

The Bloomfield Times.

Tuesday, December 10, 1872.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

CALENDAR. MONTHLY. DECEMBER. Su. Mo. Tu. We. Th. Fr. Sa.

Observer.—Your communication is rather too personal.

Dellville has a debating society which has been in successful operation for three weeks.

In Darkness.—The gas manufacturing establishment at Sunbury was burned almost to the ground about 9 o'clock on Wednesday evening last.

Duncannon has a new post master. Mr. John M. Toland, has been appointed to that office.

Our Thanks are due Mr. Jacob M. Stambaugh, for the conveyance of our mail bags to Newport on Tuesday last.

An Interesting Lecture will be delivered in the Court House, in this borough on Wednesday evening of this week.

Drowned in the Canal.—We learn that John M. Funk, aged about fifty-five years, lock tender at Rockville, was drowned in the canal at that place about six o'clock on the 2nd inst.

On Sunday evening after services in the Presbyterian church, at Academia, and the congregation had nearly all dispersed, the sexton in attempting to put out the coal oil lamps in the large chandelier, turned the burners the wrong way causing the chandelier to fall to the floor, and the lamps to explode.

Thieves Around.—On Wednesday evening last, some person entered the store of Samuel Liggett, near Ickesburg, and stole about $75 worth of goods.

On Thursday night last, some person entered the premises of Mr. Wm. Luper, near this borough and carried off a quantity of apples and some canned fruit.

The Bloomfield Literary Society will meet on next Tuesday evening, at 6 o'clock, in the lecture room of the Presbyterian church.

Subject for debate.—Resolved, that Christianity has increased in proportion to civilization.

Debaters on the affirmative side, Isaac G. Black and W. H. McClintock.

Debaters on the negative side, Rev. John Edgar and Calvin Nelson, Esq.

Orator by Alfred M. Markle.—"Stand out of my sunshine."

Reading of the paper by the Editors.

JAMES ORR, Pres.

Jacob Baily, Sec.

Cadet Appointment.—Hon. R. J. Halldeman, who has the appointment of the next West Point cadet from this Congressional district, is making arrangements to have a competitive examination of those who are candidates.

1st. M. C. Herman, Esq., of Carlisle, William Grier, of the Bloomfield Academy, and Hon. R. J. Fisher, Pres. Judge of Adams counties, as a Board of Examiners, will meet at Education Hall, in Carlisle, on the 16th day of January, 1873, at 12 o'clock, M.

2nd. The Board will sit three days, and examine the candidates who may present themselves, in general accordance with the requirements of the Department, as in the memoranda contained, which are hereto annexed.

3d. The Board will report the three candidates best qualified for the appointment, to me, when I will immediately have the Secretary of War notify one thereof that he has been selected, and of the proper steps which he must take to prepare himself for entering upon his career.

Respectfully,

R. J. HALDAMAN.

Carlisle, Nov. 27, 1872. The rules under which Cadets are admitted are very strict, and those wishing to try for the appointment, should obtain them and read carefully.

R. R. Accident.—A very serious accident happened about 1 mile west of Millfin on Thursday night about 11 o'clock. The Cincinnati Express east was in two sections the 2d section leaving Altoona, nearly an hour later than the first.

The persons killed were Matthew Knowles and J. W. Bacon, of Chicago; W. W. Dertz, wife and one child. Mr. Dertz was an employee in the House of Representatives at Washington, and was on his way there.

Marysville News.—Our correspondent at Marysville sends the following: On the evening of Dec. 5th, a melancholy accident befell a young man of this place.

Young Kunkle was employed by the P. R. R. Co., with a gang of men under the supervision of W. G. Hoke, on the track a short distance above Newport.

These men were taken to and from their work from this place by the Ballast Train, and on returning on Thursday evening about one mile east of Newport, the train uncoupled from the engine while running at the rate of 25 miles per hour.

This, it will be remembered is the same Mr. Kunkle, who was thrown and almost dragged to death by a horse in Rye twp., last summer.

