LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Notices of Marriages and Deaths not exceeding four lines, will be inserted free, and friends throughout the county are requested to send such notices in.

Lost.—Between this borough and Newport, on Thursday a week, a large knit Comfort, Brown, with a dark red border. Any person finding it will oblige by returning it to this office, or to Geo. Snyder of this borough.

Those Corn Planters.—Mr. W. H. Henderson, is now in this county taking orders for the corn planters, manufactured by him in Carlisle. If you have not one already, give him an order for one this spring.

Not very Prompt.—Two letters and three weeks waiting, has failed to bring us a return for the money we sent Mdme. Demore, for patterns. The subscriber at whose request we sent the money wonders if none are served with more promptness.

Again Open.—The hotel on Carlisle street, recently occupied by Amos Robinson, will be opened again on May 1st, by Messrs. Gruver and Grier. Mr. Grier, is now in the city buying furniture &c., for refitting the house and as he owns the property, he will do all in his power to make the hotel a favorite stopping place.

Still Single.—Some person who had no fear of the court of Quarter Sessions, sent us a marriage notice of Mr. H. F. Smith, of Juniata county. He writes us that he is still on the single list, and wishes the foul slanderer contradicted. We therefore give notice, that Mr. Smith, is still in the matrimonial market.

Killed.—On Saturday the Pacific Express coming west, ran over a little child a short distance this side of Mount Joy, literally cutting her to pieces. The child sat on the rail, and was not seen by the engineer in time to stop the train, though every exertion was made for that purpose. A passenger who was present, says the agonizing screams of the mother, as she witnessed the awful sight, were terrible.

Call and see the splendid line of samples of cassimere from the stock of Wanamaker & Brown, at F. Mortimer's. From these samples you can select goods for a suit and have them made to order from your own measure. A fit is guaranteed, the prices are low, and their style of making can't be beat. It won't cost you a cent to look at the samples and hear prices.

A Good Speculation.—Jerome Briner, well known in this county, and who recently died, had a life insurance policy for $5,000. It seems, a few years ago he got tired of paying the annual premium, and sold the policy to F. J. Ingram, of Yengertown, for a sum about equal to what the policy had cost up to that date. Mr. Ingram kept the policy alive, and at the time of Briner's death his total outlay had not yet reached $1,000. Consequently, he cleared about $4,000 by the purchase.

Singular Accident.—On Monday evening while Mr. Charles Hill, residing in this place, was eating his supper, an unusual accident befell him. He was eating prunes and when just in the act of swallowing, some one present made a remark that caused him to laugh, and through this means the seed of the prune lodged in his windpipe. On Tuesday, in company with Dr. Jos. Swartz, he went to Harrisburg to have it removed, but after a consultation with his physicians, it was thought best to let it remain for awhile, trusting that coughing may bring it up. If not, a surgical operation will be necessary, and the neck will have to be cut open in order to extract the seed.—Duncannon Record.

A Clever Escape.—A patient for the Inane asylum, named J. L. Jones, a wealthy gentleman from Philadelphia, it is alleged who has been laboring under mental aberrations for many years, was brought to Harrisburg, on Monday evening, for the asylum, and placed over night in one of the rooms of the Lochiel Hotel. Sometime during the night, he managed to escape down over the portico, next Mr. Bergner's building adjoining the hotel, and made himself "scarce." Jones sat fire to his own property, in Philadelphia, and was arrested and tried for the offence, but the court, finding him to be insane, ordered his confinement in the State Lunatic hospital. After two days search, he was found near York, while taking a bath in the river, and was safely lodged in the asylum.

Sabbath School Association.—The regular spring session of the Sabbath School Association, of Perry co., Pa., will be held at Millerstown, Tuesday, May 13th, at 2 P. M. The Sabbath schools of the county are requested to elect, each four delegates at once and forward names directly to Ezra P. Titzel, of Millerstown, if desiring entertainment during convention. Any speakers from a distance or other arrangements, respecting the convention will be announced in due time by the President. Reports of Sabbath School should be sent to Jacob Eshelman, of Millerstown. By order of President.

Bloomfield Photograph Gallery Still Open.—Burkholder & Wright's Pictures can't be beat. Mr. Burkholder will remain with R. H. Wright until after May Court. Pictures taken all sizes from carte de visite to life size. Now is the time to secure good pictures; cloudy days best for taking negatives, except small children which should be brought in on clear weather, do not wait until court week those who can come sooner, as we will be crowded on that week.

"Oh! what pretty paper," is what all say who look over the spring styles of Wall paper now for sale by F. MORTIMER. Wall Paper Border, Picture nails, cord &c., in great variety.

