

The Bloomfield Times.

NEW BLOOMFIELD, PENN'A. Tuesday, March 26, 1872.

THE UNITED STATES SENATE have passed the bill placing Tea and Coffee on the free list.

THE Southern Express on the Pennsylvania railroad, which was due in Pittsburg at ten minutes of ten, was wrecked at Conemaugh Furnace, a few miles west of Johnstown.

THE LAW forbidding the selling or giving away of liquors during the hours the polls are open, on any general or special election day, was signed by the Governor on the 13th inst.

Doings of the Legislature.

The following is a summary of the doings in the Legislature which we think of interest to our readers.

In the Senate a communication of C. D. Brigham declining the appointment of Auditor General was read.

A bill also passed the Senate making the pay of county Superintendents $2 for each school under his charge, and $1 for each square mile of territory in that county.

In consequence of the Eclectic College of Medicine, and the Philadelphia University of Surgery having sold diplomas, a resolution was passed taking away their charters.

A bill to allow a vote every three years on "license or no license" passed finally, which the amendments confining the same to counties, instead of wards, boroughs and townships, and providing that the first election under the act shall occur on the third Friday in March, 1873.

All the Republicans voted aye, and all the Democrats voted no, except Mr. Findlay, who voted aye. (The bill is the same as passed the House except the vote is to be by counties instead of townships, wards and boroughs.)

The Governor sent in the nomination of Hon. James P. Wickersham, for Superintendent of Common Schools, which was unanimously confirmed.

In the House, a joint resolution was passed making the State Treasurer elective by the people.

The Santa Barbara, Cal., Press has the following: During the late rainy weather there was what is called a cloudburst in the deep canyon in the mountain side, above Col. B Dinmore's place.

The Ariel Telegraph company of England proposes to telegraph across the ocean without the use of the cable, and without employing the galvanic battery; in fact, it offers to get rid of the whole mechanism of telegraphy as at present existing, and to use the electricity always found in the atmosphere as the sole agent of communication.

The house of a farmer named Robert Bowles, near Theresa, New York, was burned on Monday night, 18th inst.

The Evans Case.

The committee appointed by the Legislature to investigate the Evans' swindle, so far have succeeded in keeping the facts which the people want to know from being told.

Found Dead.—Mr. Philip Weaver, watchman at the Railroad crossing at the depot in Patterson, was found dead in his house on Saturday morning last.

It is believed that the Staten Island Railroad Company was thrown into bankruptcy by its defeat in several suits instituted by the relatives of those who lost their lives on the Westfield.

Alexander Cambell and wife, of Poplar Grove Illinois were recently poisoned by a druggist giving them acouite in mistake for whiskey.

The majority of the committee in the Massachusetts Legislature have reported a resolution to amend the Constitution so as to give the ballot to woman.

Mrs. Pfeifer, of New York, while drunk and abusing her husband, was pushed down by him and fatally injured.

Robinson & Cunningham's sash and blind factory, Baltimore has been burned, with adjoining manufactories and agricultural implements and car wheels.

Mrs. E. Shushank died in the dentist's chair of Dr. Newborough, New York, last week from the administration of laughing gas.

The Lancaster Steer in the World.—The Lancaster Intelligencer says: Jacob R. Stultzfuss, of Leacock township, brought to Lancaster a steer that is said to be the largest ever fattened in this or any other age or country.

The champion New York steer weighed live weight, 3,300 pounds, dressed 2,473. The weight was disputed, some parties asserting that the steer was not fairly dressed.

The Berks county steer, admitted by everybody to be fairly dressed, weighed alive 3,250 pounds, dressed 2,388.

The Lancaster county steer, fed by John Sener and admitted by all to have been fairly dressed, weighed alive 3,380 pounds, dressed 2,456.

Killed.—On Friday morning last a lad named Millard Youtzy, aged about 16 years, son of John Youtzy of Bratton twp., Mifflin county was killed under the following distressing circumstances.

How Did it Get There.—The Sunbury "Guard" says: Solomon Stroh, of Sunbury, recently in making an incision in the shoulder of a horse, suffering with the swoeny, cut upon something like metal.

Measles of a malignant type are prevailing among the children in some portions of Turbett township, Juniata Co.

Sudden Death.—On Tuesday evening last Mr. Samuel Moore, of Walker twp., Huntingdon county, died suddenly in his barn, from an attack of apoplexy.

A fatal shooting affray occurred on the morning of the 15th inst., at the ranch of Major Crane near Cannon City, between John E. Tyndall and Adam Hanna.

A farmer in Hastings, Minn., with a load of hay, caught a lot of vagrant cows making a feed from it, and vigorously attacked them with rocks.

A Colorado man chased by wolves, was saved by his plug hat which blew off and fell in front of the ferocious animals; they had never seen one before, and while they held a meeting to inquire into its nature, he reached a place of safety.

Severe cases of dyspepsia are said to have been cured by regularly eating a ripe apple immediately after meals.

Mrs. Pfeifer, of New York, while drunk and abusing her husband, was pushed down by him and fatally injured.

Robinson & Cunningham's sash and blind factory, Baltimore has been burned, with adjoining manufactories and agricultural implements and car wheels.

OH, WOULD I WERE A CHILD AGAIN! Sighs the weary and exhausted one, as the languor and lassitude springing from overwork, to make and receive vigor and strength from the wonderful South American Tonic.

JURUBEBA.

Long and successfully used in its native country, as a Powerful Tonic, and Potent Purifier of the Blood, it is found even to exceed the anticipations founded on its great reputation.

Dr. Wells' Extract of Jurubeba Is a perfect remedy for all diseases of the BLOOD, Organic Weakness, Glandular Tumors, Dropsy, Scrophula, Internal Abscesses, and will remove all obstructions of the Liver, Spleen, Intestines, Uterine and Urinary Organs.

It strengthens and nourishes. Like nutritious food taken into the stomach, it assimilates and diffuses itself through the circulation, giving vigor and health.

It regulates the bowels, quiets the nerves, acts directly on the secretory organs, and, by its powerful Tonic and restoring effects, produces healthy and vigorous action to the whole system.
