Parade. The Ickesburg Cavalry company (The Russel Guards) will parade at Newport on Thursday of this week. This will help to swell the crowed at the fair.

Fair.-The Perry county Fair will be held this week at Newport commencing today and continuing four days.

We hope our citizen will do their share towards making it a success. There is no reason why Perry Co., should not have a Fair which will be a credit to the citizens.

Neck Broken .- On Saturday the 21st ult., a colored man, named Noah Pink, in the employ of Mr. A. B. Clemson, on Clemon's Island 11 miles from Newport, fell through an opening in the floor, to the floor below, breaking his neck. He was topping corn, went into the barn for some straw, when he stepped into the opening.

Sabbath School Association.-The County Association meets in the Presbyterian church of Duncannon, on Tuesday, Oct. 15, at 2 P. M. Each school sends 4 delegates. Forward names at once to J. Vanderwarker at Duncannon for entertainment. C. Wells, Esq., of Pottsville, J. T. Railey, Esq., of Philadelphia, and others, are expected to be present and to speak on Sabbath School topics.

Much Pleased .- The Editor of the Newport News was so much pleased with an article published in THE TIMES last week, that he desires to know in how many copies it was printed. Although his question is rather an impudent one, we will overlook that point and inform him that our edition last week was Fifteen Hundred and the article was in every copy. Both sides of the paper was printed in this office too.

Mass Meeting .- The Liberal Republicans and the Democrats will hold a mass meeting, at Newport on the 3d of October.

Among the speakers secured for the occasion are Col. ALEX. K. McClure and Hon, C. R. BUCKALEW.

The president of the meeting will be CHARLES A. BARNETT, Esq., and among the list of Vice Presidents are the names of several other well known Republicans.

Centre Township Schools. - For the schools in Centre township, the following teachers have been engaged at the prices

Comp's—J. W. Soule, $31 per month. Bruner's—J. W. Bailor $28 per month. Perry Furnace——— Ulsh, $28 per mo. Okerfonoke—Harry McKeehan $25 per

Mansville—B.F.Hollabaugh, $28" "
Markle's—J. M. Dum, $28 " "

The Directors allow no time for attendance at "Institute."

Schools to commence on the last Monday in the month.

Funeral Sermon .- On Sabbath last, according to announcement Rev. J. J. Hamilton, preached the Funeral Sermon of Rev. M. Allison, to a crowded audience, in the Presbyterian Church, in Millin. The sermon was a most scholarly effort and was listened to throughout, with the closest attention by the audience. It will appear shortly in pamphlet form, as arragements to that effect are already being entered into .- Independent.

Fall of Five Houses .- A Lewistown paper says: Thursday evening last, when there was scarcely any wind at all, the frame work of the row of five new houses which Gen. Burns is erecting over-theriver, all suddenly fell down with a tremendous crash. The raising had been completed several days before. Of course no cause for this tumbling down can be assigned excepting that the framing had been poorly done. Fortunately-indeed, providentially it would seem-none of the workmen were in the building at the time, nor even on the side toward which it fell.

A Sad Case. The Tamaqua Courier says: Some time ago Mr. Valentine Link, residing at Girardville, was taken sick with small-pox and died. His wife and six children were confined with the same disease with nobody to nurse them. Mr. Beatty, a coal operator, informed Mr. Neifert, Director of the Poor, of the fact; he proceeded with Mr. M'Gurk to Girardville but could find no one to undertake the task of nursing the family for love or money. They then asked Mr. Beatty to haul them with his team to the alms-house, and he did so, one of the children dying on the morning before they left, and three dying at the alms-house. The wife and two chileren have nearly recovered.

A Second Crop of Peaches .- Mr. John Worley, residing on Eleventh street, near the Paxton furnace, in Harrisburg gathered a fine crop of peaches from a tree on his premises, the present season, which were of an early free-stone variety. The tree commenced to blossom a second time, and a month later bore about a hundred peaches, the size of a large hickory mut, per-fectly ripe, of good flavor, and sweet as honey to the taste. We yesterday examined and tasted the fruit, and know whereof we speak. John says he cannot tell people "what -he knows about farming," but is ready to give information to the pomological world what he knows about second crop peaches .- State Journal.

Brief Items.

Should the day be fine Newport will be probably crowded on Thursday next.

Charles McLaughlin of Toboyne twp. who was so seriously injured a few weeks since at Harrisburg is recovering.

At Harrisburg the corner stone of the new Masonic Temple, was laid last week, with the usual impressive ceremonies.

After this, stamps are not required on any notes or business documents, except checks, which require a two cent stamp as heretofore.

A Lebanon county farmer was recently arrested at Lebanon and fined $10 for al-lowing his horses to stand from morning till 3 p. m. without feeding.

A child of John Uplinger, of West Perry township, Snyder co., was seriously burn-ed by coal oil, and soon after died from the effects.

The Presbytery will be convened to day, (Oct. 1st) in the second Presbyterian church in Carlisle. The opening Sermon will be delivered by Dr. Strong of Harrisburg.

The mysterious stone throwing which we recorded as having recently occurred at Waynesboro has been traced to a girl employed in the family.

Miner Beam, a prisoner in the Sunbury jail, escaped from that institution recently by breaking a hole through the yard wall. Shortly after his escape Perry Haas, who is a prisoner under sentence of death for shooting Martin Oberdorf, crawled through the hole and went to one of Mr. Heller's sons and informed him of Beam's escape. Haas then quietly went back to jail again.

Nasby's Book.

One of the most humorous and entertainone of the most humorous and entertaining books yet offered to the public is the collection of "Nasby's" letters and lectures, published by J. N. Richardson & Co., and sold only by subscription. As a sample of the humor contained therein, we quote the author's reason for publishing the work:

WHY I PUBLISH THIS BOOK.

"I spose, of I had consulted the literary men uv this country (wich I didn't), they wood hey sed to me, "Don't publish this book; there's reely no okkashun for it!" There isn't ? Did reely no okkashun for it!" There isn't? Did the capehus adviser see the state uv my pants? Did he observe the wreckt condishun uv my boots? Is he aware that I am in arrears for board? Not publish my book! Kin I so far forget my dooty to humanity? Its publikashen will at least do one suffrin man good, and that's more than balf av the writers kin say. What recks it that that one is an? Wat posterity will say, I don't know; neither do I care. I ain't labrin for posterity; neither did my father, else I hed bin better off. Posterity may assign me a niche in the temple uv massive intellex, or may no; it's all one to the subsive intellex, or may no; it's all one to the subsive intellex, or may no; it's all one to the submay assign me a niche in the temple by massive intellex, or may no; it's all one to the subscriber. I woodn't give a ten-cent postal currency for wat the next generashen will do for me. Ir's this generashen I'm goin for."

Persons wanting agencies for selling the above book which is entitled "The Struggle of Petroleum V. Nasby" Should apply to I. N. Richardson & co., 68 cornhill Bostou Mass.

Excellent for Use.

The superior quality and entire purity of Speer's Port Grape Wine of New Jersey has Induced thousands of physicians to write about and prescribe it in their practice. We publish the following letter from one of them:

Wilmington, Ili., Oct. 7.

ALFRED SPERR,
Dear Sir,—Having used your Port
Grape Wine for the last four years in my practice, I am happy to testify to its superiority over all other wines for medicinal uses, and it is the only one I recommend in my practice.

Yours wasnestfully.

Yours respectfully, M. B. Camphell, M. D. The above wine is excellent for females, also as a family wine, and for evening parties, etc.
