The Times, New Bloomfield, Pa.

Fingers Off.-John Rebert son of Sam Rebert at Shermansdale, had the finge all taken off of one of his hands one d last week, by getting them caught in threshing machine.

X Dedication .- The Reformed church Elliottsburg, Perry county, Pa., will dedicated on Sunday, the 13th of Octob 1872. Several ministers from a distan will assist in the services. The public a invited to be present. By order of t Building Committee.

What was the Matter I-On Saturd afternoon a fine horse belonging to Geor Bruner, of Centre twp., suddenly died while at Breneman's, black smith shop. He had been shod and was out in the road when he suddenly reared up and then fell down and began to bleed at the nose and shortly died.

X Sad Accident .- A sad accident occurred on Saturday morning last, on the Pennsylvania Rail Road, at Spruce creek Station Huntingdon county, resulting in the death of Wm. H. Swartz, son of John M. Swartz, of Juniata township, this county. The deceased had been for some months past employed as a carpenter by the Pa. R. R. Co. At the time of the accident, there was a freight train standing on the siding which attracted his attention and the Pacific Express going west he did not see until it was too late. He had just filled a bucket with water, and was in the act of stooping down to pick it up, when the cow catcher struck him, breaking his arm, and crushing his head into an undistinguishable mass. He was a genial companion, and a model young man, of exemplary habits and unimpeachable charactor. He leaves a young wife and two children, besides a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn his sudden end.

Weather Report .-- B. McIntire, Esq., of this borough furnishes the following weather statistics for the three months just past. The average maximum heat during June was 78° 38 min. during July 87° and during August 85° The average temper-ature for these months was 83° 32 min. The rainfall during the same period was, for June 5 inches, for July 6 inches, and for August 8 inches, making a total of nineteen inches of rain for the summer.

Sack Flannels .- A lot of new and pretty styles of Sack Flannels, have just been received by F. MORTIMER. There are cheap too.

Dressing for Church .- There was a time when good taste demanded the use of the plainest clothes in the sanctuary, when the wealthlest were distinguished for their conspicuous absence of personal adornment, and entressive display was a mark of vulgarity at such time and place. But now it would almost appear as if, whatever might be thought of a modest garb in other places, the proper costume for the house of God, where, theoretically, we all go to be reminded of our common origin and destiny, was an aggregation of all the jewelry, and all the chignons, and all the paniers, and all the feathers and furbelows in one's wardrobe. The wearer is to carry all this piled up agony to the sanctuary as to a fair, as if hererrand were not so much to praise as to be appraised. Until some change is made in respect to "dressing for church." We think it vain to expect any great awakening among sinners, or any great growth in Christianity among pro-Escape of a Prisoner .- On Monday evening of last week quite a semation was created in our borough, by the report, which was subsequently found to be truth, that James B. Alexander, convicted at this term of court of forgery and sentenced to 4 years imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary, had made his escape from our jail. It appears that about 9 o'clock in the evening he went to the yard, to which he had free egress and took a loose board lying in the yard used for walking upon, and propped one end against the privy and the other end against the wall and walking up it to the top let himself drop from the top into the Sheriff's yard, out side the wall. Then he betook himself to parts unknown. The Sheriff's deputies are on his track to ascertain his whereabouts if possible, and bring him back. The Sheriff had intended to take him to Pittsburg on Tuesday morning, Alexander is as accomplished and cool a scoundrel as can be found anywhere, and it is not much to be wondered at that he made his escape. to convenschools in the county sent neither delegates nor reports. The first part of this report down to the Bloomfield schools, was given at convention of 1871, the Liverpool schools by Jacob Ritter and the Tyrone and Landisburg schools by Jno. L. Diven, Geo. Hoobough and Wm. Brickley, the only township committee who chose to report. The Loysville convention of 1871 gave no statistics. In spite of all, we see about 828 teachers and 2,492 scholars represented. All schools will now please propare reports for the Duncannon convention this fall Oct. 15, or send them beforehand to

JOHN EDGAR, New Bloomfield.

The Assault on Senator Weakley is described in the Herald of last week as follows:

"The Herald is printed on Wednesday morning, and is immediately delivered to its patrons in the borough of Carlisle, and mailed by the earliest mails of the day. This was the case last Wednesday. Sharp probably saw the article early in the day, and if so, nursed his wrath all day, until he could find some place conveniently dark enough for the cowardly act he contemplated. It was about nine o'clock in the evening when Mr. Weakley having finished a friendly call on Mr. Sponsler, at his office, and rising to go out of the door, he saw Sharp beckoning to him to come out. He went out, met Sharp, and walked up the street with him. Then returned past Mr. Sponsler's office and accompanied Sharp half way over the crossing between Kramer's jewelry store and the Farmer's Bank. During this time a conversation to this effect took place : S .- Who wrote that article in the pa paper? W.-I did !

