CARSON'S STELLAR OIL.
This is not the lowest priced, but being much the best is in the end by far the cheapest. Do not fail to give it a trial, and you will use no other.

THE alarming increase in the number of frightful accidents, resulting in terrible deaths and the destruction of valuable property, caused by the indiscriminate use of oils, known under the name of petroleum, prompts us to call your special attention to an article which will, wherever USED, remove the CAUSE of such accidents.—We allude to

FOR ILLUMINATING PURPOSES.

The proprietor of this Oil has for several years felt the necessity of providing for, and presenting to the public, as a substitute for the dangerous compounds which are so broadly advertised over the country, an oil that is SAFE AND BRILLIANT, and entirely reliable. After a long series of laborious and costly experiments, he has succeeded in providing, and now offers to the public, such a substitute in "CARSON'S STELLAR OIL." It should be used by every family—

1ST. Because it is safe beyond a question. The primary purpose in the preparation of STELLAR OIL has been to make it PERFECTLY SAFE, thus insuring the lives and property of those who use it.

2D. Because it is the most BRILLIANT liquid illuminator now known.

3D. Because it is more economical, in the long run, than any of the dangerous oils and fluids now in too common use.

TH. Because it is intensely BRILLIANT, and therefore economical, giving the greatest possible light at the least expenditure to the consumer. Its present standard of SAFETY AND BRILLIANCY will always be maintained,—for upon this the proprietor depends for sustaining the high reputation the STELLAR OIL now enjoys.

To prevent the adulteration of this with the explosive compounds now known under the name of kerosene, &c., &c., it is put up for family use in Five Gallon cans, each can being sealed, and stamped with the trade-mark of the proprietor; it cannot be tampered with between the manufacturer and consumer. None is genuine without the TRADE-MARK.

STELLAR OIL is sold only by weight, each can containing five gallons of six and a half pounds each, thus securing to every purchaser full measure. It is the duty and interest of all dealers and consumers of illuminating oil to use the STELLAR OIL only, because it alone is known to be safe and reliable.

VALUABLE
Farm at Private Sale.

THE undersigned offers at private sale, a farm in Ilye township, Perry county, Pa., containing 57 ACRES.

The land is the best in the neighborhood, with running water in every field, is under good fence, and has thereon erected a new

Frame Dwelling House.

There is also a thrifty Young ORCHARD on the place. This land lies along two public roads—the Fishing Creek road and the Lamb's Gap road; the last named divides the land in two parts—305 on the one side and 265 on the other; on the 265-acre piece is a New Frame Dwelling House, and on the other a erected for a house with a never failing Spring of water. This land will be sold as a whole, or in two Tracts, to suit purchasers.

FRAME 22 x 28,

Persons desiring to purchase a farm will do well to examine this one before investing elsewhere, as it lies within four miles of Marysville, and the Pennsylvania Railroad—one of the best markets in the county.

HUMOROUS.
A Hoss Stable.
The Hon. Benjamin Tappan, once a Senator from Ohio, was on the bench when the Buckeye State was admitted into the Union. He was famous in his time for being very ugly, very talented, and every cross-eyed, crabbed, and sarcastic. On one occasion he was holding court in the wilderness, where one log cabin had to be used for a court house, tavern and bar room. The stable near by was used pro tem for jail. The Judge had just given some malefactors a very severe sentence, when a rough backwoodsman who had been practicing at the other bar, exclaimed:
"That's right; give 'em thunder, old gimlet eyes."
"Who is that?" screamed the irate and indignant Judge.
"It's this old hoss," answered the pioneer, giving his breast an approving slap.
"Mr. Sheriff," retorted Tappan, "put that old hoss in the stable, and keep him a week on bread and water."

Col. Samuel Colt was in his life time disposed sometimes to be rather pompous. When he was building dwelling-houses for the workmen employed in his great pistol factory, he one day encountered a boy picking chips on his grounds.
"What are you doing here?" he asked, gruffly.
"Picking up chips, sir," replied the youngster, evidently unawed by the great presence.
"Perhaps," exclaimed the Colonel, drawing himself up with swelling dignity, "you don't know who I am. I'm Colonel Samuel Colt, and I live in that big house yonder."
The boy straightened up and swelled out and answered: "Perhaps you don't know who I am. I'm Patrick Murphy, and I live in that little shanty down yonder," pointing in the direction.
"Sont y," said the Colonel, blandly, patting the boy on the head, "go on and pick up all the chips you want, and when you get out come back for more."

The "Comic Grammer" says:
Remember, though box
In the plural makes boxes,
The plural of ox
Should be oxen, and not "oxes."

To which some one adds:
And remember, though fleece
In the plural is fleeces,
That the plural of goose
Isn't "gooses" nor "geeses."

Another:
And remember, though house
In the plural is houses,
The plural of mouse
Should be mices, and not "mouses"

Another:
All of which goes to prove
That grammar a farce is,
For where is the plural
Of rum and Molasses?

Another:
The plural, we say,
Of rum, don't us trouble;
Take one glass too much,
And you're sure to see double.

A lady took her son of some five years to church. After the minister had been preaching about half an hour, the little fellow grew sleepy and began to nod. The mother roused him into attention several times, by pinching, but as it seemed a hopeless case, she concluded to let him sleep undisturbed. After the little fellow had his nap out, he awoke, and saw the minister still holding forth. He looked up in his mother's face, and innocently asked, "Mother, is it this Sunday night, or is it next Sunday night?"

A servant of Irish extraction was told to bring the spider: "An' wad would ye be after doin' wid the spider?" asked she. "I want it to cook in," was the reply. "Go get it quick," "Cooking," she muttered to herself as she started out of the room, "it's a dirty mouth that would eat the same." In a few moments she returned bringing in her hand a large horse-fly, saying, "Faix, nary a spider could I find, here's a fat fly for ye, and a nater animal he is than a dirty spider, and finer mate he'll be for your cooking."

A Georgia darkey, to whom Senator Sumner's supplemental civil rights bill was explained, characterized it as a "trap to kill fool niggers." "You see, sah, some fool nigger will go to de Pulaski House and jess set hisself down by a white man, and de white man will jess fro dat ar nigger out der winder and broke his neck."

As a Judge of the Superior Court was delivering his decision in a case the other day, he was interrupted by the vociferous braying of a donkey under one of the windows of the court room. "What is that?" tently asked the Judge; whereupon the lawyer against whom he was deciding the case arose and remarked, "It is merely the echo of the Court your honor."

"Ella, my child," said a prudish old maid to a pretty niece, who would curl her hair into pretty ringlets, "if the Lord had intended your hair to be curled, he would have done it himself." "So he did, aunty, when I was a baby, but he thinks I am big enough now to do it myself."
