RAIL ROAD NOTICE.

An adjourned meeting of the citizens favoring the building of a rail road from Bloomfield, will be held in the Court House on WEDNESDAY EVENING, Feb. 26th, at which time it is expected that a vote on the eastern terminus of the road will be taken. The vote is to be by shares, and a full attendance is hoped for.

GEO. S. BARNETT, Pres. F. MORTIMER, Sec.

Observer.—Your article is good, but we think it better to publish no more on that subject.

The Russell Guards will parade at Ickesburg on Saturday the 22nd, of February, by order of Capt. J. M. Weibley.

Parade.—Carthage Lodge No. 264 K. of P., will have a parade on the 22nd inst., "Washington's Birth-day." Sister Lodges of the district have been invited and are expected to be in attendance. Several bands of music will be present.

A Pretty Picture Free.—The chromo issued by the American Land & Law Advisor, is a beauty. Subscribers to that paper receive the chromo without extra charge. Those who wish, can have that paper and THE TIMES, Chromo included for $3.25. Those who have already paid their subscription for The Times can by remitting us $3.00 obtain the chromo, and the "Land & Law Advisor" for a year. For further particulars regarding the paper see advertisement in another column. tf

Duncannon at Work.—We learn that the citizens of Duncannon have opened books for subscriptions in aid of the road from Bloomfield, with the proviso that Duncannon be made the eastern point. This is what their friends here desire. Duncannon can not be expected to aid in building up any other point, but with a certainty of sufficient aid from there to insure the building of the road, there is no doubt that Duncannon would be the choice of a majority of the subscriptions taken here. With the citizens of Bloomfield and vicinity it is a question of dollars and cents, for having determined to have a road, they want to build it to the point that leaves them the least amount to raise. Talk will not build it, but good subscriptions will, and these are what we are after.

Local Option.

Meetings for this week so far as heard from are as follows:

Irvine's school house Saville twp., Tuesday evening, Feb. 18, Shermansdale, Presbyterian church Thursday, Feb. 20.

Meetings will also be held at Jericho School house on the evening of February 19th, and at Okefokoke School house on the evening of February 21st. A meeting of the friends of Temperance will be held at Centre School House on Saturday evening the 22d inst. Also at the Union church near Delville, on Friday evening, March 14th. Eloquent speakers will be present. As the time is drawing near township Committees will please make haste in forwarding the petitions, and also in sending in requests for help for any meeting they organize.

B. McINTIRE, Chairman Central Com.

Plain Talk.—Do you wish to see a rail road, built that will connect Bloomfield with the Pennsylvania Central?

Is not the road of more importance than the route or place which the junction will be made?

There is but one reply you can make to these questions, if you are interested in the improvement and advancement of this place, and its vicinity. And having answered these questions affirmatively, do not your acts contradict to your assertions, as long as you refuse to place your name on the subscription book in the hands of the committee appointed by the meeting of the citizens? That committee mean "wouk" and are determined to give this place the advantages of a railroad outlet before many months. Many of the subscribers on these books have preferences as to the route, but are willing to yield these preferences to the decision of the majority, should the vote on locating the eastern terminus be against them. If there are persons among our citizens who favor any particular route so strongly that they would prefer to defeat the building of a road, rather than to yield the point, of junction, they cannot be expected to unite with the people in this exertion now being made, but we have a right to expect the aid and sympathy of all others, and failing to give us this aid, you cannot complain if you are considered as opposed to giving Bloomfield the benefit of a Railroad.

The terms upon which subscriptions are asked, is explained by the following; which is a copy of the agreement signed by the subscribers.

"We the undersigned do hereby agree to pay into the hands of such person as shall be designated by a majority of shares subscribed, ($50. to represent each share,) such sums as are set opposite our names; said money to be used in the construction of a Railroad that will connect the borough of Bloomfield with the Penn'a R. R. at a point to be hereafter decided upon by a majority of shares subscribed."

Newport Items.—Our Newport Correspondent sends the following:

A few mornings since Dr. Orris, of this place made a narrow escape by driving on the track after a freight train had passed, without seeing the way passenger which was coming the opposite direction. The doctor discovered the train after it was too late to stop, but by urging his horse got safely over. Persons cannot be too careful at railroad crossings.

The festival in Newport, for the benefit of the Presbyterian church on the nights of the 13, 14 and 15th inst., was a complete success, and the money realized will increase the church fund "right smart." The ladies in charge were unremitting in their attention to visitors and deserve great credit for their industry and perseverance. A valuable mule belonging to James McNeal, of Blain, this county, was seized with a fit of colic in the stables of the Huggins House, at Newport, on last Wednesday, about 4 P. M. and in about half an hour from that time, that mule, had gone to that bourne from which no mule ever yet returned.

Lecture.—Charles Smiley, Esq., will deliver a lecture in the court house on next Saturday evening. Subject.—Benedict Arnold. These lectures are under the control of the Young Men's Literary Society of his place, and the funds are distributed evenly. Come one come all.

Brief Items.

A boy named Thompson residing in Carroll twp., broke his arm recently while playing at school.