COMMUNICATED.

Good Templars' Convention.

The District Convention of East Juniata District composed of the counties of Perry, Juniata and Mifflin, opened in the Lodge room at Duncannon, on Dec. 5th at 9 P. M.

Local option was strongly and enthusiastically endorsed, and the temperance people of the three counties were urged to organize at once for a vigorous campaign.

The reports from all the lodges represented were favorable, showing general prosperity and an increase in membership.

A large and enthusiastic public meeting was held in the M. E. church, on Thursday evening Jas. Vanderwerker, presiding which was very ably addressed by Marriott B. Brosius, Esq., of Lancaster, at the close of which a resolution, which was seconded in a few excellent remarks by Rev. W. Thomson, was adopted.

Church Notices.

Presbyterian Church.—Preaching hereafter in the new audience room every Sabbath, at 11 a. m., and 6 1/2 p. m.

Prayer meeting in the Reformed Church on Thursday evening. Preaching on Friday evening, preparatory services on Saturday afternoon at 2 1/2 o'clock.

For the Bloomfield Times. Montgomery's Ferry, Dec. 6, 1872.

Mr. Editor—I take the privilege of giving you a few notes of the times and doings in our quiet place. Boating is played out for this season and the animals are not sorry as the greater portion of them have the Epizootic.

A robbery was committed in the borough of New Buffalo, on the evening of the 4th inst. The parties have not been apprehended at the date of this writing, but warrants have been issued for their arrest.

Cumberland County.—From the Cumberland county papers we copy the following: The post-office at Lisburn, this county, was burglariously entered on Sunday night of last week.

On Wednesday evening last, Edward Low, son of Mr. John Low, of Carlisle, while playing in the Court House, accidentally slipped from one of the steps and fell, breaking his left arm immediately below the elbow, and severely spraining the right arm.

On Friday night last an attempt was made to rob the post-office in Carlisle. The burglar mistook the Herald printing office for the post-office, and gained access to it through a window in the rear of the building.

A teamster in Shippensburg was arrested in that borough on Tuesday evening, charged with cruelty to a horse. He was invited to pay the usual fine and costs amounting to $12.84, and after a few hours reflection in the lock-up accepted the invite.

Juniata County.—The following we copy from the Mifflintown Independent: On Saturday last Rev. Solomon Seiber, of Delaware township, near Thompson town fell and in falling broke his left wrist.

A young man named Albert Smith, a flagman on a freight train on the Pennsylvania railroad, was injured about the head while watching hot boxes on the train, by coming in contact with the abutment of a public road bridge that crosses over the railroad, at a point between Granville and Lewistown, on Thursday last.

Four Splendid Chromes for Every Subscriber. Arrangements have been made by which we can offer a year's subscription to the New York Christian at Work and Eclectic Weekly, with their four magnificent Chromes.

Industries of the United States. This is the title of a book which combines a whole library within its covers. It gives a short and comprehensive account of every branch of industry in this country.

Good Building Brick.—The subscriber has now on hand at his yard in Tyrone twp., near the Poor House, over one hundred thousand bricks. The bricks are of superior quality and will be sold at the lowest market price.

The Purest and Sweetest Cod-Liver Oil is Hazard & Caswell's made on the sea shore, from fresh, selected livers, by CASWELL, HAZARD & CO., New York.

MARRIAGES. JONES—MICHNER.—At the residence of the bride's father, in Duncannon, November 28th, 1872, by Rev. P. B. Sherk, Charles J. Jones to Miss Mary A. Michner, both of Duncannon, Pa.

BOWER—REEDER.—At New Bloomfield, Pa., on Thursday, December 5th, by Rev. John Edgar, Mr. Jno. W. Bower of Jackson township, to Miss Sarah J. Reeder of Centre twp., Perry county, Pa.

HOLLEY—JACOBS.—On the 5th inst., at the M. E. Parsonage in Newport, by the Rev. H. C. Cheston, Mr. Chas. L. Holley to Miss Emaretta Jacobs, both of Tuscarora township.

