The Cholera in Europe.

A fresh alarm has been communicated to all the nations of Europe by the sudden appearance of the cholera in Poland. This terrible scourge took up its westward march some months ago, and committed frightful ravages in Persia, Turkey, Russiaand even attacked some portions of Germany. Latterly, however, its advance seemed to suffer an arrest, and its subsequent movement was apparently retrogaded The relief which was experienced from the departure of the plague from European territory, it is now seen, may prove to have been only temporary. The news from Warsaw is sufficient to afford just cause for universal anxiety. According to the cable, the cholera is raging extensively throughout Poland. One important town has already been almost depopulated, and thousands have fallen victims to the dreadful disease, which is said to have assumed its most malignant fatal form. So formidable are the effects of the pestilence that the Polanders are fleeing from their homes, and many portions of the country are left

London, October 17 .- A passenger train on the Eastern Counties Railway 1an off the track near Kelvedon station, twelve miles from Chelmsford, to-day. The cars were precipitated down an embankment and dashed to pieces. Ten cars went over the embankment and were badly wrecked. One passenger, a lady, was killed outright, and twenty-three were injured of whom two or three may die.

A man who participated in the Communist revolt in Paris, has surrendered himself to the police, and made a declaration that he was an accomplice of Troppmann, who murdered an entire family near Paris. An examination shows the man to be of sound mind.

A Horse Romance.

Here we have a romance with no less a heroine than the fleet and trim little quadruped Goldsmith Maid. "At the time when our story opens" Mr. Malcolm Gill, of Garrand county, Ky., owned a mare that he called Joez. Seven years ago a stable in Nicholasville, where she was kept, was destroyed by fire and a large number of horses perished. Joet was supposed to be among the number, and when fragments of an equine anatomy were taken from the debris and identified as her remains the bereaved owner is said to have seized the shoes of his pet and kissed them rapturously. Recently, however, his trainer attended one of the trots between Lucy and Goldsmith Maid, and was convinced by the evidence of his own eyes that the latter and Joet were one and the same mare. This discovery he repeated to Mr. Gill, who is about to bring legal proceedings in New York city for the recovery of his mare. His theory is that Joet was stolen from the stable, was then set fire which to conceal the crime. It is said that Gill cannot only prove the resemblance by living witnesses, but can also show that Joet was of exactly the same age, and had the same pedigree on both sides that are attributed to Goldsmith Maid. Still it may be apprehended that the latter animal will be able to prove an alibi.

City Farming.

"A city chap from this rown, spending a few weeks in the country with a farmer friend asked to be permitted to 'abstract the lacteal fluid from the bovine group at eventide.' As soon as the former found out that all he wanted was to milk the cows some night he cheerfully assented, and with other members of the family seated himself on the barn yard fence to see the fun. Hardly had the tight pantalooned chap begun to pull on the peculiar natural appendage which all who desire milk must manipulate, (except milkmen who live near a pond,) when the patient cow looked around and saw the 'what-is-it' at her side. Fetching him a whip in the eyes with her tail, she at the same time projected her hind foot with lightning-like rapidity, and while the milker was balancing on his ear in the mudpuddle, the sportive cow sent the milk pail spinning after him. Our hero now says farming is a fraud."

Disasters.

One year ago the great Northwest was visited by a series of the most disastrous fires which are known to history; indeed, for extent and cleanness of sweep they are unparalleled in this or any other country. Disasters of this sort in a country of such immense resources as this, if not reiterated too frequently, do not work irreparable damage, and in one year most of the destroyed cities and towns have grown up again more vigorous than before the fire .-A new danger now threatens them from the fierce tornadoes which have lately done and may continue to do a great amount of material evil along the borders of and upon the lakes. Huron, Michigan, and Erie, have thus been visited by almost unheard of storms which have caused great disasters to property and life.

David Massey was convicted lately, of sending obscene literature through the United States mails, and was fined $500 and sent to prison for one year.

$500,000 IN BANK! GRAND GIFT CONCERT.

Postponed to December 7, 1872.

THE SECOND GRAND GIFT CONCERT in aid of the Piblic Library of Kentucky, announced for September 28, has been postponed to DECEMBER 7, 1872, because the accumulation of orders the few days before the drawing made it physically impossible to fill them without a few days' delay, and as a short postponement was inevitable, it was determined to defer it to a time that would make a full drawing sure by the sale of all the tickets.

The money necessary to pay in full all the offered gifts is now upon deposit in the Farmers' and Drovers' Bank, as will be seen by the following certificate of the Cashier:

Farmers' and Drovers' Bank,

During the past ten years Dr. Carpenter has treated and curred thousands of cases of the above named diseases, and has now in his possession certificates of cures from every part of the company. The INHALATION isbreathed directly into the lungs, soothing and healing over all inflamed surfaces, entering into the blood, it imparts vitally as it permeates to every part of the system. The CONCENTRATED FOOD rapidly builds up the most debilitated patient, presenting to the stomach food already to be assimilated and made into good, rich, healthy blood.

THE COUGH SYRUP is to be taken at night to alleviate the cough and enable the patient to obtain sice. Fall directions accompany each box of my remedies, which consists of
