LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

MONTHLY

Calendar for July showing days of the week and dates.

CALENDAR

Bloomfield Academy.—The regular Summer session of the Bloomfield Academy will begin on Monday, August 26th.

The Daily Camp Journal.—The first issue of this paper, to be published during the camp meeting of C. V. Camp meeting Association, near Oakville, will be issued August 8th.

Rev. H. K. McComb, formerly pastor of the Presbyterian Church in this place is now here on a visit accompanied by his wife.

He was warmly welcomed by many friends to whom he endeared himself, while laboring here. Mr. McComb is now pastor over a church in Macomb, Ill., and judging from his appearance it must be a healthy section of the country.

Installation.—Carlisle Presbytery met on Tuesday last at Newport and received from the New Brunswick, Presbytery A. C. Titus, a licentiate, who was examined for ordination, approved and installed pastor of the Newport Presbyterian Congregation on a unanimous call of the same.

Twice a Week.—The mail facilities for citizens in the vicinity of Delville, will be much better for this year. Mails are now brought there on Tuesdays and Fridays, and it will be for the interest of the public who are to be benefitted by the change to throw as much of their business as possible to that office so that the department will not again reduce that route to one mail a week.

Notes Stolen.—On or about the 30th, of June the subscriber had four notes stolen from his residence in Saville twp. Three of the notes were dated on the 2d of March 1872, and were transferred to me by A. M. Miller. One of the notes was drawn by John Shuman for $11 54, one by P. D. Delaney, for $12 05, and one by Wm. Jacobs, for $14 43.

Freaks of Lightning.—During the storm of Wednesday last, considerable damage was done by the lightning in Centre and Carroll townships.

A large bank barn belonging to John Smiley, Sr., near Shermansdale was struck and set on fire, entirely consuming the building, together with a quantity of grain and many farming implements, horse gears and one calf.

An unfinished house near there, built as a parsonage for the United Brethren, was also damaged.

The barn of Wm. Stouffer was struck, but the fluid passed down the spouting and leaders into a cistern doing no damage.

A shock of wheat on Mr. Darlington's place in Centre twp. was struck and burned up.

A large poplar tree on the Neilson farm was struck and shivered to splinters, and in several other instances trees were damaged.

Killed by Lightning.—On Monday the 1st inst., about 1 o'clock p. m., Albert J. Wilcox, from Mesopotamia, Ohio, an employe of the Pennsylvania Lightning Rod company, was instantly killed by lightning, upon Judge Maclay's farm in Brown twp., Mifflin county.

He had been picking cherries, and was in the act of carrying a ladder across an open field from the tree to the road, when a thunderbolt in advance of an approaching rain struck him to the ground. A lad named Willie, son of Wm. R. Bell, was walking a few steps behind, and was also felled to the ground by the shock, but recovering, saw that Mr. W. was dead, and immediately ran to the house and gave the alarm. There were iron points on the ladder ends, but the lightning did not touch the ladder at all. It struck Mr. W.'s right cheek, passed down his body and both legs, and burst from both his shoes, tearing one-half of each shoe literally into shreds.

Found Dead.—We give below the particulars of a horrible death that occurred in Silver Spring township: On last Wednesday afternoon a week about 3 o'clock, Mr. William Diller, engaged in harvesting with Mr. Stone, on Hemminger's farm at the ridge, complained of feeling unwell, and started for the house, a short distance from the field. Upon returning to the house in the evening inquiries were made for Diller, but he had not yet made his appearance.

Nothing further was thought of the matter, as it was supposed he had either gone home or to his brother-in-law's, residing close by. On Friday the olfactories of the occupants of the place were greeted with an unpleasant odor, and search was immediately instituted, but nothing was discovered. On Saturday afternoon the search was resumed, and the body of the missing man was discovered under a large walnut tree in a cornfield near by, in a fearful state of decomposition.

It is supposed that he died of cramp, as he had complained of a pain in the stomach when he left.—State Journal.

Entitled to Bounty.—In the matter of the decision of the Second Auditor, E. B. French refused to allow the claims of the members of the regiments of the Pennsylvania Reserves for the one hundred dollars bounty, under the provisions of the act of Congress of April 22, 1872, stating that the act referred to, applied only to men who were enrolled in the United States service prior to July 22, 1861. An appeal was made from this decision to the Second Comptroller, Hon. J. M. Brodhead, who, on a careful examination into the facts, reversed the decision of the Second Auditor, and has decided that as the regiment of the Pennsylvania Reserves were enlisted into the State service prior to July 22, 1861, and were mustered into the United States service prior to August 6, 1861, bounty will be allowed and paid to men enlisting in the Pennsylvania Reserve regiments.

Uncertainty of Law.—About a year ago the State Bank of Harrisburg had a suit against one Neal McCoy, in the court of Juniata county, to recover the value of a note. The defence put in was that at the time of signing the note the defendant was so intoxicated that he did not know what he was doing. The jury found a verdict for the defendant, and the Bank carried the case to the Supreme Court, where an argument was had on a motion for a new trial. That body, at its session in Philadelphia recently, reversed the judgment and ordered the case remitted for a new trial. In the course of the opinion the court holds "That insanity is a misfortune and drunkenness is a vice." According to the decision the signature of a drunken man invalidates the note only as between the original parties, and not as to the bona fide holder or a third party who has purchased it.

Attacked by a Hog.—The Lewisport Democrat says:

On the 5th inst., a child aged about one year, daughter of Wm. Cavanaugh, while in the door of his residence, in Granville township, with a piece of bread in her hand, was seized by a sow, and dragged away. The alarm was given and the other children attempted to rescue the child, but in vain—the sow refusing to let go its hold. The dog was called and on his seizing the sow the child was dropped, and fortunately, had sustained only a few bruises. Had no help come, she would undoubtedly have been devoured by the vicious brute.
