

The Bloomfield Times.

Monday, March 24th—Henry C. Charles will sell on the farm Henry P. Grubb, in Liverpool twp., horses, cows, young cattle, wagons, farming implements and household furniture.

The Record is the name of a new paper started at Duncannon, by N. T. Hauck. The first number was issued last week and presents a clear and handsome appearance. We wish Mr. H. entire success in his new enterprise.

Alpacas.—A splendid line of Black Alpacas ranging from 30 cents to $1. per yard, has just been opened by F. Mortimer. Ladies wanting dress goods of that kind will find it to their advantage to examine his assortment.

The Hoteion House the advertisement of which will be found in another column is a quiet comfortable Temperance Hotel, which we can recommend to any one who can appreciate a good stopping place. The prices are moderate and the location of the house is central.

Subscribers desiring to change their Post Office address, should give the name of the office to which the paper has been sent, as well as the new address. And don't send notice of the change until the week you wish it made.

Arm Broken.—The baggage master on the way passenger train west, had an arm broken on Tuesday morning, at Perdix station. He was throwing out a letter when his hand struck a water tank, cutting it, and knocking his arm back against the car with sufficient force to break the bone. He came on as far as Newport, where the bone was set and he returned home on the next train.

The Stolen Vouchers.—Robert J. Hetrick, the Court House Janitor, was arrested on Saturday a week, on the charge of having destroyed the vouchers and other important papers in the Commissioners' office, last summer. The arrest was made on information of David Gemmil, and it is thought by many of our citizens, that the charge cannot be sustained. Mr. Hetrick has heretofore sustained a good character for honesty, and has the reputation of having performed the duties of his appointment in a satisfactory manner.—York Press.

Whiskey.—A short local option argument may be summed up as follows: Dennis gets drunk and beats Mrs. Dennis who also gets drunk. Death ensues either from the beating or from erysipelas which sets in after the wounds are given. In the Great Ledger above, whiskey, is accredited with another murder. Society is to bear the expense of a coroner's jury, a pauper burial, a trial for murder, and perhaps a gallows to carry another life to the innumerable list of alcohol's victims. And yet the trade goes on; Government licenses it, the county authorizes it, and society and taxpayers endure it. And the question now is shall we continue to countenance this evil?

Snows of this Winter.—A correspondent from Duncannon sends us the following, which will be of interest, showing as it does, the date and depth of each snow up to the 1st of March. By this, it will be seen that the number of snows has been twenty-seven up to that time: November 16, 1872, 1/2 of an inch; Nov. 22, 1 1/2 inches; Nov. 26, 2 of an inch; Nov. 29, 1 inch. December 2d, 1 inch; 5th, 3/4 inch; 16th, 1 inch; 18th, 3 inches; 19th, 5 inches; 22d, 1/2 inch; 23rd, 2 1/2 inches; 30th, 2 inches. January 5, 1873, 1/2 inch; 8th, 1/4 inch; 15th, 1/2 inch; 18th, 1 inch; 20th, 3 inches; 21st, 1/2 inch; 23rd, 4 inches; 24th, 4 inches; 26th, 1 1/2 inches; 27th, 6 inches. February 3rd, 2 inches; 13th, 6 inches; 16th, 7 inches; 21st, 6 1/2 inches; 27th, 3 1/2 inches. Whole amount, 63 1/2 inches.

Small Pox is prevailing to quite an extent around Perry Furnace, in Carroll township. The rapid spread of the pestilence in that neighborhood was caused by the death of Mrs. Duncan, from that disease before it had properly developed itself, and consequently no pains was taken to prevent contagion. It was noticed by the persons that prepared her corpse for burial that purple spots had broken out on the skin, and yet no suspicion of that disease was aroused until it made its appearance among those exposed at that funeral. Great care should be taken by persons living in that vicinity, not to come into other neighborhoods, and persons who are not compelled to visit that locality, will be apt to keep away, now their attention is called to the danger they may be exposed to.

A Horse Drops Dead.—A valuable young horse, belonging to Mr. Thomas Graham, of Cumberland county, died suddenly in the stable attached to the Mottler House in Blackberry alley, about noon, yesterday. The animal had just been fed, and dropped in its stall, immediately after, dead. This is the second or third occurrence of the kind, in this city, within a few months, we were informed. The horse was removed covered up, on a dray, last evening.—State Journal.

The Supreme Court on Local Option. A mistake is made by many who now suppose that the decision of the Supreme Court, on the Local Option Law, of the 14th Ward Philadelphia, (Germantown) will affect the law to be voted upon on 3d Friday of March. By legal advice the central committee of this county now announce plainly that whatever the decision may be, it in no way will affect the General Local Option Law, of the State which the county votes upon, this March. The two are entirely different, the case before the supreme court prescribing penalties, may be decided unconstitutional, but the general law does not prescribe penalties, but throws the transgression on the State act of 1866 for selling without license. No question affecting the March law is before the Supreme Court. This is published by order of Central Committee. B. McINTIRE, Chairman.