S .- What did you write it for?

W .- Because you behaved yourself very unseemly in the office this morning ; and because you have been abusing the HEBALD publicly to members of the Bar.

Election Laws .- A work has just been issned by the State printer at Harrisburg, in which are compiled and arranged the election laws of the State. This has been done by Hon. F. Jordan, secretary of State, under authority of a resolution of the Legislature. Just at this time the work will be of great value, particularly to election officers. In addition to the general laws it has the laws for special localities and judicial decisions, bearing upon the obscure points. Single copies are sold at $1; 12 copies $10. All orders should be addressed to B. Singerly, State Printer, Harrisburg, Pa.

Greeley Apples .- John Rice of Spring township, left at our office last week, a basket of fine apples. He styles them the Greeley Rambo, and if Horace is as popular with the people as the apples were with our boys, there will be no doubt of his election. You have our thanks, John.

For the Bloomfield Times.

For the Bloomheld Times. DEAR SIR.—I wish through your col-umns to mention to the people of New Buffalo, why Mr. Titus was not present to preach to them on last Sabbath a week as per announcement. I had promised to call for Mr. Titus and go with him there, but falling ill on Saturday wrote a basty note to him to make arrangements to go without me. It being afternoon and past mail time, Mr. Zinn of Newport who was in Bloom-field consented to carry the note from Bloomfield to Newport, but it was not delivered to Mr. Titus till Monday. Prob-ably Mr. Zinn forgot the note, but I desire to absolve Mr. Titus from any blame in disappointing the large congregation who disappointing the large congregation who assembled on a warm afternoon. He was ready and waiting up to the last moment. Yours Truly, JOHN EDGAR.

Ballou's Magazine for October.

Cool weather is at hand, consequently, people begin to think of their fall and winter reading. Such being the case, we can recommend BALLOU'S MAGAZINE as one wanted by the community. It is a serial well calculated to please all, old and serial well calculated to please all, old and young. It is the cheapest and best publi-cation of the kind in the country, and re-ceives higher praise at the hands of its patrons, who are numbered by thousands and tens of thousands. It is only 15 cents singe numbers, or $1.50 per year. The contents for October are exceedingly varied and interesting, and in addition to the great amount of reading matter contains many illustrations. illustrations.

Thursday evening. Business Notices.

S .- Whoever says that is a liar. W .- The party to whom you talked against the HERALD is a reliable man and I have no objection to making his name

It was at about this stage of the con versation, and when the parties were midway in the street upon the railroad track, that Sharpe dealt Mr. Weakley a fearful blow upon the left temple, knocking him down upon the railroad rails and the sharp ballasting of the road. He was for a moment senseless, and while in that condition Sharpe kicked him in the breast one or more times, or stamped on him. As soon as possible Mr. Weakley got up and returned toward the office of Mr. Sponsler. Sharpe meantime following him up and beating him. Sharpe did not continue his attack after the office was reached.

Dr. Shoeppe .- Since his acquittal the doctor has turned his attention to obtaining the property which was undoubtedly the cause of this whole trouble. In speaking of his case he says:

"I came to Carlisle nine months before my arrest; I was a perfect stranger and unable to speak English, but, by close attention to my professional duties, I met with good success. When I was arrested my practice was at the rate of $2,500 or $8,000 a year, and I had in bank about $1,800, which I had carefully saved. I had no debts and my prospects were bright. Now I am at a loss to know what to do. Of course I must commence life again, and that, too, without money, and in the face of a most unhappy notoriety. It is my wish to continue the practice of my profession, but I cannot decide at present."

A Good Hat House.—If you wish to see a good stock of Hats, caps, Gloves, Furs, dc., we recommend you to look over the as-sortment offered by Messrs. Port Beals there to show them through the estatistiments. smillighment.

As Good as New .--- Old tomb-stones which are discolored and in bad order can be clean-ed and fixed up to look as good as new for a trifling expense. Persons wanting any job of that kind attended to can have it promptly done in any part of the county, by leaving their order with Mr. M. V. Hum-baugh at the marble yard either in Bloom-field or Newport, tf.

129" Blessings brighten as they take their flight. The chief of blessings is good health, without which nothing is worth the having i it is always appreciated at its true value after it is lost, but, too often, not before. Live prop-erly, and correct ailments before they become seated. For diseases of the liver, kidneys, the strength and all artising from impure or skin, stomach, and all arking from impure or feeble blood, Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a sure and speedy remedy.
