To Boll Potatoes
In Ireland potatees are boiled to perfectTon ; the humblest peasant places his pota toos on his table better cooked than half the cooks in this country by trying their best. Potatoes should always be boiled in their "jackets ;" peeling a potato before boiling is offering a premium for waand mupalatable ; they slould be thorongh iy washed and put into cold water. In Ireland they always nick a piece of the akin of before they place them in the pot Howed to boil. cold water thold be bere d as soon'as the water commences boil gg, and it nhould thus be checked unt the potatoes are done ; the skins will not theoroughly done cracked until the potato ompletely ldins bo thoroughly dry before peeling.
