Pardoned.—Jacob J. Baker who was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary at the last October court has been pardoned by the Governor.

No Court Next Week.—The cases which were transferred to this county from Franklin, having been compromised, there will be no jury trials next week and consequently jurors summoned for the 10th inst., need not attend.

Delegate Convention.—In pursuance of a call issued by the chairman of the County Committee, delegates were elected in the several election districts of this county on Saturday last, who assembled in convention in the Court House on Monday. The convention was called to order at 1 P. M., by the election of John L. Diven as President, Capt. F. M. McKeelhan and J. E. Jackson as Secretaries. The number of delegates present, was forty. A resolution offered by Wm. M. McClure instructing the Representative delegates and Senatorial Conferees to vote for General Hartranft for candidate for Governor, as long as there was any hope of nominating him, was carried by a handsome majority.

Judge Juulkin, R. H. Wingert, Esq., and John H. Sheibley, were then nominated for Representative delegates, and on the first ballot J. H. Sheibley was elected. An election was then had for Senatorial Conferees, resulting in the choice of A. B. Grosh, Thos. Campbell and Jesse L. Gantt. The other persons nominated were J. A. Shearer, Wm. Tressler and H. H. Bechtel.

Information Wanted.—Information is wanted of the whereabouts of George William Washington, formerly of Winchester, W. V. When last seen was in Cincinnati, Ohio, some time last Spring. He is thirty-three years of age, five feet seven inches high, dark auburn hair. Any information will be thankfully received by his mother, Mrs. Sallie Johnson, Mechanicsburg, Penna.

Swindlers.—At Harrisburg, two men, giving their names as H. L. Myers and Jas. Watson, have been arrested for raising money by an altered check. They were stopping at the Loehel House, and having sold wheat to Huffner & Co., received a check of $24 on the Dauphin Deposit Bank. They altered the figures to $2000, and received the money, but, the alteration being discovered, they were arrested at the depot. Their valises at the hotel were found to contain "nothing more valuable than bricks."

Don't Try It.—A health journal says that by burning an ounce of sulphur in the cellar a house may be disinfected entirely of small-pox malaria. The receipt is simple and cheap enough to justify a trial of it in every household where the disease prevails, and even where it does not. A friend of ours who saw this receipt effectually tried it, and a few hours later his wife buried her pet canary, and spent the next day cleaning up the tin and plated ware which had turned black by the operation.

Missing.—The Freeburg "Courier" says: On the 20th ult., Mr. Jacob Yordy, of West Hanover township, Dauphin county, attended a sale. He left for his home after dark, and since that time nothing has been heard of him. It is feared that he was drowned in Bow Creek. The horse he rode was at home next morning, with the saddle turned and the bit of the bridle broken. There were evident marks of the horse having crossed the creek, which at the crossing is said to have been eight feet deep at that time, and Mr. Yordy's hat was found on the bank of the stream.

The Sellingsgrove Fire.—We are indebted to the Freeburg Courier for the following particulars regarding the late disastrous fire at Sellingsgrove. It originated in the stable of Mr. John App, from whence it proceeded, destroying a large portion of the business part of town on Market and Pine streets.

The property destroyed is the following: Mr. App's stables and sheds with their contents, including four hogs, four cows, four horses, etc., the "Tribune" printing office, adjoining the barn where the fire originated; also Mr. App's two story brick kitchen, but was checked before it did serious injury to the main building; Mr. App's stables, south of the alley, as well as his tenant house on the corner at the foundry, occupied by Kemer Fisher and Chas. Rishel; a stable for George Schure, and one for Frederick Gundrum, on each corner of the alley opposite Pleasant street; a stable belonging to the First National Bank; a stable for Mrs. Benjamin Senoh; a stable for Dr. P. R. Wagenseller and a stable for Wm. F. Eckbert. On the north side of the alley toward Pine street all the buildings belonging to Wm. F. Eckbert, extending from the alley on Pine street to a short distance on Market street, in which were located Burkhardt's Stove and Tinware establishment, a photograph gallery, Charles Smith's (Chambers') Barber shop, and Mr. Eckbert's new store and residence, erected a year ago; Dr. P. R. Wagenseller's residence, including Shindel & Wagenseller's Drug Store and Telegraph office which had been remodeled a few years ago in a very fine style; Mrs. Benjamin Schoch's residence in which Charles H. Boyer's Hardware Store was located, and a wooden building in which was located, Loyd & Miller's Shoe Store, on Market street. The two Bank buildings, Glover's Clothing Store, and App's residence on Market street were saved, though considerably damaged. In addition to Mr. App's house, in water street, were destroyed the house of Harris Robach near the Foundry, Wenrich's Blacksmith shop, the Baptist Church, C. S. Roshon's new residence, and the corner—owned by Dr. Heistand, of Mt. Joy, Pa., and on the south side of the alley above referred to, the stables of Jos. Wenrich, John Ewig, Mrs. Lydia Schoch and the residence of Levegood & Burns, on the corner, including their Marble Yard, and Salem's Music Store.

