tonic," "Appetizer," "Restorer," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell.
$100 will be given for an Incurable case, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral waters or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.
For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia, or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder. These Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.
DYSPEPSIA, OR INDIGESTION. Head ache, Pain in the Stomach, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.
 They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.
FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Pimples, Pusules, Sores, Carbuncles, Ring Worms, Itch, Head, Scars, Eruptions, etc., Scars, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.
 Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your features will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.
PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

 Where so much attention is paid to illustration and get up of the work, too much dependence on appearances may very naturally be feared. Stoddard, who has received assurances of assistance from a host of the most popular writers and poets of the country.

HUMOROUS.
 An amusing instance of Hibernian simplicity is given in the following little story told us by a friend, in whose words we give it:
 Molly, our housemaid, is a model one, who takes the broomstick like a sceptre, and who has an abhorrence of dirt and a sympathy for soapuds that amounts to a passion. She is a blustering, rosy-cheeked, bright-eyed, blundering Hibernian, who hovers about our book-shelves, making war upon our law papers, in the shape of unrighted corners.
 One day she entered our library in a confused and uncertain manner quite different from her usual bustling way. She stood at the door with a letter between her thumb and finger, which she held out at arm's length, as if she had a gunpowder plot in her grasp. In answer to our inquiries as to her business, she said:
 "An' it plaze your honor, I'm a poor girl as hasn't much larnin', an' ye sees, plaze ye honor, Paddy O'Relley (an' the better than him doesn't brathe in ould Ireland) has been writin' me a letter—a love-letter, plaze yer honor, an'—an'—"
 We guessed her embarrassment, and ventured to relieve it by offering to read it for her. Still she hesitated, while she twisted a bit of raw cotton between her fingers.
 "Sure," she resumed, "an' that's just what I want; but it isn't a gentleman like yourself that would be likin' to know the secrets between us, an' so"—here she twined the cotton quite nervously—"if it will only plaze yer honor, while yer reading it, so that ye may not hear it yerself, ye'll jist put this bit of cotton in yer ears an' stop up yer hearin', an' then our secrets will be unknown to ye."
 We hadn't the heart to refuse her, and with the gravest face possible, complied with her request; but often since we have laughed as we related the incident.

A Chicago lover went visit his girl one evening recently, but for some reason, probably that the fire had materially changed his condition in life, she received and treated him coolly. He remained standing in the parlor for a few moments, but finally made a movement toward the door, remarking that "he guessed he'd go."
 "Oh!" said she, starting from a beautiful condition of semi-unconsciousness, "won't you take a chair?"
 "Well, I don't care if I do," was his reply; and he took the chair, thanking her kindly, and carried it home. He says it is a good chair, made of walnut, with stuffing, and green cover—just what he wanted. But he is down on the girl—and declares he wouldn't marry her—not if her father owned a brewery.

Not long since there worked in Washington a printer named North, who would occasionally drink too much. One evening, after having struggled with too many drinks, a friend advised him to go to the prayer-meeting in the Y. M. C. A. building, and ask some of the members to pray for him. The suggestion struck him favorably, and he proceeded to act upon it, but accidentally wandered into the gymnasium. "They told me to come over here to a prayer-meeting, but this looks terribly like a circus, but may be it's only the way I'm looking at it, ain't—hic—much used to it, and I s'pose it'll all come round right pretty soon!"
 A countryman visited a Boston hotel, and wrote after his name, "P. O. P. S. F. C. Hero was a title which none but himself understood."
 "Pray, my dear sir," asked the clerk, "what do all these letters stand for?"
 "Stand for? Why, that's my title;"
 "Yes, sir, but what is your title?"
 "Why, sir, Professor of Psalmody and Schoolmaster from Connecticut."

"What are you about, my dear?" said a grandmother to a little boy, who was idling about the room and casting furtive glances at a gentleman who was paying a visit. "I am trying to steal papa's hat out of the room without letting the gentleman see it, for papa wants him to think he is out."
 A minister made an interminable call upon a lady of his acquaintance. Her little daughter, who was present, grew very weary of his conversation, and at last whispered in an audible key, "didn't he bring his amen with him, mamma?"
 "John," said a cockney lawyer to his son, "I see you will never do for an attorney—you have no benery." "Excuse me, father," said John, "what I want is some of your chickenary."
 A St. Louis lawyer attempted to try a case the other day when half drunk, but the judge stopped him, saying: "No lawyer can serve two bars at the same time."
 The best 'Bus—Kissing a pretty girl. Best Re-bus—Kissing her a second time. A terrible Blunderbuss—Kissing the wrong girl.
 One of the Oskosh ministers when he marries a couple, finishes by saying: "Suffer little children to come unto them, amen."
