

Winegar Bitters are not a vile Fancy Drink, made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors, doctored, spiced, and sweetened to taste...

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison...

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence...

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder...

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs...

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Itches, Spots, Pimples, Pastules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-Head, Sores, Erysipelas, Itch, Scars, Excoriations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin...

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is full; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Grateful thousands proclaim WINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Says a distinguished physiologist: There is scarcely an individual upon the face of the earth whose body is exempt from the presence of worms...

Mechanical Diseases. Persons engaged in Painting and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Cold-chasers, and Miners, as they advance in life, will be subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this take a dose of WALKER'S WINEGAR BITTERS once or twice a week, as a Preventive.

Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera...

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goiter, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indent Inflammations, Mercular Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sores, Erysipelas, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S WINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

Dr. Walker's California Winegar Bitters act on all these cases in a similar manner. By purifying the Blood they remove the cause, and by resolving away the effects of the inflammation (the tubercular deposit) the affected parts receive health, and a permanent cure is effected.

The properties of Dr. WALKER'S WINEGAR BITTERS are Astringent, Diaphoretic and Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-irritant, Sulfuric, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

The Aperient and mild Laxative properties of Dr. WALKER'S WINEGAR BITTERS are the best safeguard in all cases of eruptions and malignant fevers, their balsamic, heating and soothing properties especially the humors of the fauces. Their Sedative properties allay pain in the nervous system, stomach, and bowels, either from inflammation, wind, colic, cramps, etc. Their Counter-irritant influence extends throughout the system. Their Diuretic properties act on the Kidneys, collecting and regulating the flow of urine. Their Anti-Bilious properties stimulate the liver, in the secretion of bile, and its discharges through the biliary ducts, and are superior to all remedial agents, for the cure of Bilious Fever, Fever and Ague, etc.

Purify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with WINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus treated. The liver, the stomach, the bowels, the kidneys, and the nerves are rendered disease-proof by this great invigorant.

Directions.—Take of the Bitters on going to bed at night from a half to one and one-half wineglassful. Eat good nourishing food, such as beef-steak, mutton chop, venison, roast beef, and vegetables, and take outdoor exercise. They are composed of purely vegetable ingredients, and contain no spirit.

HUMOROUS ITEMS.

A Terre Haute girl exclaimed when she saw a Thomas felino elevate his back: "Oh! wouldn't he make a lovely bustle?"

The married ladies of Hannibal, Mo., have formed a "Come Home Husband Club." It is about four feet long and has a brush on the end of it.

A poor young man remarks that the only advice he gets from capitalists is "to live within his income," whereas the difficulty he experiences is to live without an income.

An editor says his ancestors have been in the habit of living one hundred years. His opponent responds by saying that "that was before the introduction of capital punishment."

A young lady who had many admirers among the limbs of the law, on being asked how she escaped heart-whole, supposed it was owing to the fact, that, in "a multitude of counsellors there is safety."

"Sir," said one of the Barbury-shore tars to a rusty old captain, "did you ever know coffee to hurt any one?" "Yes, you fool you," was the response: "I knew a bag full to fall on a man's head once and kill him."

"Fanny," said a maiden Aunt, "You should eat the barley that is in your soup, or you will never get a man." Fanny, looking up innocently inquired, "Is that what you eat it for aunty?"

A gentleman, whose daughter had married a man by the name of Price, was congratulated by one of his friends, who remarked: "I am glad to see you have got a good price for your daughter." "It's forty years, my old friend John, since we were boys together. "Is it? Well, don't speak so loud, there's that fine young widow in the next room!"

An Irishman meeting another, asked him what had become of his mutual friend. "Arrah, now, my dear honey," answered he, "Paddy was condemned to be hanged, but saved his life by dying in prison."

At a dinner party this question was put to the guests: "Which is the stronger, a lie or the truth?" After a moment's consideration Joseph Proctor replied: "Truth, for you may rely on it."

A chap went to a pork-house to buy pork on credit. First he bargained for a lot of hog's ears; next, the clerk seeming willing to trust, he bought a hog's head; then growing bold, he said: "I believe I'll take that ham." "No you won't," replied the clerk: "you are head and ears in debt now."

An inebriated stranger precipitated himself down the depot stairs, and, on striking the landing, reproachfully apostrophised himself with: "If you'd been a wantin' to come down stairs, why'n thunder didn't you say so, you wooden-headed old fool, an' I'd a come with you an' showed you the way."

A down east editor, who has been keeping a record of big beats, announces at last that "the beet that beat the beet that beat the other beet, is now beaten by a beet that beats all the beets, whether the original beet that beat the beet that beat the beet, or the beet that beat the beet that beat the other beet."

An apothecary in Somerville, Mass., has a Scotch terrier which had the singular fortune, good or bad, to be brought up in a family of kittens, and he retains such an affection for his early playmates that he seizes every kitten he can find and tenderly carries it home. As they are generally claimed or sent back, he is engaged in a continued effort to accumulate a family of kittens, to make his home happy.

There is a man in Doylestown, ten years of age, who ate eighty breakfasts a few days ago, and chopped two cords of wood before walking a mile; or else he was two years old, and chopped ten breakfasts, and ate a cord of wood before walking eighty miles; or, he was eighty years old, and chopped ten miles before walking into a cord of wood at breakfast; or, he was eighty years old, and walked ten miles, and chopped two cords of wood before breakfast. It was somehow that way.

Two young gentlemen from the country on their first visit abroad were at Philadelphia some time since, and in their research for curiosities visited the "State House." One of them, after surveying the entire extent of the "inner chamber," poised his eyes on two portraits that occupied a very prominent position on the wall before them, and stood for some time looking at them with deep concern pictured on his countenance. After he had gazed intently and silently for some moments, he turned to his companion and asked: "Bill, whose pictures are they?" "That first one," replied Bill, "is George Washington, and the other is Martha Washington, his wife, two of the greatest men that ever lived."