BEREL—BERNHISEL.—On the 21st ult., at the upper Tuscarora Parsonage, Mr. Wilbert M. Behel, to Miss Elizabeth J. Bernhise, both of Perry county, Pa.

DEATHS. TROUP.—At Marysville, on November 17th, Mr. A. G. Troup, aged 43 years, 10 months and 23 days. He leaves a wife and five children to mourn his departure.

Business Notices.

The Tide of Emigration Turned! Seekers for new homes are pouring into Southwest Missouri, attracted by the cheap lands of the ATLANTIC & PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY.

This Company offers 1,200,000 Acres of the finest land in the world, at from $2 to $12 per acre, on seven years' time, and with free transportation to all purchasers.

Cheap Life Insurance.—The cheapest manner in which Life Insurance can be had is to take a policy in the United Brethren Aid Society. Full details of their way of insuring will be found in our advertising columns.

TO CONSUMPTIVES. The advertiser, having been permanently cured of that dread disease, consumption, by a simple remedy, is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers the means of cure.

CHAPPED HANDS, Face, rough skin, pimples, ringworm, sal-rheum, and other cutaneous affections cured, and the skin made soft and smooth, by using the JUNIPER TAR SOAP, made by Caswell, Hazard & Co., New York.

County Price Current. BLOOMFIELD, December 10, 1872. Flax Seed, 1 60. Potatoes, 60. Butter 1/2 pound, 22 @ 22 cents.

NEWPORT MARKETS. [Corrected Weekly by Kough, Snyder & Co.] DEALERS IN GRAIN & PRODUCE. NEWPORT, December 7, 1872. Flour, Extra, 96 00. Super, 5 50.

CARLISLE PRODUCE MARKET. CORRECTED WEEKLY. Carlisle, December 7, 1872. Family Flour, 98 25. Superfine Flour, 5 50. Superfine Eye Flour, 4 50.

Philadelphia Price Current. Corrected Weekly by Junney & Andrews. No. 123 MARKET STREET. PHILADELPHIA, December 7, 1872.

WASHING AND DRESSING. Send for Prospectus and Specimen Copy. Address "THE PATRIOT," 442 N. 3rd St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Scovill's Short Hand, $1.25.

Most legible system extant. Based upon ordinary alphabet, not phonetic; therefore much more readily acquired.

TRUE TIME FOR $1. Magnetic Time-keeper, Compass and Indicator. A perfect GEM for the pocket of every traveler.

Great Offers to Agents. Are made by THE SATURDAY EVENING POST and THE LADY'S FRIEND. A beautiful CIRCULAR of the CHILD PROPHET "SAMUEL."

AGENTS WANTED FOR Boston AND ITS Destruction! A full, detailed and graphic account of the origin, progress, suffering, losses and incidents of the great conflagration.

Vick's Floral Guide for 1873! The GUIDE is now published Quarterly.—TWENTY-FIVE CENTS pays for the year.

OLENA. THE Best Oil in the World for Machinery. It will not chill. It will not gum.

PAINE, ABLETT & TRIPP, Oil Manufacturers and Dealers, No. 360 Penn Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa.

THE GREAT WEEKLY! "The Harrisburg Patriot." "The Weekly Patriot" Gratis!

WEEKLY PATRIOT: One Copy, one year, $2.00. One Copy, six months, $1.25. Four Copies, one year, each, 1.75.

THE DAILY PATRIOT, Published EVERY MORNING, Sundays excepted, is a first class newspaper, containing full telegraphic reports, special Washington dispatches.

TERMS.—Cash in advance. Send Post Office Money Order, Bank Draft or Registered Letter. Bills sent by Mail will be at the risk of the sender.

"HAND STAMPS" all varieties Circulans sent free. AGENTS WANTED. W. H. H. Davis & Co., Mfrs. 79 Nassau, N. Y.