Concert. - A Grand Vocal and Instrumental Concert will be given in the School Building at Millerstown, on Friday Evening, June 7th, 1872, by D. B. Moyer's Singing Class, assisted by the Moyer family of Freeburg. The public are invited.

May 80th which was set apart for "Decoration Day," was observed in this borough, by appropriate services. An admirable address suited to the occasion, was delivered in the Court House by Charles H. Smiley, Esq., and the services there were closed by prayer and singing. A procession was then formed and proceeded to the cemetery, where the ceremonies were concluded by decorating the graves of "those who died that the nation might live." In other parts of the county the day was also well remembered.

Millerstown Items .- On Friday evening last the "Normal Echo Literary Society," held their fifth Anniversary meeting in the school building at Millerstown. Many speeches were made on subjects calculated to interest and instruct, and an attentive audience gave evidence that the remarks were duly appreciated. Our correspondent writes us, that while all the speeches were good, one of the best was made by Mr. A. M. Markel of Bloomfield, who was warmly congratulated on his success. The music during the evening was furnished by the Moyer family of Freeburg, who are splendid singers. The testimony of all present was that the occasion was one of much in-

Singular Accident.—The community in the neighborhood of Joseph Boor's, in Snake Spring Valley about two miles above town, [was thrown into a fever of excitement on Friday, by the report that the earth had suddenly opened and swallowed two horses belonging to Mr. B. Several of the neighbors repaired to the spot, only to find the story too true. It seems that two sons of Mr. Boor were engaged in hauling rails from a piece of woodland, and as they were driving along at a certain point, without any warning, the ground suddenly gave way under one of the horses, and he disappeared, dragging the other animal after him. The aperture through which they passed, was barely large enough to admit of the bodies. The boys were terribly frightened, and gave the alarm. Ropes were procured, and several gentlemen descended into the cavern. One horse was found lodged about twenty feet from the surface, at a point where the cavity changed direction, but the other was nowwhere to be seen. The first animal was lifted from his position, and search made for the other, the body of which was finally found about thirty feet further under not been ascertained, but from the indications it seems almost bottomless. The fact that the same spot has been driven over for years and no sign of such an extensive opening until now, is most strange. -Bedford Press.

Well Informed Ladies,-How much more intelligent and, fascinating the majority of the young ladies would be were they to give a little more attention to newspaper reading. We mean those newspaper which make us familiar with the present character and improvements of the age. It is well enough to know something of the world's history, but it is with the present we have mainly to deal, and we know of no more engaging trait in a lady's character than a fair acquaintance with passing events. Every young lady should have an intelligent opinionon the moral, po litical and religious subjects of the times, and the best, and indeed the only way to find this is to read good newspapers diligently.

On Saturday night, the 18th inst., a horse and buggy belonging to George D. Shearer, of Franklintown, York county, was stolen. The theft was committed while Mr. Shearer was attending a Suudayschool convention at the above place .- Independent.

Dress-Making and Tailoring.-Misses Dress-Making and Tailering.—Misses Gantt and Clouser desire to notify the citizens of Bioomfield and vicinity that they having taken rooms in the McClintock property on High street, where they are prepared to do either Dress-Making or Tailoring at reasonable rates. Having had considerable experience in the business in Philadelphia, they feel confident of being able to give entire satisfaction to all who may patronize them.

For the Bloomfield Times. Decoration Day at Landisburg.

Thursday last the day set apart for doing henor to the brave dead of the nation, by strewing garlands on their graves, was properly devoted to this duty, by the cit-tzens of Landisburg. Although the rain commenced falling early in the day, and continued until noon, the ladies and children mindful of the storms and privatations endured by the fallen heroes of the nation, during four long years of civil contations endured by the fallen heroes of the nation, during four long years of civil conflict, had by the time the storm abated, gathered from the gardens and neighboring hill-sides, an abundance of flowers, which were hadsomely arranged into bouquets and wreathes for the ceremonies. At 3 o'clock p. m., under the direction of the marshalls, all assembled at the Presbyterian church. After organizing, and the band playing a national air, followed by the choir singing "America," Charles L. Murray, Esq., of Bloomfield, delivered the oration. A fervent prayer was then offered by the Rev. R. McPherson, chaplain for the occasion,

R. McPherson, chaplain for the occasion, after which the choir sang "Mournful Bells." A procession was then formed on main street in the following order.

