

The Bloomfield Times.

Tuesday, May 7, 1872. LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

CALENDAR MAY. Su. Mo. Tu. We. Th. Fr. Sa.

Immersion.—On Sunday last Rev. Selheimer baptized nine persons by immersion in Patterson dam in Tyrone twp.

Barnum's Show is to be exhibited at Carlisle on Saturday of this week. It is without doubt the largest show in the world, and one well worth seeing.

Court is in progress as we go to press. The attendance is not as large as usual. We will publish a full report of the proceedings next week.

Call Accepted.—Rev. L. K. Seacrist of Blain has accepted a call of the Lutheran Congregation at Wrightsville, and will commence his labors at once.

Bally's Station Ferry.—The Rope Ferry across the Juniata at Ballysburg is now in operation and is found a great accommodation.

Accident.—Mr. John Bishop a resident of New Buffalo was thrown out of a spring wagon while on his way to court on Monday, and was so badly injured that it was necessary to leave him at Newport.

A Full Litter.—The wife of a prominent citizen of Washington county, Md., a few weeks since, presented him with five children at one birth. All living and doing well. So says the Greencastle Echo.

Our Exchanges who direct the paper intended for us to Bloomfield, Pa., will please remember that our correct address is NEW BLOOMFIELD. Papers directed to Bloomfield sometimes are several weeks getting back from Crawford Co.

The "Globe" Office in Huntingdon recently was discovered to be on fire in the second story, but the fire was extinguished before serious damage was done. How it originated is not known as no fire had been in that part of the building for many hours.

Good Templar's Convention.—The East Juniata district of the I. O. G. T., will hold their district convention in Marysville, on Tuesday and Wednesday, the 7th and 8th inst. There will be a public installation of officers on Tuesday evening, and a lecture on Wednesday evening in the Evangelical church.

A Rascally Deed.—On Wednesday night of last week, some villain entered the stable of Mr. John Plantz, in Cumberland township, Adams county, and killed a good mare. The animal was found dead in the morning having been stabbed in the breast with a sharp instrument which penetrated to the heart.—Star and Sentinel.

Discharged.—Two persons, a man and a woman, named respectively Early and Eberly, were arrested some time since charged with murdering a man in Maryland, and lodged in the Carlisle jail to await a requisition from the Governor of Maryland. On Tuesday last they were brought before Judge Junkin and discharged from custody, no one appearing against them.—Volunteer.

Camp Meeting.—At a recent meeting of the Directors of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association it was resolved to hold the First Annual Camp Meeting on the grounds of the Association, at Newton Hamilton, Pa., commencing on Tuesday, August 6th, 1872, and to continue ten days. Applications for tents, &c., may be made at any time to the Secretary, J. K. Rhoads, at Newton Hamilton. A limited amount of stock remains unsold which can be obtained from any of the members of the Board of Directors.

An Extraordinary Affair.—The Record relates the following strange incident: On the 10th inst., about the time the people in attendance at the burial of William Walter, at Parkersville, were separating, Thomas Hannum, of Kennett, on going to untie his horses hitched on the south side of the Meeting House sheds, found that the grass under their feet was on fire, and the wind blowing fresh at the time; it had extended several yards from the apparent place of beginning; but the horses showed no sign of alarm. A careful examination into the circumstances induced the belief that one of the horses, in pawing, had struck a flint stone with his steel toe, and a spark from that had set fire to the fine dry grass directly under the edge of the roof. The timely discovery and the extinguishment of the fire was a most favorable incident, as the sheds were filled with horses and quite a number tied on the side when the fire originated.

Who Was Dolly Varden?—This is a question which is now frequently asked. Dolly Varden was one of the characters introduced by Dickens in "Barnaby Rudge." She was represented as the daughter of Gabriel Varden a blacksmith, and is sought in marriage by Sim Tappertit, a vain apprentice, and Joe Willett, a very exemplary young gentleman indeed. Miss Dolly becomes Mrs. Willett. She is described by Dickens as possessing a face lighted up by the loveliest pair of sparkling eyes that ever any lover looked upon; the face of a pretty laughing girl; dimpled and fresh, and healthful—the very impersonation of good humor and blooming beauty. There has been an unusual variety of articles named after her, but we think the matter is now overdone, as while on a recent visit to the city we saw a sign having on it "Dolly Varden Whisky," and another promising to supply "Dolly Varden Chewing tobacco."

