

Vinegar Bitters are not a fine Fancy Drink, made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors, doctored, spiced, and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonic," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the native roots and herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants.

They are the Great Blood Purifier and a Life-giving Principle, a Perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition, enriching it, refreshing and invigorating both mind and body. They are easy of administration, prompt in their action, certain in their results, safe and reliable in all forms of disease.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion. Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Flatulence of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the Regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia. In these complaints it has no equal, and one bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that a marked improvement is soon perceptible.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs, and in Bilious Diseases.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blisters, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurf, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Grateful thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

Pin-Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Says a distinguished physiologist: "There is scarcely an individual upon the face of the earth whose body is exempt from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy deposits that breed these living monsters of disease. No system of Medicine, no vermifuges, no antihelmintics, will free the system from worms like these Bitters."

Velveteen.—Velveteen of splendid quality for sale by F. MORTIMER. It can be had, cut bias if desired.

HUMOROUS.

"Some Pumpkins." The following is a fair representation somewhat enlarged, of the "big talk" about the agricultural productions of the Pacific coast which one hears in those parts.

Two weeks ago I started on a visit to the Yo Semite Valley. I arrived at the wharf a moment too late to get on board; and, instead of waiting until next day, I determined to go to Stockton on horseback. I accordingly crossed the bay at Oakland, or, as it is better known, "Little Pedlington," procured a horse and rode over to the Livermore Valley, where I staid all night with a rancher, who was known in the valley as "Clamps." They called him that because he got rich by holding on to his money with a degree of fortitude not universal in the country. As supper time approached, Clamp asked if I would like some eggs, and how I preferred it—hard or soft, boiled or fried. I told him I would like some eggs, and that it would suit me best to have them soft boiled.

In a few moments there came Clamps and his wife, rolling an egg the size of a flour barrel, which they boiled in a short time in a large cauldron, and then set it up on one end by the madam's chair at the table. A hole was made in the top of the shell, and the egg was dipped out with a long handled ladle. I was astonished at the size of the egg, and observed that his hens must be enormously large. "By no means," he replied. "You will not be so much surprised when I tell you that one hen did not lay this egg alone; it took seven or eight hens almost a week to lay it. It was a joint-stock production of the chickens; but still it is better than the individual responsibility plan."

At breakfast the next morning we had more egg, and then I went on the road to Stockton. I reached San Joaquin river at noon, and was ferried over in an unique-looking craft. While the ferryman was tugging silently at his oars, I inquired whether the ferry was profitable.

"Doesn't scarcely pay for raising the boat," he replied.

"Raising the boat?" I repeated. "What do you mean by raising the boat?"

"Mister," said he, resting for a while on his oars, "you be a stranger in these parts, bean't you?"

I replied that I had not been long in the country.

"Then," said he, pointing to the shore "this ere boat grewed in that pumpkin patch over yonder."

"Growed in that pumpkin patch!" I exclaimed.

"Growed in that pumpkin patch on a pumpkin vine. Mister, this boat is a pumpkin shell cut in two. That patch is where it growed."

"Where, over by that barn?" I exclaimed.

"That ain't no barn," he answered, "unless you choose to call it so. That's a pumpkin too. But I made a hole in the end on't and let the stock inside; and when the wet season sets in, I plug up the hole and let them winter there. They come out awful fat in the spring. That big squash over yonder I'm hollerin' out to live in."

It is amusing sometimes to watch how completely specimens of the "Dundreary" swell are taken down when putting on their very grandest and most imposing airs. As an instance of this, we give the following account of a scene which occurred on one of the Mississippi steamboats.

An amusing colloquy came off at a supper-table on board of one of our Mississippi steamboats between a Chicago exquisite, reeking with oil and cologne, who was cursing the waters, assuming very consequential airs and a very raw Jonathan seated by his side, dressed in homespun. Turning to his vulgar friend the former pointed with his jeweled finger, and said:

"Butter, sah!"

"Yes, I see it is," coolly replied Jonathan.

"Buttah, sah, I say!" fiercely repeated the dandy.

"Yes, sir, I know it is—very good, and a first-rate article."

"Buttah, I tell you," thundered the dandy in still louder tones, as if he would annihilate him.

"Well, gosh, all Jerusalem, what of it?" now yelled the down-easter, getting dander up in turn, "you don't think I took it for lard, did you? You must be an everlasting darn fool, and drat you, if you don't shut up your jaw, I'll butter my fists and cram them down your infernal throat. If you don't hush, I'll get mad, do you hear?"

A young man who applied at the recruiting station in one of the far Western States for enlistment, was asked if he could sleep on the "point of a bayonet," when he promptly replied by saying: "He could try it, as he had often slept on a pint of whiskey, and the kind used in Lisbon would kill farther than any shooting iron he ever saw."

A western editor keeps the following notice posted conspicuously in his office: "Shut the door, and, as soon as you have done talking business, serve your mouth in the same way."
