

The Bloomfield Times.

Tuesday, October 8, 1872.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

MONTHLY CALENDAR for October 1872, showing days of the month and corresponding letters.

See To It.—An outrageous attempt is being made to defeat the will of the people by the circulation of worthless tickets.

A Good Investment.—R. N. Willis got his life insured March 27th 1872 for $1000 in U. B. Mutual aid Society of Pa. at a cost of $4.00.

One the 13th of June 1872 he died, and on 2d day of October 1872 Rebecca E. Willis his wife received a check for $980. This is what we call cheap insurance and provided a good investment.

September Weather.—The weather report for last month is as follows:

Average of maximum heat 71° 14 min. Average of minimum cold 55° 40 min. The warmest day in the month was Tuesday the 10th when the thermometer was to 88°.

The coldest day was Wednesday the 18th when the thermometer fell to 65°. The amount of rain during the month was 3 in. and 5 tenths.

State S. S. Association.—The Pennsylvania State Sunday School association have passed a resolution joining the London association in setting apart the 20th and 21st of October as days of prayer.

Sad Accident.—On Wednesday night last Mr. Robert Patton, fell into the lock of the canal at Rope Ferry, and before assistance could be rendered was drowned.

Sabbath School Association.—As the election will be over this week it is earnestly requested of all Sabbath School teachers throughout the county that, if they have failed to attend to the election of delegates, they will on next Sabbath as their last opportunity elect four delegates from each school to be present at the Duncannon meeting, beginning on Tuesday afternoon, Oct 16th.

A History of Perry County beginning with the Indians and early settlements and continuing to the present.

Containing a complete record of their names and the part borne by her sons in all the wars from 1775 to 1865, together with the Educational, Geological, Botanical, Natural the Political and Statistical history of the county and an alphabetical appendix by Prof. Silas Wright.

All persons out of the county can have the book delivered to them by inclosing $2. to the author at Millertown, Perry county, Penn'a.

Sudden Death.—On Saturday morning last at about 6 o'clock, as Mr. Charles L. Halbert, (Public Auctioneer), was engaged in arranging articles on a table, preparatory to offering them for sale, at his usual stand, (west side pavement of the Market-house), he was taken with what was supposed to be a fit.

A Monster Squash.—Mr. P. H. Crick, of Rockton, Clearfield Co., writes us that he has a squash in his garden that measures seven feet and one inch in circumference and weighs 100 pounds.

A Singular Death.—A few evenings ago, in Lancaster, Mrs. Eva C. Elias was carrying a pitcher of beer, when she fell down some steps from making a misstep.

Church Notices.—Presbyterian Church—Preaching on next Sabbath, both morning and evening, at 11 a. m., and 6 p. m.

The Newport Mass Meeting.—The mass meeting of the Liberal Republicans and Democrats, at Newport on Thursday last, was well attended.

Charles A. Barnett, Esq., the president of the meeting in a few appropriate remarks introduced Col. A. K. McClure, who made a very able speech, which was listened to with great attention.

Superstition in Cumberland Co.—A Shippensburg correspondent of the State Journal sends the following:

Mr. Editor.—The following statements are facts which can be authenticated by this community. For delicacy's sake we omit names. A well-to-do tenant farmer residing one and a half miles south of this place, one morning suddenly became aware of the fact that his wife had eloped with Mr. —, of Shippensburg.

A Novel Surgical Operation.—Five weeks ago to-day (Friday) a cow belonging to Mr. Samuel Byers, of Newville, fell over an embankment on Railroad street, breaking both her horns off close at the head.

Leg Oil.—A lad named Hoon, aged twelve years, had his right foot torn off, and the leg dreadfully mangled, at Marysville, recently, by hanging on the platform of one of the cars of the Northern Central railway company, while in motion, near the bridge crossing the Susquehanna.

No person should be without a bottle of Pain Cure Oil. You will find it convenient to have it at home.

Notice is hereby given to all those desiring a new set of teeth, that Dr. I. N. Shatto has paid the license to the Goodyear Dental Vulcanite company, of Boston, and is duly authorized by them to manufacture rubber bases for teeth.

