LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

MONTHLY CALENDAR. SEPTEMBER. Su. Mo. Tu. We. Th. Fr. Sa.

Arm Broken.—A few days since Gordon Leonard, son of Mr. Geo. Leonard, formerly of this county, but now a resident of Eberlys Mills Cumberland county, fell from a tree which he was climbing, fracturing his left arm.

The Heat on Saturday, Sunday and Monday, has been almost as severe as at any time the past summer. On Sunday the thermometer reached 95 degrees in the shade. Several persons have lost horses from over heating, and among those who have been so unfortunate is Geo. Crist, of Tyrone twp., who lost a fine bay horse that dropped dead last week, while plowing.

Broke Jail.—Two prisoners escaped from the jail, in this borough on Thursday afternoon, during the absence of the Sheriff, by suddenly pushing aside Mrs. Rinesmith, as she opened the prison door. Joel Sharpe, one of the prisoners, who was held for costs in a suit at last term of court was caught the same evening. The other, who was a darkey, charged with committing an indecent assault, on a woman near Marysville has not yet been captured.

Committee Meeting.—A meeting of the Republican county committee, was held on Saturday last. Mr. Thomas Shearer having declined to be a candidate for Register and Recorder, Mr. Jos. S. Smith, of Duncannon, at present post master at that place, was nominated as the candidate for that office. The committee also passed a resolution instructing the congressional conferees of this district to present the name of W. A. Sponsler, Esq., of this borough as the Perry county candidate for Congress.

A Serious Accident.—On Thursday afternoon a young man named John C. M'Laughlin, a native of this county and son of Eph. M'Laughlin of Toboyne twp., was terribly injured at the car shops in Harrisburg. He was caught in the belting which was running at a rapid rate and thrown up to the ceiling and from thence to the floor where he struck on his face. When picked up he was found badly bruised and had serious internal injuries, but on Saturday he was still alive with a slight hope of his recovery. His escape from instant death was miraculous, as the distance he was thrown was over thirty feet.

Election Laws.—A work has just been issued by the State printer at Harrisburg, in which are compiled and arranged the election laws of the State. This has been done by Hon. F. Jordan, secretary of State under authority of a resolution of the Legislature. Just at this time the work will be of great value, particularly to election officers. In addition to the general laws it has the laws for special localities and judicial decisions, bearing upon the obscure points. Single copies are sold at $1.00. All orders should be addressed to B. Singler, State Printer, Harrisburg, Pa.

The Schoeppe Case was brought to a sudden close on Saturday last. On Friday evening the evidence was concluded and the counsel gave notice that they would allow the case to go to the jury, without argument, or charge from the judge. Judge Junkin however thought best to charge the jury which was done at 9 o'clock, on Saturday morning, and after an absence of eleven minutes the jury brought in a verdict of acquittal.

This has been one of the most singular cases on record, having been before the public for about four years. At one time after the first trial, and before an order was obtained for a rehearing of the case, an order for his execution was daily looked for and his coffin was prepared and the rope was made ready. And now he again walks the streets a free man. Truly there are great uncertainties in law.

Sad Case of Drowning.—Little Willie Steidle, only four years of age, was drowned in the river half a mile below this place on Saturday afternoon. He was in a skiff with his father Jacob Steidle, and another German, named Kaylor, on their way to the residence of the latter near Bixler's Gap, when somehow or other which neither of the men seem able to explain, the little fellow fell out and was drowned, neither of the men it seems having the power to save him in deep water. His body was not recovered for several hours afterward. Report says the men had a keg of lager beer in the boat and were both drunk. But we would fain disbelieve the story. It is true, however, that the mother had begged the father not to take the little boy along; but her entreaties were in vain.—Levittown True Democrat.

Steam Mystery.—An exchange says "Facts, well known to every practical engineer, show that every little while a boiler which, under apparently identical the same circumstances in every particular, on one day makes steam enough, on the very next day will not, and cannot be made, to generate enough for more than light duty. Train dispatchers occasionally find their trains thrown into confusion from unexpected delays, and upon careful inquiry into the cause, are informed that for some unexplained and mysterious reason, the engine men cannot make steam enough to do their ordinary work." A few days ago we had practical illustration of this fact, as with no apparent reason for the trouble, it seemed impossible to get the steam in our engine to give sufficient force.

