Joseph Shuler, Esq., has our thanks for the Legislative Record, and other public documents.

X Sudden Death .- On Wednesday last, Mr. George Wallet of Ickesburg, died very suddenly. He had just returned home and while going into the house dropped down, and before medical aid could reach him was

The "Central Pennsylvania annual Conference" of the Methodist Episcopal church meets in Chambersburg, March 5th. Between two and three hundred Ministers will be present. Rev. Bishop Merrill, D. D. will preside.

A Correspondent writes us in regard to a new branch of industry that has been started in town. For the credit of the place, we hope he is mistaken in his statements, and so will not publish the communication until some of the hands in our employ can investigate the matter.

Joseph M. McCinre, Esq., formerly of this county, has assumed the editorial management of the weekly Mirror & Record of Reform published at Doylstown, Bucks county. The last named paper is published in the German language. Mr. McClure's many friends in this county will wish him success in his new enterprise.

Our Sale Bills. - Everybody acknowledges that the bills printed at the TIMES office are pretty. That our style is appreciated, is proven by the fact that other offices are now copying after us, and trying to make their bills as showy as ours. So far they have not met with great success, but if they keep on they may in time succeed.

Cheating the Undertaker .- A man who promised to pay us some money last week if alive, did not do it. We therefore suppose he is dead, but as he is walking around town to-day, presume he is doing that only to save funeral expenses, and thus cheat the undertaker as he did us. We have the satisfaction of knowing that he cannot cheat the devil out of his dues, if he don't turn over a new leaf.

Washington's Birthday .- The 22nd of February in this borough was celebrated with considerable spirit by the Knights of Pythias. The Bloomfield lodge was joined by the Newport lodge, in a parade through the town, after which they entered the Court House, when a prayer was made by Rev. J. Edgar, and addresses were delivered by Rev. A. W. Decker and Isaac G. Black, Esq. The music on the occasion was furnished by the Newport and the Bloomfield bands. Quite a delegation was also present from Liverpool and Duncan-

In the evening a large audience listened to an address delivered by Charles H. Smiley, Esq.

RAIL ROAD NOTICE.

An adjourned meeting of the citizens favoring the building of a rail road from Bloomfield, will be held in the Court House on WEDNESDAY EVENING, Feb. 26th, at which time it is expected that a vote on the eastern terminus of the road will be taken. The vote is to be by shares, and a full attendance is hoped for.

GEO. S. BARNETT, Pres. F. MORTIMER, Sec.

Velveteen.—Velveteen of splendid quality for sale by F. Morrmen. It can be had, cut bias if desired.

Isn't It True !-- If the railroad outlet for Sherman's Valley was at Bloomfield, would not every farmer above here that now requires either two or three days for a trip to the station, save one day's time?

If saved the hard pull over the ridge between this point and Newport would be not be able to haul one fifth heavier loads? Would not land be more easily and cheaply improved with coal brought so much nearer ?

Would not every merchant and tanner be benefited by having his receiving and shipping point brought nearer to him?

Would any man owning a farm in Sherman's Valley sell it for the price he now asks, if certain that in a short time his land was to be brought nearer to a railroad station?

Is there any reason except the lack of railroad facilities why land in this county should not bring as much as land in Cumberland county?

And is there any reason except want of energy on your part that these facilities have not long since been enjoyed in Perry

At this time there is a chance to obtain the benefits to be derived from a railroad. The people are aroused, and except among a few close fisted chaps with exceedingly narrow contracted ideas, there is a determination to build a railroad. We do not expect to be able to make it beyond this point this year, but with it this far the whole valley could have the benefit to be derived from its use, and would in a short time push it further. Aside from the convenience of these better railroad facilities and the increased value of property, there is no doubt but what the road would prove a paying investment.

The hills of this county abound with excellent ore, for which there is a great demand, and the working of these ore banks would bring money into our midst, which would be an advantage that even the closest fisted old chap in the county would be able to appreciate.

And now what say you, will you have the road, or not?

