

The Bloomfield Times.

NEW BLOOMFIELD, PENN'A. Tuesday, March 5th, 1872.

Receipts.—The date on the direction label indicates the time for which a subscription is paid, consequently no other receipt is required.

Judge Davis, of Illinois, and Gov. Parker, of New Jersey, have been named by the Labor reformers as their choice for President and Vice-President.

Two of the wealthiest men in the country, are rather singular candidates to represent the laboring men of the United States.

A firm in New York has printed fac similes of several newspapers of last century and are selling them on the streets of the cities as genuine specimens of old papers.

THE DOGS in the State Legislature the past week have not been of much general interest. Neither House was in session until Wednesday.

Locked in a Car.

Upon opening a box car in the Yard, at this place, on last Friday a week, the employes of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company discovered a man who had been imprisoned therein for three days and three nights.

Another Swindler.

The Mechanicsburg (Pa.) Journal of the 22th ult., says, "An individual named Zimmerman, hailing from Crawford county this State, representing a patented article which he was positive should be in the hands of every farmer, called on Mr. Longsdorf, residing a short distance west of this place, and stated that he was desirous of procuring the services of a respectable and influential farmer in every county to act as his agent for the sale of the patent—a contrivance to hold a scythe while sharpening it,—whose remuneration would be a liberal commission.

A Tough One.

The Bloomfield (Ill.) "Leader" is responsible for the following: A few days since a man named Daniels met with an accident by which one of his hands was cut off, the absence of which he did not discover until he walked into the light, the accident having occurred in a dark room.

A Mystery.

A letter from Ellenville N. Y., dated Feb. 25th says:

In the month of December last, this vicinity was startled by the sudden disappearance of a young lady named Anna Roys, the daughter of Maurice Roys who lives about six miles from Wurtsboro, Sullivan county. She was a beautiful young lady, and had always borne a good reputation in the community in which she lived, and no cause could be assigned for her mysterious disappearance.

A circumstance not thought of before is now related by one of the Shawangunk transfer coach-drivers. He says that about the time that Miss Roys disappeared, one night in December, as he was driving over the mountain, he was overtaken by a man driving in a carriage.

The affair, as may well be expected, has created a furore in the entire community. That parties will be implicated in the disappearance and subsequent death of the young lady, who move in respectable circles, is the opinion of many.

A Clerical Scoundrel.

One of the most outrageous cases on record was recently exposed at Baltimore. The charge is that Dr. Huston a prominent Methodist Minister of that City has enticed young ladies belong to his church from the paths of virtue, and that he has also trained up members of his Sabbath school to minister to his lusts.

"When it was taken into consideration that, presuming this man to be guilty of all that has been charged against him, the only punishment under the laws of the State is a fine of ten dollars it becomes the duty of the press to expose and hold up to public execration the offender.

There is now in the city a young girl, who some six or eight months since lived in Dr. Huston's family. She afterwards lived with Mr. Carville M. Carson, and accompanied his family when they removed to Savannah.

Dr. Huston was tried on this charge before a committee of preachers appointed by the Presiding Elder of his district. The girl's statement was contradicted in some of its minor details by the witnesses summoned by the accused, and the committee did not think the case fully made out.

An exchange says that Col. Forney contributes a remarkable article to the Chronicle, giving an inside history of the Republican negotiations with Grant in 1868, by which it appears that he "accepted the nomination to save the republican party," on the express condition of a renomination at the end of his first term.

What is still more remarkable, is that just before the nomination, Col. Forney advocated in the Chronicle the one term principle, and said that General Grant was also in favor of that doctrine.

George Webb was shot and killed, and James Aid and David Hamiltree wounded on the 24th inst., in an affray at Salem Church, five miles from Independence, Missouri. A family feud was the cause.

Miscellaneous News Items.

South Bend rejoices in a youth the initials of whose name are Joseph Urias Hickenbottom John Bell Jones. He is getting along as well as could be expected.

The whole of Col. Jas. Fisk's horses and carriages were recently sold at auction and brought $50,000, which is only half what they were expected to bring.

A celebrated clergyman recently said that he had found more good in bad people, and more bad in good people than he ever expected to.

A St. Louis woman, over six feet in height, recently married a man who is but four feet nine. When she wishes to kiss him she has to stand him on a chair.

The body of Clement McCausland, Deputy United States Marshal, has been found 18 miles from Frog Point, Dakota. He perished in the recent storm while pursuing an escaped prisoner.

The wife of George Winant, depot master at Hempstead, L. I., who was sick, beat him with a beef steak pounder so brutally, in Sunday, that he died on Tuesday. The virago was arrested.

The convicts of Rhode Island, last year, made $4,704 more than the cost of maintaining the State prison. Good enough! This surplus probably covered all the State expenses.

John A. Cooper, of San Francisco, owed Sarah Fagan, proposed to her, and was just getting married, when Michael Riley came in and spoiled it all by declaring that Cooper had one wife living already.

A St. Johns (Newfoundland) lover recently married a girl whom he supposed was as poor as a church mouse, and not being a Crossin himself, love in a cottage was his only expectation.

A woman in Marysville, Cal., whose canary had left her, hung the empty cage outside the window and soon had the satisfaction of seeing it occupied by a beautiful brown stranger about the size of her lost pet.

Recently a little child, 18 months old, son of Samuel Souders, was drowned in the mill-race at Schock's mill, three miles above Marietta, Pa.

A Virginia paper has the following announcement of a marriage: "On Wednesday, the 24th ult., on horse-back, in front of the Tavern House of Wm. J. McGraughlin, in Pocahontas county, when the thermometer stood eight degrees below zero, by the Rev. G. J. Brown, Daniel McCarty, a pensioner for service in the war of 1812, aged 78 years, to Miss Ann Gabert, aged 28 years, all of Pocahontas county."

Rats have an unaccountable fondness for the taste of phosphorous, and to this fact may be attributed the origin of many mysterious fires. They build their nests of inflammable materials, and take to them any stray matches they can find lying around loose.

There is now in the city a young girl, who some six or eight months since lived in Dr. Huston's family. She afterwards lived with Mr. Carville M. Carson, and accompanied his family when they removed to Savannah.
