

Double Drowning Case.

Alexander Peddle, one of the hands employed in Sleeper, Wells & Aldrick's Fruit Canning establishment, at Burlington, came on board the John A. Warner, on Monday afternoon, with his wife and two children to enjoy a trip down the river, and up again. When the steamboat reached Chestnut Street wharf, Peddle, with his boy of two years old, in his arms, placed himself by the open gangway by which the Philadelphia passengers landed. Some of his friends were among them, and he was calling out farewell words to them on the wharf when the boat moved off again to go up the river. At this moment, and before the gangway could be closed, Peddle seems to have stumbled or staggered through it into the water, with his child in his arms. An alarm was instantly given. Captain Cone promptly stopped the Warner, and sent out one of his boats, while a rope and some buoyant articles were thrown to the drowning man. Two or three persons plunged into the water from the wharf to his aid. But whether through confusion or embarrassment with the child, or any other cause he seemed unable to avail himself of any help or sustain himself for a moment on the water. Man and child disappeared before aid could reach them. It was a very sudden case, illustrating that a person who cannot swim may perish in spite of the most prompt and earnest efforts to save him. The grief of the bereaved wife, on her way back to her desolated home at Burlington was truly pitiable.—Philadelphia Age.

Liquor Trouble in Mercer County.

They are having troublesome times in Greenville just now, growing out of the liquor question. Ever since the emente on the Fourth, which resulted in the voluntary closing of the principal hotels for several days, a bad state of feeling has existed in that place. About ten days since handbills were circulated asking for proposals for furnishing seven thousand fence rails to enclose the town. Last Sunday morning one would have thought, in passing along Main street, that the "contractors" had commenced the work of "fencing in" the place. That important thoroughfare was blockaded at several points with store-boxes, planks, signs, and whatever available material could be brought together. The street was impassable at some of the most prominent places. The work of devilry, however, did not stop here. Pieces of craps were fastened to the doors of some of the leading business houses, the signs taken down and thrown into the canal, empty demijohns and jugs tied to door-knobs; coffin-boxes placed at the doors of certain houses, and other acts of vandalism committed. Nailed to the postoffice door was a letter, addressed to the constable of the place, which contained these words: "Beware! your time is short!" K. K. K. Everybody has heard of the reign of terror caused by the acts of the Ku-klux-klan in the South, but no one ever supposed that there were any members of that body in Mercer county.

Missing.

Mr. Joseph Miller, who left Allentown on the 29d of April last, intending to go to Europe, has not since been heard of. His friends have written twice to Mr. Charles S. Massey, and are anxious concerning him as he wrote them he would start for England about that time. Mr. Massey paid Mr. Miller $553 the day before he left Allentown, which money he had saved for the express purpose of going to London, England. It is very strange that nothing has been heard of him since, and the fact gives his friends great anxiety. Mr. Miller is a tall, light complexioned German, wore a moustache and goatee when he left, slightly bald, and is by trade a watchmaker. He came to this country in December, 1867, and his mother is still living in Mannheim, Baden. Exchanges please copy.

Conscience in a Little Thief.

On the 14th inst., says the Pittsburg Mail, a girl of fourteen years, entered the store of George Moorhead, at the corner of Hemlock and Sandusky street, Allegheny and asked for some butter. While Mr. Moorhead was down in the cellar after this article, the girl reached over the counter and, opening the till, abstracted $35. She then went away, but moved by compunctions of conscience at the excess in amount of what she had taken over her immediate wants, came stealthily back and returned $30 to the drawer. Once more she escaped uncaught, but Mr. Moorhead had her arrested subsequently.

A Desperate Fellow.

Samuel M. Cheeseman, of Maine, who, with his brother James L. Cheeseman, had purchased an ice business in Washington was shot last week by a desperado named Barney Wood, formerly employed in the ice business there. Thirteen buck-shot penetrated his groin and abdomen, inflicting probably fatal wounds. Wood escaped declaring that he never would be taken alive, but was subsequently arrested, after firing a shot from his carbine at Lieutenant Gessford, of the police force, who made the arrest. The latter shot did not take effect.

Lawrence Lechner, a German citizen of Erie, has been missing for a month, and fears are entertained he has been foully dealt with.

The U. B. Mutual Aid Society of Pennsylvania.

Present the following plan for consideration to such persons who wish to become members:

The payment of SIX DOLLARS on application, FIVE DOLLARS annually for FOUR YEARS, and thereafter TWO DOLLARS annually during life, with pro-rata mortality assessment at the death of each member, which for the First Class is as follows:

Table with columns: Age, Assessment, Age, Assessment, Age, Assessment, Age, Assessment. Rows show age groups from 15 to 72 and corresponding assessment amounts.

Will entitle a member to a certificate of ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS, to be paid at his death to his legal heirs or assigns, whenever such death may occur.

A member, or his heirs, may name a successor; but if notice of the death of a member to the Secretary is not accompanied with the name of a successor, then the Society will put in a successor and the vacancy, according to the Constitution of the Society.

Should the member die before his four payments of five dollars are made, the remaining unpaid part will be deducted from the one thousand dollars due his heirs; his successor will then pay only two dollars annually during his lifetime, and the mortality assessments.

Male and Female from fifteen to sixty-five years of age, of good moral habits, in good health, hale and sound mind, irrespective of creed, or race, may become members. For further information, address L. W. CRAIGLER, Secretary, U. B. Mutual Aid Society, Lebanon, Pa.

$4,000 TO BE CREDITED TO MUTUAL POLICY HOLDERS. The Pennsylvania Central Insurance Company having had but little loss during the past year, the annual assessment on Mutual Policy holders will not exceed 25 per cent on the usual one year cash rates, which would be equal to a dividend of 40 per cent, as calculated in Stock Companies, or a deduction of 2 per cent, on the notes below the usual assessment, and as the Company has over $200,000 in premium notes, the whole amount credited to mutual policy holders, over cash rates, will amount to $4,000. Had the same policy holders insured in a Stock Company, at the usual rate, they would have paid $4,000 more than it has cost them in this Company. Yet some of our neighbor agents are running about crying Fraud! and declare that a mutual company must fail!—But they don't say how many stock companies are failing every year, or how many worthless stock companies are represented in Perry County to-day.

It is a well-known fact that a Mutual Company cannot break. JAMES H. GRIER, Sec'y of Penn'a Central Insurance Co. 6254