The line marched to the cemetery about i mile from the town, where, while the band played a solemn dirge, the proceeded to formed in single file, and proceeded to strew floral offerings on the coverings of the remains of the dead soldiers of 1812, and of the late whellies. the late rebellion. At this hour threaten-ing storm clouds were looming up in the west, which prevented a delay here for west, which preven further ceremonies.

A few, notwithstanding the approaching storm proceeded with the remaining flowers to the Mt. Zion and St. Peter's cemeteries to the Mt. Zion and St. Peter's cemeteries to decorate the graves there.

Although the heavy rains in the early part of the day prevented many from joining in the ceremonies, the day was patriotically observed by our citizens. May the old heroes of 1812, who gave proof of their devotion to their country, by joining in honoring our dead, forever receive on their tombs the gifts of a grateful posterity.

DUNCANNON, June 1st, 1879. Mr. Editor.-The Good Templars of this Mr. Editor.—The Good Templars of this place are flourishing, they are constantly receiving additions to their numbers, and the cry is "still they come." Let them come, some of the young people may thus be saved from the temptations to drink which now everywhere beset them. Drunkenness is fearfully common here now, and the men that signed the whisky petition, must feel regret at having done so when they see old and young, many even who had lived sober lives all the time the prohibitory law was in force, yielding now and beggaring their families to enrich a few. beggaring their families to enrich a few.

Aout a dozen Good Templars from Marysville paid Perry Lodge No. 2 a visit last evening. After Lodge adjourned they all repaired to Michner's saloon, when I am told, "Perry" did the best they could under the circumstances, in the temperate

The "Hall" appears to have died a naturrl death on account of lack of energy.

Decoration day was duly observed here notwithstanding the unpleasant weather. Representatives from the various S. S. turn-ed out about 6 P. M., and headed by the Silver Cornet Band of this place proceeded to the various cemeteries, the young ladies carrying flowers with which to adorn the graves of the brave men who died that we might live in, and enjoy the privileges of our free institutions.

The Band played several airs, sacred and patriotic at the cemeteries, and if it had not rained, the turn out would have been very large. Maj. Jones and family leaves to-day tor the seat of war (viz Pottstown.) K.

A Peticoat Colonel.

Tennie C. Claffin ordered a colonel's uniform to appear at the Grand opera house, equestrian lecture upon her qualifications for filling Fisk's place as colonel of the Ninth regiment, and enlarge on the capabilities of a woman for commanding troop as well as a man. At the instance of Mrs. Fisk, however, the would-be colonel was refused the use of the opera house for any such purpose, and the disgraceful scheme for further notoriety was knocked on the RESULT OF CENTURIES OF CULTURE. — The successive editions of Wenster's Unabridged are as percential in interest as in value. Each successive reprint finds the work of our great lexicographer still unrivaled among English Dictionaries. In each republication we likewise find a mirror of the scientifie progress of the age, a sleepless vigilance which nothing escapes, to catch every new shade of verbal significance, and to retain for our unapproached standard of lauguage, that freshness which preserves it from ever becoming old. In the 1,840 pages before us there are compressed the results of centuries of culture, and the sum of the intellectual contributions of some of the greatest minds of the race. Whether regarded as a whole, or in detail, the book is equally marvelous. Its illustrations are copious, appropriate and carefully executed. The matter in the appendix is of a character indipensable for reference to all who read, and to all who write with serious purpose. The book is, in short, one which neither school nor study, library or office, ought to be without.—New York Times.
