A bill has been introduced in the Ohio Legislature to encourage the cultivation of forests. A smart fellow says: The most pleasant kind of husbandry is—the removing of a widow's weeds. The loss from the flood in the Sacramento Valley has been very great. Thousands of cattle were drowned. The revolution in Mexico is advancing into the State of Tamaulipas. The western coast is quiet. A crazy man, styling himself secretary to God, has written a letter to the Mayor of Brooklyn, threatening to crush him if he fails to do his bidding. A Chicago German blew out his brains with a pistol loaded with powder and water—a terribly effective charge if used at a very short range. Two thousand and seventy dollars was the price awarded Mrs. Peter Stouffer by a jury in Westmorland county for her husband who lost his life by falling through a defective township bridge. An excited individual in Indiana county named Mott, says: I will pay $100 reward for the hide and scalp of the person or persons who have been pilfering from my premises. I mean business. A daughter of Herman Miller, of Hoboken, died a short time since from eating pork infected with trichina. Other members of the family, who sickened from the same cause, have recovered. A small child in Illinois climbed up on a chair to wipe its face on a hanging towel. The chair slipped, and the child catching in the towel was hanged by the neck, and died. A sneak thief recently stole a coat at Marshalltown, Illinois, which had been hung across a fence to be disinfected of the small pox, and as a consequence has gone to his reward. An ingenious Mississippi negro, thought he would kill a sheep by holding it in front of an approaching locomotive. The animal escaped with a broken leg, but the ingenious individual was made the subject of a funeral oration. It is rumored that one of the postmasters of St Joseph county Michigan, has got himself into difficulty, by attempting to suppress the circulation of a newspaper. The United States Grand Jury didn't see the thing as the postmaster did. A man named Solomon Woodring, of Groveport, Ohio, has just married his fourth wife out of the same family, she being a sister of the three former wives. He is sixty-seven and his wife is forty-seven years old; and it was a runaway match at that. William Kelly has just been pardoned out of the Ohio state prison, upon the belief that he was innocent of the crime for which a life time sentence was passed upon him. He has been imprisoned twelve years, and the state settles the obligation to him by giving him a pardon and suit of clothes. An old man named Lydie ninety years of age, was burned to death at Bourbon, Marshall county, Ind., last week. The house took fire about midnight, and while the rest of the family escaped he refused to do so, and next morning only a few bones were found. It is said that he fired the house himself and committed suicide in that manner. At Berea Ohio, an infernal machine, in the shape of an iron box containing powder with percussion so arranged that the least tap from a hard substance would explode the concern, was found upon the mantelpiece of a respectable family of that place. The family have not the least idea how the machine came there nor for what purpose. On the road between Meriden and Hartford there is a saloon where decoctions of benzine are passed over a rickety bar, at the small price of five cents. Directly opposite is a country graveyard where the country for a few miles around bury their dead. The hostess of the saloon has an unfeeling sign on the door as follows: "Key to the cemetery gate within." There are in the United States 150 cities and towns which as appears from the recent census, have over 10,000 inhabitants. Of these cities New York State heads the list with twenty-one, the greatest number; Pennsylvania comes next in order with sixteen; Massachusetts, fifteen; Ohio, eleven, and so on. Florida, Nevada and Oregon are without a single city of 10,000 inhabitants. At Bellevue Hospital, New York, in cases of fractured limbs, moulds of plaster of Paris are now used in place of "splints." The patient's broken leg or arm is bandaged, and over the bandage is moulded a thin layer of plastic plaster. This soon dries, and the patient, instead of being compelled to lie in bed, can get up in twenty minutes and go around on crutches. The broken member is held perfectly secure in the light plaster-clad battery. This is a wonderful and simple invention.

English Roofing Felt In found to stand well in all climates, being extensively used for Roofing Houses, Out-Buildings and Sheds; for Laying Flat Roofs, Gutters, Lining Granaries, Storehouses, or Walls, (either outside or inside), and for placing under Slates or Tiles. It is also a cheap and effective Ceiling on the underneath side of rafters of a Slated or Tiled Roof, and as a Ceiling to Iron Roofs, counteracting Heat, Frost, and Condensation of Moisture. The English Felt is put up in rolls of 25 yards in length, by 32 inches in width, and containing a surface of 200 square feet. THREE-PLY FELT FOR ROOFING. In Rolls, 26 inches wide, by 50 feet in length; each roll will cover a surface 10 feet square, or 100 square feet. It is to be laid across the roof, shingle fashion, with a lap of two inches, and secured by nailing the edges with 3d nails and tin caps. When laid, the Felt is to be painted with Mastic Roof Coating, and Sanded. The Mastic Roof Coating is mixed, ready for use, and is applied with a brush. TARRED ROOFING FELT. Used extensively for Sheathing Houses, and for Tar and Gravel Roofing, also for placing under Slate, Tin and Shingle Roofing. It is used in packing Woolens and Furs to protect them from moths. Put up in rolls weighing 45 pounds each. 15 pounds Felt will cover a surface of 100 square feet. TWO-PLY FELT, For Sheathing Houses, Roofing Temporary Buildings, making Water-Tight Floors, and for placing under Slate and Shingles. In rolls, 26 inches wide by 50 feet in length. Each roll will cover a surface of 10 feet square or 100 square feet. For Sheathing it can be nailed upon the studs, making a perfectly air tight sheathing, and sure protection from dampness. Rats, mice, or vermin will not go near it. MICA CANVAS ROOFING, In rolls containing 250 square feet. Is to be laid across the roof, and lapped shingle fashion with a lap of two inches, and secured by nailing the edges with 20 oz. tacks. This is the only Composition Roofing that does not require a finishing coat of paint or cement. UNTARRED SHEATHING FELT, For Carpet Lining, Deadening Floors, and for putting under Slate, Tin and Shingle Roofing. Put up in rolls weighing 100 pounds. 10 pounds Felt will cover a surface 10 feet square, or 100 square feet. MANUFACTURED BY THE PENN ROOFING CO., 105 South 2nd Street, PHILADELPHIA, PA.
