Carson's Stellar Oil FOR ILLUMINATING PURPOSES. The proprietor of this Oil has for several years felt the necessity of providing for, and presenting to the public, as a substitute for the dangerous compounds which are sent broadcast over the country, an oil that is SAFE and BRILLIANT, and entirely reliable.

1ST. Because it is safe beyond a question. The primary purpose in the preparation of STELLAR OIL has been to make it PERFECTLY SAFE, thus insuring the lives and property of those who use it.

2D. Because it is the most BRILLIANT liquid illuminator now known. 3D. Because it is more economical, in the long run, than any of the dangerous oils and fluids now in too common use.

4TH. Because it is intensely BRILLIANT, and therefore economical, giving the greatest possible light at the least expenditure to the consumer. Its present standard of SAFETY AND BRILLIANCY will always be maintained,—for upon this the proprietor depends for sustaining the high reputation the STELLAR OIL now enjoys.

HUMOROUS. The Verb "To Break."

"I begin to understand your language better," said my French friend, Mr. Arcourt, to me; "but your verbs trouble me still, you mix them so with your propositions." "I am sorry you find them troublesome," was all I could say.

"I saw our friend Mrs. James just now," continued he. "She says she intends to break down housekeeping, Am I right there?" "Break up housekeeping, she must have said."

"O, yes, I remember. Break up housekeeping." "Why does she do that?" I asked. "Because her health is so broken into."

"Broken down, you should say." "Broken down, O, yes. And indeed since the small-pox has broken up in your city—"

"Broken out." "She thinks she will leave it for a few weeks." "Indeed! And will she close her house?" "No; she is afraid it will be broken—broken—How do I say that?"

"Broken into." "Certainly, it is what I meant to say." "Is her son to be married soon?" "No; that engagement is broken—broken—"

"Broken off." "Ah! I had not heard that. She is very sorry about it. Her son only broke the news down to her last week. Am I right? I am so anxious to speak the English well." "He merely broke the news; no proposition this time."

"It is hard to understand. That young man, her son, is a fine fellow; a breaker, I think." "A breaker, and a very fine fellow.—Good-day." "So much," thought I, "for the verb 'to break.'"