For the Bloomfield Times. Local Option Meeting. GRIER'S POINT, March 3, 1873.

Conformably to previous announcement, a number of the citizens of Rye township, assembled in the Salem Church at Grier's Point, to discuss the question of Local Option. The meeting was called to order by Mr. John Dice, and organized by elect-Bonjamin Lackey, Esq., Chairman and Emanuel Keller and Henry Kocher, Vice-Presidents, and J. A. Ensminger, Secretary. The President then stated the object of the meeting, and entertained the audience for some time illustrating incidents showing intemperance a wide-spread evil.

Henry Foulk was then called, who proceeded to demonstrate with certainty, that if the license system be abolished, the amount of money saved, on account of the decrease of criminal cases and the poor to be supported, caused by intemperance, would greatly overbalance the revenue from license. He was followed by others. On motion the meeting adjourned to meet at Salem Church, in Rye township, on Friday evening, March 7th, 1873.

B. LACKEY, Chairman. J. A. ENSMINGER, Secretary.

For the Bloomfield Times. Local Option Meeting in Rye Township. MARYSVILLE, Feb. 28, 1873.

According to previous announcement the citizens in the vicinity of School House No. 4 assembled on Saturday evening Feb. 23d, 1873. The meeting was called to order by Mr. J. B. Flickinger, and organized by electing Mr. Henry Ramer, President, and Messrs Emanuel Reisinger and C. S. Wise, V. President, and J. A. Ensminger, Sec. The meeting was then opened by singing a piece entitled "The Temperance Army," and by prayer by Mr. H. Foulk. Mr. S. S. Lesh of Marysville, was then called who addressed the audience in a very impressive manner, and in a clear and convincing way answered questions presented by some of the friends of whisky who were present, and who had the face to dance to the music, which made the meeting one of an amusing kind and gave the speakers ample ground to base their remarks. Mr. I. Dick of Rye twp., was next called followed by Mr. Wm. Adams and others. The meeting was well attended and good order prevailed while the gentlemen were speaking. A vote was then taken which resulted almost unanimously against license. Those who having danced to the music had also the cheek to vote for the drink devil, but their number being doubled would lack two of being two-thirds of a dozen.

On motion to adjourn a piece was sung, entitled "In peace dismiss us." Adjourned to meet at Bethel church, Grier's Point on Saturday evening March 1st. HENRY RAMER, Pres. J. A. ENSMINGER, Sec.

Cumberland County. The house of Francis Diller, about one mile north of Plainfield, was totally destroyed by fire on Monday afternoon. The fire is supposed to have caught from a stove pipe. Very little was saved. Mr. D. had about $200 in notes in the house, which were burned. Also a lot of gold and silver in the clock, no traces of which have been yet discovered. The outhouses very close to the house were saved. Insured for about $800.—Carlisle Herald.

A few weeks ago Lyman Lewis, Esq., of New Cumberland, accidentally ran a copper wire into the thumb of his right hand. The wound gave him but little annoyance at first, but after a few days the hand and arm became much swollen and very painful, and although many remedies were applied, nothing gave relief. On Monday last it was the opinion of Mr. Lewis' physician, that amputation had taken place in the hand and that amputation would be necessary to save the life of the sufferer, since that time we have not heard from him.—Independent and Journal.

Brief Items.

An act has passed the Legislature authorizing and requiring the county commissioners of the county of Perry to make an appropriation out of the county treasury for the erection of a bridge over Buffalo creek, in Saville township, in said county, and providing for the erection of the same.

A little son of Mr. Christian Cramer, of Bedford, was drowned in the Juniata at Mullen's ford. The father and son were crossing the river, when the sled struck a stone and was overturned, throwing both into the water. Mr. Cramer, made every effort to save his boy, but being unable to swim, he could not do so. The boy was recovered soon after the accident occurred.

There are three young men now in town who part their hair in the middle. The girls ought to put a stop to this encroachment on their rights.

Ex-Sheriff John T. Miller, died at Duncannon on Friday morning. Sheriff Miller was a man well and favorably known throughout the county, and his death will be regretted by a large circle of friends. The funeral took place on Sunday, and was very largely attended by the different societies of which the deceased was a member.

In contributing enigmas, be careful about spelling. One received last week was spoiled by a mistake in spelling Nebraska. We suggest that the lad try again, on a geographical enigma.

The Continental Life of New York. The Lewistown Sentinel, says:—The Agent of this live Life Insurance Company, on Monday, paid Mrs. Ann Weber, widow of the late Wm. H. Weber, $1023, the proceeds of a policy taken in that company on the life of the deceased, the $23 representing an extra dividend declared last year.

The CONTINENTAL is but seven years "of age," and yet so great is the confidence in its management and responsibility, that no less than 12,010 new policies were issued in 1872, covering $22,715,925 of new insurance. This is unprecedented, and when we state that $5,569,278 are set aside as a re-insurance fund, and that a surplus of $340,223.85 is a surplus fund over all liabilities, including capital, the reader will appreciate the ample security this organization affords to those wishing to make provision for families and friends beyond the accidents and misadventures of life.