Another Swindle.—Some weeks—perhaps months—ago, a couple of patent right agents, circulating through the remote parts of Huntingdon county and picking up here and there a greenhorn, came to the conclusion to go into partnership for the purpose of making a ten strike in their swindling operations. As to their success let the sequel tell:

A Huntingdon county farmer, named Livingston, had been several times importuned to purchase the right to sell a patent wind-mill in this State. The agent gave a glowing account of the wonderful superiority of this wind-mill over all others that had ever been invented, and guaranteed a speedy fortune to the purchaser of the State right. Mr. Livingston was disposed to listen favorably, and finally agreed to go to Lewistown where the agent had the wind-mill and take a look at the "critter" anyhow.

While in the hotel examining the patent and listening to an exposition of its virtues, a well dressed gentleman entered the room, glanced at the wind-mill, walked up and inquired for the owner of the patent. The agent made himself known. Then the finely dressed gentleman wanted to purchase the State right. It was just the thing he had been looking for. What could he have it for? "Very sorry sir," replied the proprietor of the wonderful patent right, "but I have just about sold the State to this gentleman," indicating Mr. Livingston. Then the nice gentleman called Mr. L. to one side and asked what he was to pay for the State. "Eight thousand dollars." "Well, sir, buy it, and I will give you twelve thousand for certain counties," naming them. The farmer bit. He thought it would be an exceedingly sharp business stroke to get a wind-mill patent right for nothing, and to have four thousand dollars for his trouble. The bargain was concluded. Some cash was paid and notes given for the balance.

Only a few days elapsed until Livingston discovered that he had been outrageously swindled, and steps were taken toward apprehending the swindler. The latter had departed as soon as his fish was fairly caught. On the way he purchased six horses, a buggy, harness and saddle, paying for them with the notes given by his victim. When he reached this borough, some intimation that the officers of the law were on his track reached him and he departed, leaving his recent purchases in the stable of the American House. This property was attached, and on Saturday last in pursuance of an order of court, was disposed of by public sale. Col. John S. Miller, of Huntingdon, purchased the buggy, harness and three horses. Albert Wilson, Jerome Rooney and Wm. Kellarman each purchased one.

Mr. Livingston will lose at least $5,000 by this transaction, and after this costly lesson will doubtless steer clear of patent rights. It should be understood, once for all, that out of every ten traveling vendors of patent rights, nine are arrant swindlers, and the safest plan is to have nothing whatever to do with any of the tribe.—Hollidaysburg Standard.

Juniata County.—From the Millintown papers of last week, we copy the following: The smoke house on the premises of Mr. John Tyson, residing at the first lock above town, was destroyed by fire, one night last week. Mr. Tyson had all his meat burned.

On Monday evening of this week, D. P. Sulouff of this borough, was thrown out of a buggy occasioned by the horse running off, breaking both bones of the right ankle. The buggy is completely demolished. The accident occurred on the main road a short distance beyond the residence of Mr. Schweir.

Wm. R. Lewis, of Hornington, while laying on the ground, on last Thursday, had occasion to turn over, and in doing so, dislocated his leg at the knee. Surgical aid was summoned and the dislocation reduced.

On Monday night the family of Mr. James Parfet, at the foot of the Narrows, in Fermanagh township, retired to bed as usual. Some time during the night Mrs. P. finding her husband moaning in his sleep awoke him, at the same time calling her girl—Miss Fox. He got up and in attempting to walk across the floor staggered and fell. Mrs. P. threw open the windows, and he soon revived. Both he and Miss Fox were pretty badly poisoned by the gas, and felt the effects of it for twenty-four hours. Mrs. P. was not affected.

On Friday last Mrs. George Parfet, residing at the foot of the Narrows, in Fermanagh township, bought a piece of cheese. She and two of her children, Miss Fox, and Edmund Strayer's child, ate pretty freely of it, and in about three hours they were all taken sick,—vomiting freely. A great part of the cheese remaining undigested, they were thus relieved, and in a few hours recovered from what, otherwise, might have been a very serious poisoning. Mrs. P.'s nursing babe, was also affected. The cheese came from the Company Store at Lewistown.

THE PUREST AND SWEETEST COD-LIVER OIL is Hazard & Caswell's made on the sea shore, from fresh, selected livers, by CASWELL, HAZARD & CO., New York. It is absolutely pure and sweet. Patients who have once taken it prefer it to all others. Physicians have decided it superior to any of the other oils in market.

