CARSON'S STELLAR OIL. This is not the lowest priced, but being much the best is in the end by far the cheapest. Do not fail to give it a trial, and you will use no other.

THE alarming increase in the number of frightful accidents, resulting in terrible deaths and the destruction of valuable property, caused by the indiscriminate use of oils, known under the name of petroleum, prompts us to call your special attention to an article which will, wherever used, remove the CAUSE of such accidents.—We allude to Carson's Stellar Oil FOR ILLUMINATING PURPOSES. The proprietor of this Oil has for several years felt the necessity of providing for, and presenting to the public, as a substitute for the dangerous compounds which are sent broadcast over the country, an oil that is SAFE and BRILLIANT, and entirely reliable. After a long series of laborious and costly experiments, he has succeeded in providing, and now offers to the public, such a substitute in "CARSON'S STELLAR OIL." It should be used by every family.— 1ST, Because it is safe beyond a question.— The primary purpose in the preparation of STELLAR OIL has been to make it PERFECTLY SAFE, thus insuring the lives and property of those who use it. 2D, Because it is the most BRILLIANT liquid illuminator now known. 3D, Because it is more economical, in the long run, than any of the dangerous oils and fluids now in too common use. 4TH, Because it is intensely BRILLIANT, and therefore economical, giving the greatest possible light at the least expenditure to the consumer. Its present standard of SAFETY AND BRILLIANCY will always be maintained,—for upon this the proprietor depends for sustaining the high reputation the STELLAR OIL now enjoys. To prevent the adulteration of this with the explosive compounds now known under the name of kerosene, &c., it is put up for family use in Five Gallon cans, each can being sealed, and stamped with the trade-mark of the proprietor; it cannot be tampered with between the manufacturer and consumer. None is genuine without the TRADE-MARK. STELLAR OIL is sold only by weight, each can containing five gallons of six and a half pounds each, thus securing to every purchaser full measure. It is the duty and interest of all dealers and consumers of illuminating oil to use the STELLAR OIL only, because it alone is known to be safe and reliable. All orders should be addressed to JARDEN & CO., Wholesale Agents, 136 South Front Street, Philadelphia. 15 1y

Courtship. 'Twas a calm still nite in Joon. All nater was hush and nary [zeffer disturbed the serene silens. I sot with Betsey Jane on the fense of her father's pasture. Wee'd been rompin threw the woods, kullin flowers and drivin the woodchuck from his Native Lair (so to speak) with long sticks. Well we sot thar on the fense, a swingin our feet to and fro, bluish as red as the Baldinville school house when it was first painted, and lookin very ample, I make no doubt. My left arm was okepted in ballunsin myself on the fense, while my rite was woundid luvlinly round her waste. I cleared my throat and tremblinly sneed, "Betsey, your'e a Gazelle." I thought that air putty fine. I waited to see what effect it would hav upon her. It evidently didn't fetch her for, she up and sed. "You're a sheep!" Sez I, "Betsey, I think very muchly of you."

"I don't b'leve a word you say—so ther now cum!" with which obsarvashun she hitched away from me. "I wish ther wer winders to my Sole," sed I "so that you could see some of my feelins. There's fire enuff in here," sez I, striken my buzum with my fist, "to bitle all the corn beef and turnips in the nabers hood. Versoovins and the Critter ain't a Circumstans. She bowed her hed down and comenst chawin the strings of her sun bonnet. "Ar could you know the sleepis nites I worry threw with on your account, how vittles have seized to be attractiv to me, and now my lims has shrunk up, you wouldn't dolt me. Gase on this wastin form and these 'ere sunken cheeks.—" I should have continnered on this strane probably for some time, but unfortnitly I lost my ballunse and fell over into the pastur ker smash, tearin my close and severely damagin myself generally. Betsey Jane sprung to my assistance in double quick time and dragged me 4th. Then drawin herself up to her full hite she sed: "I won't listen to your noncents any longer. Jes say rite strate out what you're drivin at. If you mean gettin hitched, I'm IN!" I considered that air enuff for all practical purposes, and we proceeded immejitly to the parsons and was made 1 that very nite.

A Bad Fix. A young man who had always voted with the Republican party until last fall, went over at that time to the Democrats. A few days since, he came to a Democratic friend and said— "General, I am in a very bad fix!" "Why, what is the matter?" Asked the General. "Well," replied the young man, "you see last fall I went over to the Democrats, and now if they go over to Greeley, it leaves me in a very unpleasant predicament; don't you see it?"

A lady once invited Dean Swift to dinner, and as she had heard that he was not easily pleased, she had taken a month to provide for it; every delicacy was accordingly procured. The Dean was scarcely seated before the lady said she was sincerely sorry that she had not a more tolerable dinner, since she was apprehensive there was not any thing fit for him to eat. "The deuce take you," said the Dean, "why did you not provide a better, surely you had time enough; but since you say it is so bad, I'll e'en go home and eat a her-ring."

The choir of the church of Poughkeepsie, a few Sundays ago while singing the hymn containing the lines, "When the awful summons hearing," to the great disgust of the dombie, and no small delight to the congregation, improved it by singing full and distinct, "When these awful sermons hearing."

One of Disraeli's admirers in speaking about him to John Bright, said: "You ought to give him credit for what he has accomplished, as he is a self-made man." "I know he is," replied Bright, "and he adores his maker."

A juvenile Georgian was petitioning for "our daily bread," perversive to retiring, when he was interrupted by his younger brother, who whispered. "Ask for cake, Johnny, ask for cake."

Why is dis hat like the United States?" said Pompey to Squash, holding up his dilapidated beaver, "Cos—cos—dunno, nigger." "Well, cos it's not subject to a crown."

"I'm so thirsty," said a boy at work in the cornfield. "Well, work away," said the industrious father, "you know the prophet says: 'Hoe, every one that thirsteth.'"

"Can you change a two dollar bill?" said an impecunious drinker to a bartender. "Yes," "Well, when I get a two dollar bill I'll bring it in."

"Why is an egg produced last month like a native of Malacca? Because it is a May-lay."
