The Ice Houses in this vicinity, were filled last week with good thick ice. As we go to press we have prospects of a fine bed of snow.

To Subscribers .- Will subscribers oblige us by looking at the dates on the direction labels of their papers. If the subscription expires with this year, and they wish to continue to receive THE TIMES, a prempt renewal of their subs cription will save us the trouble of removing the name from our mailing list, and will be a favor we shall duly appreciate.

Killed .- A man named George Hoetter, living at Mt. Holly was found dead on Saturday night last, in front of a drinking saloon, in that place. He had been murdered, but by whom was not known to our informant, though it is supposed he was killed during a fight.

A Hot Place, -A few evenings since a lady residing in this town, shortly after placing a fresh supply of wood in her stove, heard a peculiar noise coming from the interior of the fire. Looking for the cause, she soon saw the head of a snake coming out of the stove. Seizing a shovel she held his snakeship until the fire had killed him, during the whole of which time he continued to make the same singular noise. He proved to be a snake nearly two feet long and had probably curled himself up in a hollow stick for winter quarters.

Shot At.-On Sunday night about 7 o'clock some person was discovered trying to force off the lock on the corn crib at Mr. Wm. Lupfer's, and was shot at by some young men, who were watching the premises. The family had all gone to church, and the thief probably supposed he would have plain sailing, but owing to the frequent petty thefts which have occurred in that neighborhood a watch has been posted. It is not known whether the man was hit or not as he ran towards Mahonoy and hid himself in the woods, though pursued by the two young men who fired a revolver at him. We trust that the matter will be further investigated, and hope the thief will be brought to trial. The many thefts which have been committed in that vicinity this fall, cause a general feeling of alarm to exist among these who have any personal property exposed, and it is the duty of the proper officials to give the affair a thorough and rigid investigation.

A Boy Shot .- A most daring and villainous act was perpetrated upon a boy returning from Altoona. named Grant Kline, in Monaghan township, on Tuesday, the 3rd inst., the particulars of which have been furnished to us and are as follows:

Daniel and William Fetrow, of Lisburn, were on their way home from a rabbit hunt with their guns, and in passing the school house at Anderstown, Grant Kline and another boy came out for a bucket of coal, when William Fetrow called to Kline and told him that he was going to shoot him. He then immediately threw up his gun, took deliberate aim at the boy and fired, the shot striking him in the side; when he called to his brother for his gun, saying that he wanted to give him another fire. The boy fell to the ground, and the whole sohool became very much alarmed at the unexpected and dastardly assault upon one of the scholars. Fortunately the boy's wounds are not of a very serious nature, and he will speedily recover from its effeets. The father of the boy being apprised of the circumstance, followed the Fetrows, and overtook them in Daniel Hartz's meadow. He knocked them down with his fist and pommeled them effectually for their villainous assault upon his boy. have not learned whether legal proceedings have been instituted against the party.-York Press.

Take Notice. - I wish to notify all persons indebted to me for official services as Register and Recorder of Perry County, that any account unpaid, in twenty days from this date, will be placed in the hands of an officer for collection.

MONTGOMERY'S FERRY, Dec. 13, 1872.

Montgomean's Ferry, Dec. 13, 1872.

Mr. Editor.—The Susquehanna river is frozen over and people are crossing and recressing every day.

Work has commenced on the Penn'a canal. They intend to build eleven new double locks this winter, which will give employment to a great number of men. Last night I in company with a few disinterested persons—by special invitation—attended (what was to be) a grand ball, but as the sequel will show was a grand fizzle attended (what was to be) a grand ball, but as the sequel will show was a grand fizzle or humbug. When I arrived at Gerty's Notch Hotel, the sound of the merry fiddle struck me plaintively on the ear and I full with expectation of pleasure, and turkey, rushed frantically into the room.—But! Alas! words are inadequate to portray my feelings to find a half dozen of men drinkleelings to find a half dozen of men drinking whiskey and smoking like Mt. Vesuvious. I stepped up to the Prop. and asked him where the ball was? He a good jolly, fellow told me it was Liverpool flown, but soon came up. The landlord then conducted me to the dining-room and showed me the preparation made for the occasion and well it will not read right to put print—but sufficient to say he tore his hair. He said although I be a native of Liverpool, I confess with shame that the party of which I thought to eat my turkeys did not come and I can't eat them all myself, but, says he I will know better next time. but, says he I will know better next time, as I will not prepare so much for elite. I tried to console with him and relieve his mind from the vanities of this world, and at last he exclaimed with joy "by gosh!" I got him, I make no more turkeys ball for Liverpool. We took a social drink of cider and wended our way homeward, and reposed until this morning, sadly and greatly disappointed that my friends as well as myself could not have had a piece of that turkey before us.

Health in general is good, no disease of any account. Wishing for a good snow when I expect to visit your section with a number of new subscribers, wishing you and family good health and a merry Christ-and family good health and a merry Christand family good nearn and family good nearn mas, I remain, yours respectfully.

MASTEDON.

