Remember the Temperance convention, which is to be held in the Court House on next Thursday, at 1 p. m. Let every township have a representation.

Accident .- On Wednesday morning last Miss 'Becca Bender, of Carroll twp., while passing up Carlisle street in this borough, fell on the ice and dislocated her thumb, forcing the bone out of the socket through the flesh. It required the strength of three men to pull the bone back into its place.

We tive it up .- A correspondent who visited our borough last week, and sat down at the corner of the street rather too suddenly for comfort, wants to know why sensible people don't clean the snow and ice from their side walks. We never were good at answering conundrums, and so we give it up.

Suicide .- On Thursday morning last, Mr. John Steckley, of Howe township, committed suicide by hanging himself in the barn on his premises. He had evidently ascended the ladder, to the hay mow, and after tying the rope to the round of the ladder, had jumped off. When found he was dead. There is no reason known why the deceased committed the deed. He was a man about 60 years of age, and in good circumstances. He was in town the day previous, and appeared in good health and spirits.

Forgery .- Reuben Stahl, of Tuscarora twp., was arrested on Monday of last week, charged with forging the endorsement of David and Ulrich Rumbaugh, to a note for $200, which note he sold to the Newport bank. When arrested one hundred and fifteen dollars of the money obtained was found upon him, which amount Court convened at 1 o'clock P. M. on Monday of last week, all the judges being in attendance. After some preliminary proceedings the following jury trials were taken up and disposed of.

George L. Shearer, vs. Perry County Mutual Fire Insurance Company.

The plff. in this case had owned a store in connection with his dwelling house situated in Carrol twp., which had been fully insured in the company. The property was destroyed by fire, and this action was brought to recover the amount of said insurance, which the Company refused to pay, alleging that the fire was caused through his own instrumentality. All the circumstances bearing upon the case were carefully examined. The trial occupied the greater portion of the week.

Verdict for dft. Counsel for plff. filed a motion for a new trial. McIntire & Graham for plff. Barnett & Sponsler for dft.

J. Morrison & Son, vs. David S. Asper. An action brought to recover the value of 45 pounds of wool, which the plff's had intrusted to the care of the dft. to convey to Newport station and ship, which was lost, as the plff. alleged, through the neghgence of the dft. Verdict for plff. The counsel for dft. filed a motion for a new trial. Sponsler & McIntire for plff. Barnett for dft.

James Crist, by his father and next friend J. H. Crist, vs. John Sheats. Thomas Bealor, by his father, vs. same. Chas. Brown, by his father, vs. same. Thomas Elder, by his father, vs. same.

It was agreed by the counsel in the above cases that the result of the trial of one case should settle all the others, as all grew out of the same cause.

The defendant in this action was burgess of Newport borough and an ordinance had been passed by the council of said borough prohibiting the playing of ball in any of the public squares, streets or alleys, under a penalty of a fine of one dollar. For violation of this ordinance these boys were notified by dft. to appear before him and comply with its provisions, which they refused to do, whereupon he sentenced them for 24 hours, confinement in the county jail. The plff's, alleged that the dft. did not possess this authority and sued to recover damages for false imprisonment.

Verdict for plff's. 25 cents damages. The court reserved its decision upon some points of law and granted a rule to enter a judgment non obstante vere dicto. This means that if upon further search it is found that the law does not compel this verdict a verdict for the defendant will be entered. McIntire & Sponsler for plff's. Barnett for dft.

CASES SETTLED.

Samuel A. Garland att'y for the use, of Madison Township, vs. Joseph Wertz.

Ellie J. Morland, vs. Dr. George W. Bistline. This case being called for trial the plff. took a non suit.

QUARTER SESSIONS.

Commonwealth, vs. William T. Sheibly. This was an infomation made by Barbara Sheibly against her husband for desertion and claiming maintainance. After hearing the testimony the court dismissed the case. Baily & Sponsler for com. Barnett for dft.

Grier City.

Indications point pretty strongly to the fact that James H. Grier, Esq., formerly of this Borough, but for the last five years of Pottsville, Schuykill county, Pa., is actually laying out or fixing up a city at East Mahanoy Junction, Schuykill county, Pa., which is to be called GHIER CITY, and from appearance, no better location could be found in the State. He has already bought 50 acres of land which is clear of stone, and almost level with a small stream of running water through it, situate 1 mile from East Mahanoy Junction, § of a mile from Delano, about 1 mile from Quakeake Junction, and 1 mile from Summit Station.