Six inches more of snow on Saturday night and Sunday morning, followed by a rain severely tried the roofs in this vicinity. The stable attached to the Eagle Hotel in this borough was broken in and thrown out in the alley.

The young man who was dropped off a mule last week while bringing a basket of eggs to town, did not use a single profane word, but he evidently felt worse about it than the mule did.

Squire Lobaugh of Donnally's Mill, was hit in the eye by a chip two weeks since, and will probably entirely lose the sight of one eye from the injury.

The State Normal School at Shippensburg will open April 15, and close July 3, 1873. For circular card and any information relating to the School, address, George P. Beard, Principal.

A brakeman on one of the freight trains of the Northern Central Railroad, named E. H. Cooper, fell from the train, on Friday, at New Cumberland, and was instantly killed.

A bill has passed the legislature authorizing the Pennsylvania railroad company to increase its capital stock for the purpose of erecting two additional tracks between Philadelphia and Pittsburg. A considerable portion of the third track has already been completed.

A menagerie has been opened at the Robinson House, in this borough. The animals at present on exhibition are a "Shepherd dog," a wolf pup, and a gray fox. Amos is however, trying to secure the services of the Bloomfield man opposed to the railroad, and if successful will place him among the other animals.

The Bloomfield Fur Company have been doing a large business this winter. On Saturday the result of their labors was the capture of two foxes, and all this was done while "Reddy" was absent.

Church Notices.—No service in the Presbyterian Church next Sabbath morning. Prayer-meeting next Wednesday evening.

A Beautiful Handwriting.

There are but few of our readers who would not like to acquire a rapid and beautiful handwriting, for there is no one accomplishment so highly prized as this. The business colleges of the country have afforded the best instruction in this branch and have succeeded in producing the most accomplished penmen. The best penman in America to-day is Prof. GASKELL, President of Bryant & Stratton College of Manchester, N. H. There are few lovers of the beautiful art of penmanship who have not heard of this wonderful penman and many have seen specimens of his skill. His large specimens have attracted great attention in New York City and throughout the country where they have been placed on exhibition.

He is now engaged day and night sending out Copies for self-instruction, which he writes himself expressly for applicants, so that any one can learn to write at the home fireside.—These contain full printed instructions, and are put up in large heavy envelopes and sent by mail pre-paid for $1.00 per package. They are all fully explained that no one can fail to learn rapidly from them. They have been ordered by thousands—not by poor writers alone, but by the leading teachers of penmanship throughout the United States and Canada. Our readers would do well to write for a package, as nothing so complete, beautiful and useful for self-instruction will ever again be offered them.

THE ALDINE for February is in every respect equal to the sanguine expectations excited by the January number of this remarkable periodical, of which issue appears to be the climax until its successor appears. The opening illustration is a magnificent full page by J. D. Woodward, of Pancheon Run Falls, which is certainly one of the most delightful pictures which it is possible to conceive. Further on we have smaller illustrations by the artist, the whole being illustrative of an article on Virginia scenery, with especial reference to the beauties of the Blue Ridge. "An Attack in the Rear," by J. G. Brown, a snowballing sketch, is worthy of that eminent artist's reputation, and it is in the exhibition of work from the pencils of the first painters in the country, that THE ALDINE is justifying the highest expectations of its friends.

Terms—$5.00 per year with premium Oil Chromos, "Village Belle" and "Crossing the Moor," 14x20 inches. James Sutton & Co., Publishers, 58 Maiden Lane, New York.

BALLOON'S MAGAZINE FOR FEBRUARY.—We are glad to welcome the February number of Balloon's Magazine, for it is one of our favorites, always bringing pleasure and comfort through its well-stocked pages, which interest and amuse. It makes the children happy, it makes the ladies of the household happy, and removes some of the burdens of life, at least for a time. There is always a variety in the Magazine, that all tastes must be suited. Balloon's Magazine is so cheap that all can take it without feeling in the least impoverished. Why, it is only $1.50 per year, and a pretty little Chromo thrown in, or 15 cents single copies; a sum that a person often throws away in a thoughtless moment. Our advice is, take it, and enjoy it as we do. Address Thomas & Talbot, 58 Bromfield Street, Boston.

THE BEST BOYS' AND GIRLS' MAGAZINE.—Demorest's Young America is always sparkling with entertaining Stories, Poems, Music, Puzzles, Games, Travels, and other pleasant features, is profusely illustrated, and cannot fail to amuse, instruct and elevate, and assist to make the lives of youthful Americans useful, truthful and happy. The February number, just received, is a real gem. Yearly, $1.00.—Address, W. Jennings Demorest, 838 Broadway, N. Y.

Sleep on my dear sweet babe; thy little bed is cold indeed, and narrow. Yet calmly there shall rest thy head. And neither mental pain nor dread Shall e'er thy feelings harrow. Thou may'st no more return to me, But there's a time my dearest When I shall lay me down by thee And when of all my lovely babes shall be, That sleep beside me nearest. Lost to us but gathered fondly To the tender shepherd's fold, In that home of love immortal Whose fair streets are paved with gold.