A Flagman Crushed .- The State Journal of the 20th inst., says: About half past eight o'clock yesterday morning, a flagman named Samuel Wiggins, whose home is in Columbia, and who was employed on one of the freight trains on the Philadelphia division of the Pennsylvania railroad, was caught between the bumpers of some freight cars, while in the act of coupling them, and so badly hurt that he died from his injuries a few hours after the accident. He was carried to Albright's hotel, the nearest point from Gallagher's switch, near the Asylum road, (where the accident occurred,) and medical aid summoned immediately; but as above stated, the case was a fatal one.

For the Bloomfield Times Wheatfield twp., Feb. 12th, 1873. Wheatfield Coming Into Line.

On Saturday evening Feb. 12th, the citizens of the lower end of Wheatfield twp., assembled at Panuel's Church to hear the assembled at Pannel's Church to hear the advocates of prohibition. The object of the meeting was stated briefly by Moses Hess, Esq., one of the members of the standing committee. Rev. S. Bigham, S. M. was then introduced, and ably entertained the audience for one and a half hours. His theme was, "King Alcohol." The Speaker showed that intemperance was a prolific cause of insanity and panperism, also, that for every dollar of revenue brought into the county or State Treasury from the sales of intoxicating drinks the tax payers pay five in taxes for the support of pauperism and crime, brought about by intemperance. But while we would commend the good qualities of the address we would say for the benefit of all Temperance lectures, don't take your old lectures that have been written years ago, and for other occasions, and attempt to adapt them to the present campaign. They wont fit in statistics and and in argument they are too antiquated.

After the close of the address W. A. Blain, Esq., of Tuscarora, being present, was called upon and made a few very positive remarks in favor of the temperance

The meeting was a success, and, as anger in an opponent is a token of his defeat and weakness, we infer that the advocates of Bacchus who were present at the meeting were defeated, because they went away angry. The interest in the temperance cause has somewhat abated of late in interest in this neighborhood by the in interest in this neighborhood by the Potter's McCoy dog fight, now pending before one of the justices of your town.—
We have been watching with wishful eye for some time the appearing of the new paper, in Duncannon. "The Duncannon Record." Then ye Bloomfield "Devils" will how for lack of prey.

For the Bloomfield Times. Local Option Meeting in Rye Township.

Mr. Editor.—Having received a notice from some of the anti license men of Bloomfield to publish a meeting at Salem church in Rye twp., on Saturday the 15th, and that speakers would be in attendance from Bloomfield, the citizens met accordingly. Being disappointed in the speakers the house was called to order and organized the house was called to built the house was called by electing H. Foulk, Chairman, Mr. Henry kamer and Charles Barshinger, Assistant Ramer and Wm. Adams. Secretary. The meeting and Wm. Adams, Scoretary. The meeting was then very appropriately addressed by Mr. Leonard Swartz, Rev. David Dice of Marysville, Mr. Peter Baker of Rye twp., and others. In conclusion the chairman addressed the audience in an affecting and an dressed the audience in an affecting and an appropriate manner, presenting the evils of intemperance very forcibly and the danger to which the rising generation is exposed. A vote was then taken which resulted almost unanimously against license. On motion the meeting adjourned to meet at No. 4 school house in Rys twp., on Saturday evening the 22d.

Cumberland County.-From the Cumberland County papers of last week we copy the following:

A special court will convene in Carlisle on Monday, the 10th proximo.

We regret to learn that our townsman, Mr. Geo. W. Hendle, who holds a position at the State Capitol, had a stroke of par-alysis last Monday morning. He was brought home in the mail train the same day. This is the third stroke Mr. Hendle has endured.

A man named Charles King, a passenger on the Express train westward, Saturday afternoon, fell from the train at some point between Carlisle and Newville, and was almost instantly killed. One of his legs was cut off, and his head was badly injured. He belonged to Chambersburg.

On the night of the 21th instant, an unsuccessful attempt was made to break into Mr. J. H. Wolf's notion and fancy goods store on north Hanover street. From the appearance of the door, the thieves must have worked vigorously to effect an entrance, but without success. Some time since auger holes were made in the floor in the front part of the store, no doubt by the same parties, who were probably "prospecting."

"prospecting."

On Sunday last, about 2½ o'clock, Mrs. Moyor, residing in Silver Spring township, heard a noise, and supposed it to be the falling of a tree, but a few minutes later she noticed that the roof of Aaron Moyer's barn had fallen in, supposed to have been caused by the weight of snow which was on it. Two boys were in the barn at the time it fell in and one was wedged in so that it required great exertion to remove him. Fortunately he was found to be unjured, though his escape was marvelous. jured, though his escape was marvelous.