Cumberland County.—From the Cumberland County papers of last week, we copy the following:

On Monday evening last, at a meeting of the Council of the English Lutheran church at the residence of Mr. Henry S. Ritter, a pleasant evening affair took place. Mr. Chas. Fleager, for forty years a member of the Council of this church, intending to go West, withdrew at his own request.—From his long connection with the Council, his fellow-members had learned to regard him as the Father of the body, and he was always applied to for advice. The members, through C. P. Humrich, Esq., presented Mr. Fleager with a handsome silver-headed ebony cane, with a few appropriate remarks.

A man named Young said to be a brother of the individual in prison last week, in Carlisle, was arrested for detaining a horse and vehicle, the property of a livery stable proprietor, in Sunbury, longer than had been agreed upon.

Mrs. Wm. Donnelly, of Middlesex, died suddenly recently from eating persimmons and afterwards drinking several draughts of water while on the mountain the day previous. It produced diarrhoea and cholera morbus.

The bill incorporating Mt. Holly Springs passed both houses of the Legislature and only awaits the signature of the Governor to become a law.

Last week some scoundrel took as mean a way to wreak his spite upon Mr. Joseph Baker, residing near Craighead's station, as it has ever been our lot to chronicle. For some imaginary injury the miscreant poisoned a horse in Mr. B's stable, the horse belonging to a third party, and afterwards cut the throat of Mr. Baker's horse.

On Monday, in the court of Quarter Sessions, on the application of Mr. George Z. Bentz, of the East Ward of Carlisle, the court refused to grant a license for his hotel, and Judge Junkin filed an opinion setting forth the fact of the election on Local Option having been held, and that no certificate had been made out by the Return Judges or any one authorized to do so showing the aggregate vote on the License question. Also, that the Court have taken up the separate returns from the different election districts and aggregated the vote themselves, and although some irregularities were discovered in the returns, yet by casting out such returns the result in the county would not be changed. License was accordingly refused to Mr. Bentz and all the other applications were filed over until the 10th of June next.

We learn that the Bentz case will be taken to the Supreme Court at the May term. So that a final determination of it will be reached before the 10th of June.—Volunteer.

A special term of Court to decide the run question is announced for Cumberland county in June, by which time it is expected the Supreme Court will render a decision on the appeal of Mr. G. W. Bentz.

Brief Items.

A young man named D. Etter, was lodged in jail in this borough, on Saturday last, charged with attempting a gross outrage on Miss Sheats, at Newport.

We have received the first numbers of the Altoona morning Tribune. The paper looks well, as those who know the proprietors, Messrs. McCrum & Dern, would expect it to. May success attend the enterprise.

On Sunday morning of last week a valuable horse, belonging to Mr. Crum, of Penn township, was found dead in the stable. Mr. Crum farms for Mr. Henry Boyer. On examination it was found that lightning had struck the barn during the night and caused his death. A hen setting beneath his trough was not affected in the least.

All persons are requested to attend the auction at C. Roth's old Store stand, to be held on next Saturday at 1 o'clock, p. m.

A physician living in Kansas was badly hurt the other day by the caving in of a well upon him. He should have attended to the sick and let the well alone.

A little boy named Peter Hern, residing in Manchaug, Mass., while playing with some fibbers one day last week, accidentally got one into his mouth. The nut stuck in his throat and caused his death in a short time.

In Millintown, the other day, Lemuel Kennedy, a freight engineer, was fined $25 at the instance of Daniel Coffman, a stage-driver, for obstructing a crossing.

A horse driven by Mr. Jacob Whitmyer, ran off on Sunday a week, near Duncannon throwing out the driver and a lady. No damage of consequence was caused to the occupants, but the vehicle was badly damaged.

By the breaking of an oil lamp at Blairsville a few nights since Mrs. Huff, the wife of a railroad employe, was burned so terribly that death resulted in about three hours.

A Carlisle mare has been sold in Baltimore for $1,200. She belonged to the sheriff of Cumberland county.

Mr. W. W. Sharon, has been appointed Postmaster, at McAllisterville, Juniata county.

A bill has been recently introduced into the Massachusetts legislature providing that hereafter eggs shall be sold by weight and that two ounces shall be the standard. We trust the hens will now govern themselves accordingly. It is a law however, that might properly be put in force every where, for there is no reason why a small egg should bring as much as a large one.

Church Notices.

Preaching in the M. E. Church on Sunday evening next. Prayer meeting on Thursday evening.

THE PUREST AND SWEETEST COD-LIVER OIL is Hazard & Caswell's made on the sea shore, from fresh, selected livers, by CASWELL, HAZARD & CO., New York. It is absolutely pure and sweet.