The Reading Rail Road connects with the Catawissa Rail Road at East Mahanoy Junction. The Catawissa Rail Road connects with the Lehigh Valley Rail Road at Quakeake Junction. The New York Central Rail Road has a Depot at Tammand and the Catawissa Rail Road has a depot at Summit Station, and owns a large Hotel there. The Lehigh Valley Rail Road runs into Delano, and have built their machine and repair shops there, and Delano is already quite a little town. While both the Reading Rail Road and the New York Central are mining and shipping coal. So that Grier's land is entirely surrounded by Rail Roads, and rich coal mines, which makes it in the very heart of the greatest Authracite coal trade in the State, and the prettiest part of the Mahanoy Valley. It is likely to be an immense city. Among the applicants for Grier's lots are Daniel Garman, of Dauphin co., J. A. Guss, and David Hause, of Chester county, Owen Bruner, of this county, Geo.

H. Robinhold and William R. Griffith, of Schuykill county and several Delano parties all of whom intend to either build or improve their lots and it is said some seventy five or a hundred thousand dollars is to be spent in improving the place &c. It really looks as if Grier, had a sure field to make a couple of hundred thousand dollars within the next five years, and it seems strange to us that this land had not been gathered up long ago by older citizens. We are pleased to see such a prospect for Grier's prosperity, and at another time will endeaver to give our readers more particulars.

Lykens News.

A slight fire occurred at the west end of Lykens, on Wednesday evening, January 1. Three children were left alone in the house, the oldest not over six years .--During the parents absence one of them upset and broke the lamp, the oil taking fire. The two eldest children were in the corner behind the fire, and the youngest on the other side. It was discovered by three men who were passing, who extinguished the flames before it had done much damage and removed the children in safety. The above letter was intended for last week's edition, but came to hand too late.

Cumberland County .-- From the Cumberland county papers we copy the following:

The furniture ware rooms of Mr. A. B. Ewing, of Carlisle, were badly damaged by water from the roof. The water broke through on New Year's night, sometime, and was not discovered until the following tained was found upon min, which amount was recovered by the bank. Stahl was before the court on Thursday evening and plead guilty, and was sentenced to the Eas-plead guilty, and was sentenced to the Easdered almost a total ruin.

Killed by a Lunatic .- One of the attendants at the State lunatic hospital was so brutally beaten the other day by a lunatic that he died of his wounds in forty-eight hours. It appears the patient was requested to perform some prescribed duty, which the latter stoutly refused to do. The attendant reiterated his request, when the lunatic turned on him with demoniac ferocity, felled him to the floor and jumped on his head and face, inflicting ghastly wounds. The injured man received the best medical attendance, but with all this he could not survive the terrific assault more than two days. The attendant was a German named Fidell, whose only relative (a sister) resides in Germany .- Patriot.

Bribing the Governor .- The Harrisburg "Patriot" says : A rich scene occurred in the executive chamber yesterday. A female resident of Philadelphia presented herself to his excellency and requested a pardon for a relation now serving out a term in the eastern penitentiary. The story of the woman was affectingly narrated, and the sympathies of the governor were excited and he promised to lay the facts before the attorney general for his consideration. With profound expressions of gratitude to his excellency for the favor with which her request had been received she arose, and presented him with a roll of greenbacks. The governor, with rage depicted on every lineament of his countenance, indignantly refused the gift and peremptorily ordered her to leave the room. The woman left confused and frightened, and as she precipitately ran down the stairs went through a series of ejaculations of regret at her great mistake, prominent among which was "How I have spiled it !" vestments.

Commonwealth, vs. Henry Gable & Wm. Moritz. This was an indictment against the dft's. as supervisors of Howe township, for not keeping in repair the new road laid out from the east end of Newport Bridge, to the foot of Buffalo mountain. After proceeding with the trial the case was compromised. The deft's were acquitted, and the county ordered to pay the costs, upon the condition that the road should be repaired at the earliest day practicable.

On Friday afternoon last, abont 2 o'clock a young son of Mr. Wm. M. Watson, of Oakville, aged between 3 and 4 years, ac-cidentally hanged himself in his father's hog-pen, in the following curious manner: The boy had left the house while the mother was attending to some work, and on being missed she went in search of him to different places. Not finding him, she went into the lot in the rear of the house and to her horror discovered the child hanging with his head between two boards in a partition in the pen, and dead. The boy had evidently climbed up the partition and inserted his head in the crack, which was scarcely wide enough to adimit it, when his feet slipped, and being unable to help himself, he was strangled.
