The Steinnecke Will Case.

The Baltimore American says: There was filed in the Orphan's Court of this city, on Saturday, by Messrs. William A. Stewart and John R. Kelso, Jr., as executors of the late Miss Mary M. Steinnecke, an answer to the petition of Paul Shoeppe, in which he prayed the court to grant him letters of administration upon Miss Steinnecke's estate, and claiming to be her lawful husband, having, as he alleges, been married to her two weeks before her death in Carlisle, Pa. The respondent states that the will was found among the papers of the deceased on the morning after her death, and Paul Schoeppe was present with his counsel when the will was handed to John H. Rheem, a relative of the deceased, at Carlisle, who had charge of the body, and who delivered the will to Mr. Stewart, who retained it until it was offered for probate. Mr. Stewart, one of the executors, states that Paul Schoeppe was introduced to him on the day of the funeral of Miss Steinnecke by Rheem, at which time Schoeppe made no pretentions of being the husband of Miss Steinnecke, but spoke of her as his late patient. The document further avers that when on the 1st day of February, 1869, Paul Schoeppe appeared in the Orphans Court with the view of propounding for probate a paper which he alleges was the last will and testament of Maria M. Steinnicke, purporting to be signed by her in her maiden name, and bearing the date of the 3d of December, A. D. 1868, in the hand writing of Paul Schoeppe, Mr. Stewart distinctly asked him whether he and Miss Steinnecke were married, to which Schoeppe replied that they were not. The respondents deny that Miss Steinnecke died intestate, although they admit that she died without issue, she never having been married, and having on the morning of the day preceeding her death signed a check in her maiden name on the Carlisle Deposit bank. The respondents charge that Schoeppe's allegations that "he became the lawful husband of Miss Steinnecke in Carlisle on the 14th of January, 1868," is utterly without foundation and fraudulent. The respondents pray to be dismissed with the costs.

The Horse Disease.

To show the spread of the disease throughout the country, we give the following despatches from various places, dated on the 14th inst. :

BALTIMORE.—Although the horse disease has generally abated throughout the city, and many wagons, drays, etc., have appeared on the streets, business still suffers from the lack of transportation. The street railroads are running one-fourth instead of the full number of cars since Monday last week. Dropsy has appeared in a number of stables, attacking the horses used while sick, which has proved fatal in many instances.

OswEGO .- There is not much improvement in the horse epidemic. But few teams are on the streets, and oxen are used whenever they can be had.

NEW ORLEANS .- The city authorities are considering the propriety of quarantining horses to prevent the epizootic.

KINGSTON, New York .- The epizootic is still prevalent here, though the violence of the disease seems abated. The coal receipts by the Delaware and Hudson canal are very slight.

WILMINGTON, N. C .- The horse disease has made its appearance rather suddenly in $5 per annum, in advance, with Oil Chrothis city. There are fifty cases in the principal livery stables. The disease seems to be of a mild type.

WHEELING, W. Va.-The horse disease appeared here to-day, creating considerable excitement among horse owners. Reports from adjacent portions of Ohio state that the disease prevails to a considerable ex-

CINCINNATI.—The horse disease is rapidly spreading.

LOUISVILLE .- The epizootic has spread with great rapidity to-day. More than three thousand horses are now affected.

MILWAUKEE.-The horse disease is at its height. Nearly every horse in the city is more or less affected. Some of the horses first attacked are recovering.

A Kansas Tragedy.

A despatch from Newton, Kansas, dated on the 9th inst., says:-A very serious shooting affair occurred here to-day. A desperado, named M. J. Fitzpatrick, who has been on a continued drunk for some time past, got wild with whisky, and while in that state picked a fuss with Justice Holliday, which resulted in Fitzpatrick shooting and killing Judge Holliday. The citizens got together and formed a safety committee. After the shooting of Mr. Holliday, Fitzpatrick walked in the middle of the street towards his saloon, and on arriving there he looked back and saw the city marshal, Jack Johnson coming towards him with a heavy rifle. He immediately turned round, and flourishing his revolver, walked toward Johnson. Johnson demanded him to surrender and throw up his hands,-Fitzpatrick replied by leveling his revolver at Johnson's heart. Johnson then shot him through the heart, killing him instantly in his tracks. Fitzpatrick, before the serious fight occurred, had beaten four the serious fight occurred, had beaten tour other persons in the face and over the head with his revolver, and shot a man through the hat. Judge Holliday was a respectable citizen, and well liked in Newton. He was shot in the gold room. Several bad characters have had notice to leave town.

THE ALDINE,

An Illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be the Handsomest Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

Not for Sale in Book or News Stores.

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or limity interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals.—
It is an eigant miscellany of pure, light, and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords fresh picasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALLINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competion in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then, there are the chromos, beits cost; and then, there are the chromos, be-

ART DEPARTMENT. ART DEPARTMENT.

Notwithstanding the increase in the price of subscription last Fall when THE ALDINE assumed its present noble proportions and representative character, the edition was more than Doubled during the past year; proving that the American public appreciate, and will support, a sincere effort in the cause of Art. The publishers, anxlous to justify the ready confidence thus demonstrated, have exerted themselves to the utmost to develop and improve the work, and the plans for the coming year, as unfolded by the monthly issues, will astonish and delight even the most sanguine friends of THE ALDINE.

The publishers are authorized to announce

The publishers are authorized to announce designs from many of the most eminent Artists

In addition, THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success, and with a view to the highest artistic success, and greatest general interest; avoiding such as have become familiar, through photographs or copies of any kind.

The quarterly tinted plates, for 1873, will reproduce four of John S. Davis' inimitable child-sketches, appropriate to the four seasons.—
These plates, appearing in the issues for January, April, and October, would be alone worth the price of a year's subscription.

The popular feature of a copiously illustrated "Christmas" number will be continued.

To possess such a valuable epitome of the art world at a cost so trifling, will command the subscriptions of thousands in every section of the country; but, as the usefulness and attractions of THE ALDINE can be enhanced, in proportion to the numberical increase of its supporters, the publishers propose to make "assurance doubly sure," by the following unparalleled offer of

PREMIUM CHROMOS FOR 1873.

PREMIUM CHROMOS FOR 1873.

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE, who pays in advance for the year 1873, will receive, without additional charge, a pair of beautiful oil chromos, after J. J. Hill, the eminent English painter. The pictures, entitled "The Village Belle," and "Crossing the Moor," are 14x30 inches—are printed from 25 different plates, requiring 25 impressions and tints to perfect each picture. The same chromos are sold for $30 per pair in the art stores. As it is the determination of its conductors to keep THE ALDINE out of the reach of competition in every department, the chromos will be found correspondingly ahead of any that can be offered by other periodicals. Every subscriber will receive a certificate, over the signature of the publishers, guaranteeing that the chromos delivered shall be equal to the samples furnished the agent, or the money will be refunded. The distribution of pictures of this grade, free to the subscribers to a five dollar periodical, will mark an epoch in the history of Art; and, considering the unprecedented cheapness of the price for THE ALDINE itself, the marvel fails little short of a miracle, even to those best acquainted with the achievements of inventive genius and improv-PREMIUM CHROMOS FOR 1873. miracle, even to those best acquainted with the achievements of inventive genius and improv-ed mechanical appliances. (For further illus-trations of these chromos, see November issue of THE ALDINE.)

THE LITERARY DEPARTMENT will continue under the care of Mr. RICHARD HENRY STODDART, assisted by the best writers and poets of the day, who will strive to have the literature of THE ADLINE always in keeping with its artistic attractions. TERMS.

THE ALDINE will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription.