The man who lost his pocket book was a sensible man, and at once brought an advertisement to the paper. The consequence was he found it the next morning in his

The old chaps around Mansville amuse themselves by sliding down hill on a large sled. In consequence of having a bad steersman a party recently landed over the fence in an unexpected hurry, to the in-tense disgust of the dutchman who stood on his head in a snowdrift. When pulled out he said: "I don't not rite town hill dot vay some more alretty."

137 Mrs. Herncane, of West township, Huntingdon county, gave birth to triplets, two girls and a boy, last week. They were all living at last accounts.

Mr. Jarrett, living in Jackson twp., Snyder county, lost two cows by a disease similar to the erizootic. They were found dead in the stable in the morning, no symptoms of the disease manifesting itself what-

The meeting of the young men's Literary Society will be held on Saturday eve of this week. Subject of discussion: Resolved, "that Wealth has a greater influence than Knowledge." The Society meet in the Lecture Room of the Presbyterian Church.

THE ALDINE.

An Illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be the Handsomest Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

Not for Sale in Book or News Stores.

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals.—
It is an eigant miscellany of pure, light, and graceful literature; and a collection of pletures, the rarest specimans of artistic skill in black and white. Although each succeeding numbor affords fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALLINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competion in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then, there are the chromos, besides! its cost; and then, there are the chromos, be-

ART DEPARTMENT.

Notwithstanding the increase in the price of subscription last Fall when THE ALDINE assubscription last Fall when THE ALDINE assumed its present noble proportions and representative character, the edition was more than Doubled during the past year; proving that the American public appreciate, and will support, a sincere effort in the cause of Art. The publishers, anxious to justify the ready confidence thus demonstrated, have exerted themselves to the utmost to develop and improve the work, and the plans for the coming year, as unfolded by the monthly issues, will astonish and delight even the most sanguine friends of THE ALDINE.

The publishers are authorized to announce designs from many of the most eminent Artists of America.

In addition, THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success, and with a view to the highest artistic success, and greatest general interest; avoiding such as have become familiar, through photographs or copies of any kind.

The quarterly tinted plates, for 1873, will reproduce four of John S. Davis' inimitable child-sketches, appropriate to the four seasons.—These plates, appropriate to the four seasons.—The popular feature of a copiously illustrated "Christmas" number will be continued.

To possess such a valuable epitome of the art world at a cost so trifing, will command the subscriptions of thousands in every section of the country; but, as the usefulness and attractions of THE ALDINE can be enhanced, in proportion to the numberical jucrease of its supporters, the publishers propose to make "assurance doubly sure," by the following unparalleled offer of

PREMIUM CHROMOS FOR 1873.

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE, who pays in advance for the year 1873, will receive, without additional charge, a pair of beautiful oil chromos, after J. J. Hill, the eminent English painter. The pietures, entitled "The Village Belle," and "Crossing the Moor," are 14x20 inches—are printed from 25 different plates, requiring 25 impressions and tints to perfect each picture. The same chromos are sold for $30 per pair in the art stores. As it is the determination of its conductors to keep THE ALDINE out of the reach of competition in every departout of the reach of competition in every depart-ment, the chromos will be found correspond-ingly shead of any that can be offered by other ingly ahead of any that can be offered by other periodicals. Every subscriber will receive a certificate, over the signature of the publishers, guaranteeing that the chromos delivered shall be equal to the samples furnished the agent, or the money will be refunded. The distribution of pictures of this grade, free to the subscribers to a five dollar periodical, will mark an epoch in the history of Art; and, considering the unprecedented cheapness of the price for THE AL-DINE itself, the marvel falls little short of a miracle, even to those best acquainted with the miracle, even to those best acquainted with the achievements of inventive genius and improv-ed mechanical appliances. (For further illustrations of these chromos, see November issue of THE ALDINE.) THE LITERARY DEPARTMENT will continue under the care of Mr. RICHARD HENRY STODDART, assisted by the best writers and poets of the day, who will strive to have the literature of THE ADLINE always in keeping with its artistic attractions.
