CARSON'S STELLAR OIL.

This is not the lowest priced, but being much the best in the end by far the cheapest. Do not fail to give it a trial, and you will use no other.

THE alarming increase in the number of frightful accidents, resulting in terrible deaths and the destruction of valuable property, caused by the indiscriminate use of oils, known under the name of petroleum, prompts us to call your special attention to an article, which, wherever USED, remove the CAUSE of such accidents.—We allude to

FOR ILLUMINATING PURPOSES.

The proprietor of this Oil has for several years felt the necessity of providing for, and presenting to the public, as a substitute for the dangerous compounds which are sent broadcast over the country, an oil that is SAFE and BRIGHT, and entirely reliable. After a long series of laborious and costly experiments, he has succeeded in providing, and now offers to the public, such a substitute in "CARSON'S STELLAR OIL." It should be used by every family.

1ST, Because it is safe beyond a question. The primary purpose in the preparation of STELLAR OIL has been to make it PERFECTLY SAFE, thus insuring the lives and property of those who use it.

2D, Because it is the most BRILLIANT liquid illuminator now known.

3D, Because it is more economical, in the long run, than any of the dangerous oils and fluids now in too common use.

TH, Because it is intensely BRILLIANT, and therefore economical, giving the greatest possible light at the least expenditure to the consumer. Its present standard of SAFETY AND BRIGHTNESS will always be maintained,—for upon this the proprietor depends for sustaining the high reputation the STELLAR OIL now enjoys.

To prevent the adulteration of this with the explosive compounds now known under the name of kerosene, &c., &c., it is put up for family use in Five Gallon cans, each can being sealed, and stamped with the trade-mark of the proprietor; it cannot be tampered with between the manufacturer and consumer. None is genuine without the TRADE-MARK.

STELLAR OIL is sold only by weight, each can containing five gallons of six and a half pounds each, thus securing to every purchaser full measure. It is the duty and interest of all dealers and consumers of illuminating oil to use the STELLAR OIL only, because it alone is known to be safe and reliable.

All orders should be addressed to JARDEN & CO.,

HUMEROUS.

A Dutchman's Joke.

We had a German American fellow-citizen, by the name of General Willich—and a good soldier, too by the way. It was about the time of the battle of Stone River, when one day Captain Allen, of General W.'s staff came riding up to his headquarters, and the following conversation ensued: "Vell Caupitain said the General, in a jolly mood, "vot is der news mit der fronts?" "O, not much of any news, General; only a little shelling going on." The General jumped on his feet, at excitement, and staff officers and orderlies gathered around to hear the news, while General Willich exclaimed: "Schelling! schelling! vot schelling? Vot ish der damage?" "O, not much damage, General; it was only the boy's "shelling" a little corn for their horses." To say that this called out a laugh is drawing it mild. It would have brought the house down had there been any house there to bring down. The General laughed as heartily as the rest, exclaiming, "Dot ish coot, dot is some funs!"

A little while after, General Harker, upon whose staff I then had the honor to be serving, rode over to Willich's headquarters, and General W., no doubt thinking it a good opportunity to air his joke, replied, in answer to General Harker's question, "Well, Willich, what is the news?" "O, vell, Sheneneral, dare bees not much newz—only der poys bees schelling a leedle corn for der horses." He looked at us as much as to say, "now is the time for the laugh to come in." and himself broke into a boisterous "Ha! ha!" which came to a very sudden termination when he saw that we did not join him. The officers who had been present at the former scene had by this time put in an appearance, by the General's merriment, and scratching his head in much perplexity, he exclaimed: "By dunder! dare was somedings funny about dat ven I hears him, put I dont not see vere der laugh comes in alretty, aint it?" About that time he found out.

A fellow with an inquiring turn of mind, was anxious to know the meaning of the letters W. or R. which he saw on so many posts along the rail road. He was told they were instructions to the engineer, to either ring or whistle. This quieted him for a time, when he suddenly broke out with: "Isay Mister aint you mistaken? I've heard of commencing wring with W. but who ever heard of commencing whistle with an R?"

A young man, not a hundred miles from town, was accosted by a friend the other day with the remark:
"I heard the other day that you were about to get married."
"W'all, yes," he replied, "I thought awhile that I would marry, but I found out that the girl and all her people were against it and I concluded to drop it."

A man having fallen into a slough, an Irishman standing by, called to another for assistance. The latter who was busily engaged in cutting a log, leisurely inquired, "How deep is he in?" "Up to his ankles," "Then there is plenty of time," "No, there is not," replied the first; "I forgot to tell you he's in head-first."

Captain Feeks, of the three months troops, had seen the left-wheel movements executed, and undertook to put his own company through it, but being unable to think of the proper words of command, substituted the following: "Come around like a gate! All ready? Come!"

An old bachelor recently gave the following toast: Woman—the morning star of infancy, the day star of manhood, and the evening star of age. Bless our stars, and may they always be kept at telescopic distance!"

A Danbury lady, recently visiting Wethersfield, asked one of the attendants why the prisoners receive such coarse fare? He told her it was to keep their blood from becoming impure; and when she asked him what they would do if their blood was impure, he dryly responded, "Break out."

Young gent: "Might I ask you, miss—ah—?" Miss: "Very sorry, sir; but I am engaged for the next three dances." "Ah—it is—it's, beg your pardon, miss; you are sitting on my hat!"

"Gerty, my dear," said a teacher to one of his pupils, "you have been a very good little girl to-day." "Yes'm, I could not help being good; I had a stiff neck," said Gerty, with perfect seriousness.

"I say, Pat, what are you about—sweeping out the room?"
"No," answered Pat, "I'm sweeping out the dirt and leaving the room."

An affected Illinois father advertises for his runaway daughter, promising her lover $2,50 if he will send her home again.

"Figures won't lie." Won't they? Does a fashionable woman's figure tell the truth?

The man who couldn't find his match went to bed in the dark.
Boarding house bread. "Tt's but a little faded "flower."