An Editor Assaulted.—On Thursday last Senator Weakley one of the editors of the Carlisle Herald, was assaulted on the street and severely injured by Brady J. Sharp, Esq., a lawyer of that place. The cause of the assault was the remarks made in the Herald regarding a speech made by Sharp, at a meeting held by the legal fraternity in honor of Col. W. M. Penrose lately deceased. Mr. Weakley is said to be badly hurt but not dangerously, as was at first reported. The sensitiveness of Mr. Sharp will make persons believe that the Herald's remarks regarding the speech, contain too much truth.

CENTRE, Sep. 6th, 1872.

Mr. Editor.—As the demands for water is not so great since campmeeting has closed, Mr. Alfred Kuben, the gentleman who sold water will no doubt dispose of the "grand beverage," at three pence per glass instead of five. Or if a large quantity is purchased a liberal discount will be given. I write this that your readers may keep posted on the price of water, and know who made the charge. S. W. B.

Juniata County.—We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week.

On Wednesday evening last, a young horse, belonging to W. W. Wilson, Esq., of this place, ran off and smashed a buggy to which he was attached, up rather promiscuously.

On Monday afternoon, a stable belonging to the Railroad Company at Thompsonstown station, caught fire from sparks from a passing locomotive and was totally consumed with its contents, consisting of hay feed, &c. It was occupied by Mr. W. W. Fuller the agent there, in partnership with the foreman of the Division.

On Saturday last, Messrs. Noah A. Elder and George Reynolds, brought to this place forty-one head of cattle purchased by them in Tuscarora and Lack townships. On Saturday evening the cattle were turned into the cattle-yard on the Gallagher farm across the basin. Sometime during the night the cattle broke out and went over to the railroad, and eleven head of them were found dead along the track the next morning, having been killed by the passing trains. A bull belonging to Mr. Kauffman tenant on the Gallagher farm, which accompanied the other cattle over to the railroad was also killed. The loss will amount to about $350.

At an early hour on Thursday night last some villain tried to effect an entrance into the residence of Mr. John S. Graybill on School street, in this place, but was frightened off before accomplishing his purpose.

Four painters were seriously injured by the fall of a scaffold at Altoona on Wednesday last. Their names are W. H. Neff, of Harrisburg, Peter Garity and Thomas Widdows, of Hagerstown, and James Herrington, of Altoona.

The dead carcass of the fine mare belonging to Jeremiah Mentzer, of Franktown, township, Blair county, which was stolen several weeks ago, was found recently, in the woods near Walker's Mill, in Allegheny township. The thief had tied the animal to a sapling and left her there for starvation.

During the thunder storm of the night of the 21st ult., the dwelling house of John H. Whitehead, of Bratton township, Millin county, was struck by lightning, shattering sundry windows, mirror, &c., and stunning Mr. W. while in the act of closing the window. A man in bed in the house was also stunned.

On Thursday of week before last, as Rev. Mr. Scheffer was returning from the Orrstown camp-meeting in a sulky, his horse took fright at some object on the road, upsetting the sulky and dragging Mr. Scheffer a distance of about seventy feet before he became disengaged. He was taken to the house of Mr. Hagglerford and a physician called. His one leg was found to be badly hurt about the knee, and he was otherwise badly bruised. He has suffered great pain from his wounds, but at last accounts was improving.

Counterfeit Out.

Speer's Port Grape Wine has been counterfeited in Peoria, Ill., by some persons who style themselves Speer & Co. We caution the public against the trash put in these bottles. The bottles are very similar in general appearance to Speer's Port Wine of New Jersey. Persons can easily discover the difference by observing "Peoria" on the label instead of "Passaic, N. J.," and by noting that the signature of Alfred Speer, N. J., is over the cork of each bottle of the genuine.
