Carson's Stellar Oil

ILLUMINATING PURPOSES.

The proprietor of this Oil has for several years felt the necessity of providing for, and presenting to the public, as a substitute for the dangerons compenting which are sent broadcast own the country, an oil that is SAFE and BRHJJIANT, and entirely reliable. After a long series of laborious and costly experiments, he has succeeded in providing, and now offers to the public, such a substitute in "CARSON'S STELLAR OIL." It should be used by every family,—

18T, Because it is safe beyond a question. primary purpose in the preparation of STELLAR OIL has been to make it PERFECTLY SAFE. thus insuring the lives and property of those who use it.

2D. Because it is the most BRILLIANT liquid IIuminator now known.

3D. Because it is more economical, in the long run, than any of the dangerous oils and fluids now in too common use.

TH, Because it is intensely BRILLIANT, and therefore economical, giving the greatest possible light at the least expenditure to the consumer. Its present standard of SAFKTY AND BRILLIANCY will always be maintained,-for upon this the proprietor depends for sustaining the high reputation the STELLAR OIL now enjoys.

To prevent the adulteration of this with the explosive compounds now known under the name of kerosene, &c., &c., it is put up for family use in Five Gallon cans, each can being sealed, and stamped with the trade-mark of the proprietor; it cannot be tampered with between the manufacturer and consumer. None is genuine without the TRADE-MARK.

STELLAR OIL is sold only by weight, each can containing five gallons of six and a half pounds each, thus seeting to every purchaser full measure. It is the duty and interest of all dealers and consumers of fluminating oil to use the STELLAR OIL only, because it dions is known to be safe and reliable.

tar A Danbury agriculturist has put a bundle of straw upon his barn because straws show which way the wind blows.

An Illinois paper relates that during the cold weather of Thursday last, the city editor of the Jacksonville Journal froze his ears about a foot deep.

A German butcher in Chicago hung out the following sign :- "Four pounds of bologna for fifty centa." Some wag added with chalk,-" Dog cheap."

(a)" "Ah I" yawned a bachelor, "this world is but a gloomy prison." "To those in solitary confinement," added a witty young lady.

An editor says that the only reason he knows why his house was not blown away the other day, during a severe gale, was because there was a heavy mortgage upon it.

(2)" A young gentleman recently created quite a sensation while reading to a circle of young ladies a poetic effusion, "To a beautiful Belle," by pronouncing the last word in two syllables.

A man whose eyesight was not good was recommended to try glasses. He says he went to the nearest drinking saloon and the result was that his sight was so much improved that he could see double. An inquisitive fellow says whanever he sees a woman sewing on a piece of muslin, she always says she is making pillow slips And now he wants to know where all the pillow slips go to. ② An Irish paper publishes the following: "A deaf man named Taff was run down by a passenger train and killed on Wednesday morning. He was injured in a similar way about a year ago.1) An old Dutch acquaintance, some years ago, who was elected a member of the Legislature, said, in his broken English style, 'ven I went to the Legislature, I tought I would find dem all Solomons dere: but I found dar was some as big fools dere

"Phil., my jewel," said Pat, "I'm mighty sorry you can't dine with me today."

as I vas.

Arrab, and why can't I dine with you?" said the astonished Phil. "Because, my dear," returned Pat, "I haven't ask ye as yet." 13 A gallant young man was out walking with his girl one day last week, in Fort Dodge Iowa, and a mud puddle of unusual size happening to lay in their path, he asked his companion would it not be proper to carry her across; she thought it would, in preference to wading. The next scene was the gallant young man and his 155 pounds burden floundering in the mud. A Characteristic anecdote is related of an out at elbows poet, who, by some freak of fortune, coming into possession of a five dollar bill, called to a lad and said : Johnny, my boy, take this William and get it changed." "What do you mean by calling it William?" inquired the wondering lad. "Why, Johnny," replied the poet, "I am not sufficiently familiar with it to take the liberty of calling it Bill."

An old bachelor picking up a book, exclaimed, upon seeing a wood-cut representing a man kneeling at the foot of a woman: "Before I would kneel to a woman I would encircle my neck with a rope, and stretch it." And then turning to a young woman, he inquired: "Do you not think it would be the best thing I could do?" It would undoubtedly be the best for the woman," was the sarcastic reply.

This is a Rochester receipt for making soup: Take a pail of water and wash it clean. Then boil it till it is brown on both sides. Pour in one bean. When the bean begins to worry prepare to simmer. If soup will not simmer it's too rich Pour in more water. Dry the water with a towel before you put it in. The dryer the water the sooner it browns. Simmer the soup until the beau busts laughing. Then add some water and serve hot at twenty-five cents a bowl.

A small boy was arrested in Chicago the other day for vagrancy, who asserted he could prove an alibi. Said that was the first day he had been from home for three weeks, as their folks had the small-pox. The jolly justice said sharply: "For heavens sake stand further away from us, if that's the case." The "shyster" skedadled; the visitors vanished; the police departed, the reporters jumped through a window and never stopped running until they reached the office of the sanitary superintendent, where "disinfectants" were freely indulged in at fifteen cents a disinfect. A lady was asked by her biddy about the nature of the next world, and whether it would be just like this. The lady being blessed with a happy family of eleven children, has a skeleton in the house in the shape of a stocking-basket that never gets empty, and at whose side she has spent many a weary midnight hour in darning. With this spectacle before her eyes, she replied to the girl, playfully : "I don't think we shall be required to darn stockings after midnight." "Sure, and that's thrue for you, mum; for all the pictures of angels I have ever seen were barefotted.