Cumberland County.-The following items we copy from the Cumberland County papers of last week:

At an early hour (about ten o'clock) on Monday night last, a fire broke out in the large stable belonging to Mr. Robert Giv-en, in Carlisle, immediately in the rear of his fine residence and banking flouse, West High street. Our firemen, with their three fine steamers, were soon on hand, and managed the fire remarkably well by con-fining it to the stable alone. The stable being brick with a tin roof, the fire was confined in the inside.

Warrants were recently issued for the arrest of six young men of Chambersburg, charged with the burning of Cole's stable in March last. Two of the parties were arrested, and the other two made good their escape. One of them gave bail in $4,000, but in default of $2,000, the other three were committed to jail. Another of the parties subsequently surrendered himself to the sheriff.

Richard W. Lockard, a resident of Mount Holly, an employee in one of the Paper Mills of that place, was found dead by some of the girls employed in the fac-tory on Monday morning last. The deceas-ed committed the act by fastening a rope to a spike in an open shed near the company's mill, and when found was in a sit-ting posture, with life extinct. His de-termination to destroy life is apparent from the fact that when raised to an upright po-sition, the rope was entirely slack. No reason was given for the rash act.

On Tuesday last, as the 10,22 a.m., train On Tuesday has, as the 10,23 a.m., train west, was leaving Shippensburg, and when opposite Wunderlich & Mell's machine shop, Mr. A. H. Brogenier, in attempting to get on the train, fell with his left foot upon the track, and the wheels of the forward track passed over it, fracturing the metatarsal bones of the whole foot. Mr. B. was from Hagerstown, Md., and was returning from Altonia.

Juniata County .- From the Juniata County papers we copy the following:

About ten days ago, Alexander Harris nd family, left Beale township, in this country, to settle on a farm recently pur-chased by Mr. Harris in the State of Il-linois. We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Harris, in getting off the cars at Leland sta-tion, in Illinois, by some mishap had one of her feet so badly crushed by getting it un-der one of the wheels of the cars as to reonire amputation.

A citizen of Thompsontown writes us as follows in regard to the robbery of the Post Office in that place last Saturday night: "The Post Office in this town was burglariously entered on Saturday night 7th inst., and robbed of postage stamps, ranging from 1 cent up to 15 cents, amounting to $15.85 and a large U.S. envelope or pouch marked Post Master at Thompsontown, contain-'Post Master at Thompsontown,' containing the stamps. The burglars also took from Mrs. E. James, post mistress, six boxes of cigars, marked 'J. B. Wolf,' and other goods, amounting to about $35.00 in value. The burglars, falling to force the door open, gained an entrance through the transom above the door. The implements used to force their way in, were left in the post office and have since been identified by Mr. T. S. Thompson as his pinchbars, taken from his saw mill."

On the 4th inst., James Magruder, of Walker twp., broke his arm by a fall in his father's barn.

Lykens Items.

A man by the name of Kelly, working at Big Lick Colliery, accidentally slipped and fell some twenty feet down the slope, but was not hurt seriously. He is recover ing.

On Friday last, a boy by the name of Christ. Seigner had his fingers so badly hurt by a dirt car running over them, that amputation was necessary; his skull was also injured, but he is recovering.

On Tuesday last, Patrick Martin had his arm broken above the elbow, by coal falling

A sad and fatal accident occurred in the A sad and fatal accident occurred in the canal a short distance below Millersburg, on Sunday of last week. Two girls named Moyer and Weaver, playing on the ice, broke through, and the one named Moyer, was drowned, and but for the aid of a man who was passing, they would both have lost their lives. He however succeeded in saving Miss Weaver, though he narrowly escaped being drowned himself.

Brief Items.

The bedy of Mr. Isaac Himes, who left his home at Millerstown, in November last, was found under the ice in the canal on Saturday the 7th inst.

Rev. H. H. Bruning was installed on Sabbath, the 8th inst., as pastor of the old Lutheran church of Selinsgrove.

Newville Star was unfortunate enough to break their press last week and had to send their form to the "News" office at Shippensburg to be printed.

The Snyder county Teachers' Institute will convene at Middleburg on the 6th of January.

Mr. Wm. Lupfer, of this place who with his wife is on a visit west, has been quite sick at Shelby Ohio, but we are glad to be able to report him improving

Mr. A. L. Guss, has purchased the Huntingdon Globs, and will assume control of that paper after January 1st 1873.

Mr. Jacob Dum, of Spring twp., killed a 520 pound hog last week. This is the largest yet reported.

Mr. George Brown of Newport, had his hand badly hurt one day last week, while coupling cars at Harrisburg.

The value of a cow's tail has been ascertained in Bedford county, two young men having recently paid $120 for the fun of cutting off about twelve inches and nailing it to a school house.

On Saturday night last, a horse, belonging to Andrew Minnich, who farms the place belonging to Oliver Rice, in Centre twp., was strangled by getting his halter over a pin, at the end of the manger, and then falling in such a manner that he could not get up.

Petenson's Magazine for January, 1873, la already on our table. Never was there a handsomer or better number. In spite of competition "Peterson" more than holds his own.
