There were sixteen deaths from small-pox in Brooklyn, N. Y., on Tuesday night last.

Mr. Valls, a resident of Pleasant township, Switzerland county, Ind., was shot last Monday night, while undressing to go to bed, and died about eleven o'clock. The assassin fired through the window and escaped.

The New Bedford Standard says the entire catch of whalebone by the Arctic fleet last season was only 28,000 pounds, and 23,981 pounds have arrived in that city and Boston by the Pacific Railroad, the balance being on board the ship Europa, of Edgartown, bound home.

A few evenings ago a kerosene lamp standing on a table in the Curran House, Stevens' Point, Wisconsin, exploded from some unknown cause. The concussion caused the explosion of fifteen others, which had just been trimmed and lighted for use. Prompt action prevented a conflagration.

A special dispatch to the Cincinnati Commercial from Frankfort, Ky., says a short time since a party of disguised Kludux visited the house of a citizen in that county while a wedding was in progress and took possession of the premises. They fired off pistols and danced over the floor. The fright occasioned to the daughter of this citizen caused her to go into spasms, succeeded by insanity.

The St. Peter, Minn., Tribune tells this: Little Johnny Rogers, is five years old, full of mischief, and goes to school. The other day, the teacher having exhausted moral persuasion, gave Johnny a note to deliver to the principle, which read as follows: "Mr. Metcalf: The bearer deserves a severe punishment."

Johnny was suspicious—he smelt a mice—and on reflection he concluded not to go to the principal's room. Meeting a Norwegian boy in the hall, he inveigled him into delivering the note and went off to play. The principal read the note and at once went for "the bearer," who departed a sadder and wiser Norwegian.

A desperate shooting affair occurred in Charlestown, W. Va., on last Tuesday under the following circumstances: During the war the lands of John Clarkson, a wealthy Virginian, were sold for taxes, and a suit was commenced to recover the property. During the progress of the trial Clarkson called the defendant, U. S. Marshal Stack, a liar. Stack struck Clarkson, and a general melee ensued, in which seven shots were fired. The room was small and more than a dozen persons were present. Clarkson was shot four times, and one wound, being in the breast, is dangerous. All the parties are wealthy and respectable, and the affair has caused a great excitement.

FOREIGN NEWS.

London, January 24th.—A severe storm commenced here yesterday evening and lasted all night, raging with great violence. The gale at times became a hurricane, and rain poured down in torrents, flooding the lower portions of the city. The Parliament building was damaged, the water penetrating the roof in several places and injuring the decorations and furniture.

The weather reports say that the storm extended through the British isles and reached some portions of the Continent. The telegraph wires are prostrated in various directions and communications interrupted. In the Channel and on the Irish coast the storm was excessively severe. Serious disasters to shipping are feared, although, partly owing to the derangement of the wires, no wrecks are yet reported.

Affairs in Mexico are in a terrible condition. Dissatisfaction exists in every department, and murder and robbery is rapidly on the increase. Only a few days since a railroad train was attacked at Puebla, and seven passengers were killed, one being a little girl.

At Madrid, on the 25th inst., during the session of the Spanish Cortes, Senor Diaz Quintera addressed the members on the subject of the relations which exist between the mother country and Cuba.

Towards the conclusion of the speech he asserted that "it is quite time for Spain to cede Cuba to the United States," an expression which was literally howled down by the whole House.

The Mail Steamer from Rio Janeiro, brings news of a terrible steam disaster. The steamer America, plying between Rio and Montevideo, while on a trip from the latter place, on the night of December 22, took fire. The flames spread with great rapidity, and the vessel was soon burned to the water's edge. A large number of passengers were on board, of whom eighty-seven lost their lives, being either burned to death or drowned.

President Thiers is endeavoring to secure the complete evacuation by the Prussian troops of the French territory which was hostages to Germany in security of the payment of the war indemnity.

Prince Bismarck will assent to the immediate march of the Emperor William's soldiers homeward on condition that three milliards of money are paid by the French into the Berlin treasury, earlier than was previously stipulated.

English Roofing Felt

Is found to stand well in all climates, being extensively used for Roofing Houses, Out-Buildings and Sheds; for Laying Flat Roofs, Gutters, Lining Granaries, Storehouses, or Walls, (either outside or inside), and for placing under Slates or Tiles. It is also a cheap and effective Ceiling on the underneath side of rafters of a Slated or Tiled Roof, and as a Ceiling to Iron Roofs, counteracting Heat, Frost, and Condensation of Moisture.

THE ENGLISH FELT is put up in rolls of 25 yards in length, by 32 inches in width, and containing a surface of 200 square feet.

THREE-PLY FELT FOR ROOFING. In Rolls, 26 inches wide, by 50 feet in length; each roll will cover a surface 10 feet square, or 100 square feet.

It is to be laid across the roof, shingle fashion, with a lap of two inches, and secured by nailing the edges with 3d nails and tin caps. When laid, the Felt is to be painted with Mastic Roof Coating, and Sanded. The Mastic Roof Coating is mixed, ready for use, and is applied with a brush.

TARRED ROOFING FELT. Used extensively for Sheathing Houses, and for Tar and Gravel Roofing, also for placing under Slate, Tin and Shingle Roofing.

It is used in packing Woollens and Furs to protect them from moths. Put up in rolls weighing 45 pounds each. 15 pounds Felt will cover a surface of 100 square feet.

TWO-PLY FELT, For Sheathing Houses, Roofing Temporary Buildings, making Water-Tight Floors, and for placing under Slate and Shingles.

In rolls, 26 inches wide by 50 feet in length. Each roll will cover a surface of 10 feet square or 100 square feet. For Sheathing it can be nailed upon the studs, making a perfectly air-tight sheathing, and sure protection from dampness. Rats, mice, or vermin will not go near it.

MICA CANVAS ROOFING. In rolls containing 250 square feet. Is to be laid across the roof, and lapped shingle fashion with a lap of two inches, and secured by nailing the edges with 3d oz. tacks.

This is the only Composition Roofing that does not require a finishing coat of paint or cement.

UNTARRED SHEATHING FELT, For Carpet Lining, Deadening Floors, and for putting under Slate, Tin and Shingle Roofing. Put up in rolls weighing 100 pounds.

10 pounds Felt will cover a surface 10 feet square, or 100 square feet.

MANUFACTURED BY THE PENN ROOFING CO., 105 South 2nd Street, PHILADELPHIA, PA.

WE INVITE the attention of buyers and sellers to the advantages we offer them in purchasing or disposing of real estate through our office.

We have a very large list of desirable property, consisting of farms, town property, mills, store and tavern stands, and real estate of any description which we are prepared to offer at great bargains. We advertise our property very extensively, and use all our efforts, skill, and diligence to effect a sale. We make no charges unless the property is sold while registered with us. We also draw up deeds, bonds, mortgages, and all legal papers at moderate rates.

Some of the best, cheapest, and most reliable fire, life, and cattle insurance companies in the United States are represented at this agency.—Property insured either on the cash or mutual plan, and perpetually at $4 and $5 per thousand. Pensions, bounties, and all kinds of war claims collected. There are thousands of soldiers and heirs of soldiers who are entitled to pensions and bounties, who have never made application. Soldiers, if you were wounded, ruptured, or contracted a disease in the service from which you are disabled, you are entitled to a pension. When widows of soldiers die or marry, the minor children are entitled to the pension. Parties having any business to transact in our line, are respectfully invited to give us a call, as we are confident we can render satisfaction in any branch of our business.