Notice is hereby given to all those desiring a new set of teeth, that Dr. I. N. Shatto has paid the license to the Goodyear Dental Vulcanite company, of Boston, and is duly authorized by them to manufacture rubber bases for teeth.

No Liquor on Election Day.—The following is a copy of the law which forbids the sale of liquor on election days:

Sec. 1. Be it enacted, &c., That from and after the passage of this act it shall not be lawful for any person or persons keeping a public house or drinking place, either licensed or unlicensed, to sell spirits or malt liquors as a drink, to sell, furnish or give away, to be used as a drink, any spirituous or malt liquors, wine or any other intoxicating beverage, on any part of any day set apart, or to be set apart for any general or special election, by the citizens in any election district or division within the commonwealth, where an election is in progress during the hours when, by law in said district, the election polls are required to be kept open.

Sec. 2. Any person violating any of the provisions of the first section of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, shall be subject to imprisonment in the jail of the proper county, for a term of not more than one hundred days, and in addition to the above shall also be subject to a fine of not more than five hundred dollars and costs, at the discretion of the court.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of the constables of the several townships, wards and boroughs of this commonwealth, under the same penalty as mentioned in section second, to make return to the next court of quarter sessions of the proper county, the name or names of any person or persons offending under the first section of this act; Provided, Nothing herein shall prevent any other person or persons from prosecuting for such offense.

COMMUNICATED. DUNCANNO, Pa., Oct. 5, 1872.

MR. EDITOR.—As you call the TIMES an independent paper and have published an account of the meeting held by our opponents, of course you will publish the following:

This night the citizens of this place and vicinity witnessed one of the largest meetings of the Democrats and Liberal Republicans, that was ever held in this place.

Wm. Brooks, Esq., was called to the chair with several Vice Presidents, and Secretaries.

The first speaker was James M. Buchanna, Esq., of Baltimore, who held the large crowd spell-bound with his thrilling eloquence for upwards of an hour.

Jas. H. Graham, Jr., Esq., of Carlisle, delivered a speech of thirty minutes duration in which he dealt in hot shot exclusively, and handled the opposition without gloves.

Brief Items. The conundrum for you to work at to day is "who shall be Governor for the next term?" Answer next week.

The Ickesburg Cavalry company (the Russel Guard) made a good appearance at their parade on Thursday last.

On Saturday the Republicans held a mass meeting at Blain. We have received no account regarding the meeting and consequently cannot give our readers any report.

The building near the depot at Newport occupied by A. F. Keim caught fire on Tuesday last by a spark from an engine. Prompt assistance prevented any damage being done.

It is said that several of Barnum's Camels have died, their death being caused by envy after seeing the humps on some of our fashionable women.

The season for falling from chestnuts trees has commenced. Two such accidents were reported last week, but as neither boys were badly hurt, we will not publish their names.

A son of R. P. Cochran of Millerstown came near getting choked by a piece of chestnut on Saturday a week. The piece of nut got into his wind pipe, and was removed by a surgical operation performed by Doctors Greenleaf and Lineaweaver.

The Bloomfield Band is astonishing every one who hears them play, by the wonderful progress they have made. The young men are deserving of much credit. It is not yet two months since their instruments were received and already they furnish music which is pleasant to hear, and have done service at several political meetings.

Juniata County Items.—A valuable horse belonging to Samuel Ard was found dead in his stable at Millintown, a few mornings since. Cause of death not known.

The Juniata Agricultural Society, will hold their annual Fair on their grounds in the borough of Perrysville, on October 9th, 10th, and 11th, 1872.

On Sunday afternoon the 29th ult., a son of Mr. John Brandt a lad about 14 years of age fell into the canal at Davis' lock west of Thompsettown, and was drowned.

Notice is hereby given to all those desiring a new set of teeth, that Dr. I. N. Shatto has paid the license to the Goodyear Dental Vulcanite company, of Boston, and is duly authorized by them to manufacture rubber bases for teeth.