Hunting Them Up.—The Lebanon Standard says: "A United States detective has been for a few days past, in town pursuing his calling with wonderful success. He has given some places a thorough cleaning up, and what with sweeping down cob webs and uprooting rubbish piles, has succeeded in making some startling disclosures. In the underground regions of Mr. John Smead's brewery he unearthed a whisky still, with a capacity of ten gallons a day, which he immediately ordered Mr. Smead to carry to the Collector's office, where it now lies. There is sufficient evidence to prove that the distilling of whisky from malt and refuse beer has been carried on for some time, in an illicit way of course. A few other violations of the law of our very intricate internal revenue system, mainly the results of carelessness, were corrected about town."

New Bounty Bill.—A bounty bill has been recently passed by Congress and approved by the President, the provisions of which are as follows:

Every officer, soldier or marine, who served in the war for a period exceeding ninety days, in settling upon the public lands, under the homestead laws, count the period of his service as a part of the five years' residence required to obtain a patent to one hundred and sixty acres. Six months are allowed after the location of the land, before the residence upon it must commence. Persons discharged for wounds or disability may have their whole period of enlistment counted. In case of the death of a person who would be entitled to the privileges of the act, his widow if unmarried, or minor children, if the widow be married or dead, are entitled to its benefits. Any person whom the bill gives the right to acquire land may have the same entered and the required settlement and residence made by an agent. This is the most important feature of the bill, for a comparatively small number of soldiers will themselves become homestead settlers. The right to transfer their privileges to an agent will doubtless be of considerable value to them.

Duncannon Letter. Mr. Editor.—There has been so little going on here, other than the regular every day routine, that it seemed scarcely worth while to write to you. Just now there is a little inquiry being made about the hook and ladder business. The contract was given out some time ago but no ladders have as yet made their appearance. I believe there was something said in a former letter about the building of a hall by the Knights of Pythias. A committee was appointed to look up suitable sites ascertain prices &c., and the lodge voted $500 toward the building of the hall, going to show that they mean business. The committee reported several suitable places ranging in price from $250 to $1000, but no action was taken on it. If the citizens generally will help, there is no doubt the enterprise will be a success.

Messrs. Daniel Rife, S. Rife and W. J. Stewart the purchasers of Maj. Jones' grist and saw mill, took formal possession on the 1st inst. The Major's house a very desirable place has been bought by Jos. E. Jackson. Mr. Jones, I understand is making arrangements to build a furnace in the vicinity of Pottstown, and he is, as is well known an experienced iron manufacturer. His many friends here, wish him the success that his energy and integrity deserves.

P. S. The fortune telling Gypsies have left this neighborhood. This for the information of the few.

Tuckers Alarm Till Lock should be used by every store keeper, landlord or shopkeeper. They are thief proof! For sale by F. Mortimer, at the city price $5. for lock and drawer complete.

ENIGMA DEPARTMENT.

Cross-Word Enigma. My first you find in May but not in June, My second is in flute but not in tune, My third in King but not in Queen appears, My fourth in youth but not in after years, My fifth appears in teach but aside from diagram, My sixth in telegraph but not in telegram, My seventh is seen in me and not in you, My eighth is found in many but not in few, My ninth will end the world and that without a storm, My tenth in secret lies but not in guilt or harm, My eleventh is heard in parlor music but not in moonlight song, My twelfth in friendship lies but not in armies strong, My thirteenth with the eagle soars nor with the robin stays, My fourteenth with pleasure stands aloof from evil ways, My whole is a disciple of Monks.

Home and Health.—The April number of this valuable and spicy family and health journal is received, and deserves more than a passing mention. After a year of unprecedented success, the publishers announce a series of improvements which bid fair to eclipse anything heretofore attempted. The May number is to be greatly enlarged, and will be under the management of Rev. Geo. G. Lyon, a gentleman of rare acquirements. In every number there will be the most interesting and instructive reading for parents and adults, the choicest stories and anecdotes for young people and children, wit and humor for old and young, valuable information on plants, fruits and flowers, useful hints on housekeeping and cooking and a full summary of current events transpiring in the world, together with the most varied and elaborate articles on hygiene and medicine, and numerous practical suggestions on the art of preserving the health, on the care and food of infants, and on the home treatment of all disease and ailments. Notwithstanding all these improvements, the price is to remain the same, $1.50 per annum. Address: Home Publishing House, or De Pay, Lyon & Co., 32 Fourth Avenue, New York.

THE CAUSE OF TEMPERANCE finds some of its most insidious and dangerous foes in the many so-called "tonics" and "appetizers," made of cheap whisky and refuse liquors, finished up to suit depraved appetites, under the name of medicines. Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are none of these. They are not a beverage, but a genuine medicine, purely vegetable, prepared from California herbs by a regular physician. For all diseases of the stomach, liver, kidneys, bladder, skin and blood, they are an infallible and unrivaled remedy. 1844t