The light was visible at different points. A number of our citizens who had seen it repaired thither to give all the assistance they could to check the flames. Many buildings were in danger and some, we have been told, had caught fire, but the flames were extinguished before doing any serious injury. Owing to the exertions on the part of the citizens much house furniture and goods had been removed before the fire reached the more remote buildings. It was three o'clock on Thursday morning before a check to the flames was effected.

Duncannon Items.—On Monday morning of last week we were visited by another fire, and it occurred where one has been expected for some time. Along the railroad are wooden out-buildings with shingle roofs, and numerous stables with hay and straw scattered around ready to catch from a spark of a locomotive, many of which are said to have defective screens. The fire originated in the stable of Mr. Stevenson, and is said to have been caused by a passing locomotive. The stable, and Hoods ice-house were consumed and only prompt and efficient action prevented an extended conflagration.

On Friday Mr. George Moore a farmer residing in Allens Cove shot himself in the forehead and died the same evening.

A Mute Singer.

Mr. Editor.—Although I cannot startle the readers of the TIMES with a horrible accident or new discovery, yet if the publication of the incident I am going to relate, does not interest your many readers, it may be the means of improving the future conduct of those who gave rise to this story. A teacher of music in Carroll twp., appointed singing on the evening of a certain day last week. His son had recently been discharged from school by the school teacher for some misconduct, which so nettled the dignity of the music teacher, that he sped his way to the school house, and, of course an altercation ensued, whereupon the music teacher and the schoolmaster came into close quarters, but still not close enough to shed much blood. That evening there was no music in the soul of the Teacher. All the coaxing and wheedling could not bring him out from his retreat behind the stove. Those assembled, had either to sing without a leader, or disperse without singing, they chose the former, and had a good time of it; while their teacher remained crouched down in his corner, mute as a mouse.

Communicated. Ikesburg, March 1, 1872. Fine Porkers.

C. H. Wilson, Esq., assisted by men of strength, killed a hog for Maj. Harry Spoon on the 29th ult., which weighed when cleaned about 33 1/2 lbs and at the same time a rare pig belonging to Col. J. B. Shuman was killed which weighed about 21 1/2 lbs. The Major's hog was about two years old, and the Colonel's about eighteen months. These were fine porkers, but unless increased interest is taken in the swine business this breed will run out.

Nice—Those spring style of hats, and other spring goods at MORTIMER'S.

Fatal Accident.—The Valley "Independent" says: A painful accident occurred at the residence of Mr. Christian Brenner, on West Main street, in Mechanicsburg on Saturday last, which resulted in the death of his youngest child, an interesting boy about one and a half years of age. A bucket of scalding water had been left standing for a moment at the front door to be used for washing the steps, it is supposed the little boy, in running through the hall, by some means missed his footing and fell backward into the bucket, and on being lifted therefrom it was found that his body from the middle down was fearfully scalded. Medical aid was called and everything done for the little sufferer that was possible, until Monday when death ended its suffering.

Since the opening of the railroad to Milliford, travel has so increased that the hotel proprietors of that place talk of enlarging to meet the demand. That would be one of the effects of a railroad up this valley. All along the route a new spirit of enterprise would be shown.

DEAD MEN TELL NO TALES: If they did, anathemas against the depleting lancet, the drastic purge, and the terrible salivants of the materia medica, would arise from every graveyard. The motto of modern medical science is "Preserve and Regulate, not destroy," and no remedy of our day is so entirely in harmony with this philanthropic logic as Dr. Walker's Vegetable Vinegar Bitters. In this powerful, yet harmless restorative, dyspepsia, bilious complaints, and all diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels and nerves, encounter an irresistible antidote. 10d

Johnson's Anodyne Ointment is, without doubt, the safest, surest, and best remedy that has ever been invented for internal and external use. It is applicable to a great variety of complaints, and is equally beneficial for man or beast.

We have seen it stated in various papers throughout the country, that Agents for the sale of Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders were authorized to refund the money to any person who should use them and not be satisfied with the result.
