LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

CALENDAR. MONTHLY. SEPTEMBER. Table with days of the month and corresponding letters.

A Freak of Nature. - We have in our garden an early Pear tree that yielded a good crop of Pears about the 1st of August, at which time many of the limbs seemed to be struck with the blight, and the leaves turned black and dropped off.

Sudden Death. - On Friday afternoon last Mr. Jacob Yohn, of Carroll twp., died very suddenly from heart disease. He had been in this borough and on his way home stopped at Breuneman's to get a shoe fastened on his horse.

The Scheppe Trial commenced on Wednesday last, and promises to be quite lengthy. The whole of the first day was spent in obtaining a jury. The following is a list of the names: John Martin, Peter Zinn, Robt. J. Anderson, Wilson Clugh, Charles Shapley, Henry Miller, John Paul, John M. Stouffer, John S. Hoover, Hugh Laird, John S. Kohler, Jas. Stuart.

Teachers' Examinations. - The Perry County Superintendent gives notice that examinations of teachers will be held as follows: -

Table listing teachers' examinations by location and date. Locations include Marysville, Duncannon, Bouffalo, Mount Patrick, Liverpool, Mt. Pleasant S. H., Sandy Hill, Ickesburg, Donnelly's Mills, Millertown, Landisburg, Elliottsburg, Bloomfield, Markleville, Newport, Shermandale, Wheatfield, Centre S. H., Ballysburg.

How the Ledger was Stopped. - Illustrating the fearful consequences of this highly retributive measure, the Philadelphia Post tells the following upon the Ledger of that city:

This fearful threat reminds us of a story afloat Mr. Swain years ago, when he was the proprietor of the Ledger. By his course in regard to some public matter he had offended a number of readers, one of whom he met on Chestnut street, and thus accosted him:

"Mr. Swain, I've stopped the Ledger." "What is that, sir?" "I've stopped the Ledger," was the stern reply.

"Great heavens!" said Mr. Swain, "my dear sir that won't do. Come with me to the office. This must be looked into." And taking the man with him, he entered the office at Third and Chestnut streets. There they found the clerks busy at their desks; then they ascended to the editorial rooms and composing rooms, where all was as usual. Finally they descended to the press rooms, where the engineers were at work.

"I thought you told me you had stopped the Ledger," said Mr. Swain. "So I have," said the offended subscriber.

"I don't see the stoppage. The Ledger seems to be going on." "Oh! I mean to say—that is, that I—ah—had stopped taking it." "Is that all?" exclaimed Mr. Swain. "Why, my dear sir, you don't know how you alarmed me. As for your individual subscription I care very little. Good day sir, and never make such rash assertions again."

A Chance. - The National Publishing Company, No. 19 North Seventh street, Philadelphia, desires an agent in this Co., for the sale of the work entitled "Lights and Shadows of New York Life; or the Sights and Sensations of the great City." The author of the work is James McCabe, Jr., and it will not be for sale in the book stores. It is a book of great interest.

The Democratic County Committee met on Saturday last, and placed the name of James P. Latchford, of Juniata township, on their ticket for County Auditor in place of Ezra P. Titzell, who declined to be a candidate.

A Frightful Accident and Miraculous Escape. - On the 8th ult., as the funeral procession was conveying Daniel Turner, from his late residence, Hare's Valley to his last resting place, in Trough Creek Valley, Hon. Judge Clarkson (who for thirty years or more has been undertaker in this neighborhood, and who has doubtless traveled many thousand miles with his horse without accident) was driving in front of the procession, about a half mile from the residence of the deceased. While crossing a high breaker in the road one of the traces of the harness broke, which frightened his horse, and with one bound brought the Judge right on his feet in the rear of the horse, inside the shafts—the horse pulling by the holding-back strap. His constant rearing and leaping immediately brought the Judge full length on the ground, and having a tight hold of the lines he held on until dragged a considerable distance, when his hold gave way and the horse passed over him. The horse, still speeding on at a rapid rate, brought the horse against a tree, breaking a wheel and the coupling, leaving the hind-carriage and corpse on its side and strange to say the coffin was scarcely moved from its fastening, while its occupant, always upright and honorable in all his doings, and who has left to his friends the odor of an unblemished character remained unmoved and undisturbed as when kind friends first placed him in his winding sheet. The people in procession were much alarmed and ran at once to the assistance of the Judge, expecting to find him dead. He, however, gathered himself up, nearly minus coat and pants, with watch trailing by the chain. The Judge was considerably bruised and sprained, but not seriously. The coffin was placed in a spring-wagon, and the Judge, receiving his horse, rode home, procured a change of clothing hitched to his carriage and went on and attended the funeral, and is still improving from his injuries. -Huntingdon Journal.

Juniata County. - The Republican Convention which met last week nominated the following ticket:

For Congress, Hon. John B. Packer, of Northumberland county; for Assembly, John W. Muthersbaugh, (subject to the District Conference.); for Delegate to the Constitutional Convention, Dr. John P. Sterrett, (subject to the District Conference.); for Prothonotary, Lieut. Robert A. Laird, of Beale township; for Commissioner, David Cunningham, Esq., of Milford township; for Auditor, George W. Wilson, Esq., of Patterson.

Teachers examinations for Juniata Co., will be held as follows:

Table listing teachers' examinations by location and date. Locations include Delaware and Thompsontown, Walker, Fermanagh and Millintown, Milford, Locust Grove school house, Lack, Tuscarora, McGoyville school house, Beale, Turbett and Ferrysville, Spruce Hill, Patterson, Fayette, Monroe, Susquehanna, Greenwood, Wilt's school house.

During the great thunder-storm that passed over our county on Wednesday night, of last week, three horses belonging to Mr. Fisher, of Tuscarora twp., were killed by lightning while standing by a locust tree which was struck by the lightning under which they had taken shelter. -Independent.

Cumberland County. - From the Cumberland County papers we copy the following:

About dusk on last Monday evening, Joseph Thompson, of Carlisle, was attacked by some unknown parties in the vicinity of the railroad bridge, and abused in a terrible manner.

Three valuable horses belonging to Mr. Cornelius Hess, of Menallen township, Adams county, were killed while in a field last Thursday morning, during the prevalence of the thunder storm. They must have been killed instantly.

The money drawer was stolen out of Mr. John Hannon's liquor store a few evenings since and its contents amounting to a small sum over $1, was "contiscated." The empty drawer was subsequently found in a neighboring stable.

On Wednesday last two Shippensburg boys named Henry Howard and William Owens went out hunting together a few miles from town. Howard was several steps in front of Owens, and Owens while arranging his gun accidentally touched the trigger and lodged the whole load in the left breast of Howard, thereby inflicting a wound that will no doubt cost his life.

The new township recently created in this County, from portions of Penn., has been named "Cooke," after the well known financier of that name.

As Good as New. - Old tomb-stones which are discolored and in bad order can be cleaned and fixed up to look as good as new for a trifling expense. Persons wanting any job of that kind attended to can have it promptly done in any part of the county, by leaving their order with Mr. M. V. Humbaugh at the marble yard either in Bloomfield or Newport.

Brief Items.

Mr. Cyrus Knight whose injuries we reported last week, has since died from the effects of the accident. Beautify the fronts of the churches—set out a few posts for the young men to lean against while waiting for their—sisters. About the hardest thing to buy at the present time is a cider barrel. They cannot be bought at any reasonable price, the demand so far exceeds the supply.

On Tuesday morning last, a son of B. S. Breuneman, of Center twp., had his ankle bone fractured by jumping off a post at the residence of Jesse Powell.

Mr. Frank Crouse, of Selingsgrove, has received the contract for carrying the mail from Duncannon to Port Trevorton.

Straws show which way the wind blows. A few days since a vote was taken on the Presidential question, in a car between Newport and Harrisburg, with the following result. Grant 3; Greeley 4; none of your business 14. The inquisitive fellow concluded not to canvass the other cars.

The barn belonging to Mr. Jacob Miller, in Quincy twp., Franklin co., was destroyed by fire last week. Mr. Miller, lost his entire crop and most of his farming implements.

Cumberland County holds its Agricultural Fair at Carlisle, and Adams county at Gettysburg, on the 24th, 25th, and 26th days of September.

The Franklin County Fair will be held on the 1st, 2d, 3d and 4th days of October.

Dr. Cyrus D. Gloninger, died, suddenly, in Lebanon, on Friday morning last, of cholera morbus.

Blessings brighten as they take their flight. The chief of blessings is good health, without which nothing is worth the having; it is always appreciated at its true value after it is lost, but, too often, not before. DR. CARPENTER,

No. 136 MULBERRY STREET, NEWARK, N. J.

Is now treating successfully

Consumption, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, with his COMPOUND MEDICATED INHALATIONS, CONCENTRATED FOOD, AND COUGH SYRUP.

During the past ten years Dr. Carpenter has treated and cured thousands of cases of the above named diseases, and has now in his possession certificates of cures from every part of the country. THE INHALATION is breathed directly into the lungs, soothing and healing over all inflamed surfaces, entering into the blood, it imparts vitality as it permeates to every part of the system. The sensation is not unpleasant, and the first inhalation often gives very decided relief, particularly when there is much difficulty in breathing. Under the influence of my remedies the cough soon grows easier, the night sweats cease, the hectic flush vanishes, and with improving digestion the patient rapidly gains strength, and health is again within his grasp.

THE CONCENTRATED FOOD rapidly builds up the most debilitated patient, presenting to the stomach food already to be assimilated and made into good, rich, healthy blood.

THE COUGH SYRUP is to be taken at night to alleviate the cough and enable the patient to obtain sleep. Full directions accompany each box of my remedies, which consists of
