The Bloomfield Cimes.

NEW BLOOMFIELD, PENN'A. Tuesday, July 8, 1873.

FRANK WALWORTH on trial for murdering his father, has been found guilty of murder in the second degree.

JESSE GRANT, the father of the President died at Covington, Ky., on the 29th

SEVERAL cases of cholera have occurred in St. Louis, and many of the western cities have had more or less cases of the

THE Supreme Court has decided that George O. Evans was a "public officer" when he collected the Pennsylvania war claims and has ordered that his case be retried, reversing the judgment of the Dauphin county court of common pleas.

THE State of New Hampshire evidently does not approve of circuses, as a bill has been introduced into the legislature making it unlawful for any circus to come into that commonwealth and fixing the penalty for so doing at $1,000.

Scandals in Washington.

Considerable scandal has been created in east Washington in consequence of the elopement of one General Shriver, of military fame, with a well known widow employed in the treasury department. Shriver leaves a wife and two grown-up daughters behind in the same street. And nearly at the same time occurred another elopement which greatly increased the scandal and excitement. It seems a handsome coachman had succeeded in winning the affections of a beautiful young girl belonging to the "upper tendom," seduced her, then married her, and after living with her three days, left for parts unknown. taking with him various articles of value borrowed from friends.

Bergner vs. Thompson.

The Supreme court has revised the judgment of the court of this county in the case of George Bergner vs. W. G. Thompson, which originated as follows: Mr. Bergner held two judgments amounting to $7,000 against Mr. Thompson and issued an execution, seizing the furniture of the State Capital hotel. Meanwhile Mr. Thompson entered into negotiations with the Pennsylvania railroad company for the sale of the City hotel, which he then owned, for $20,000. The deed was made out in the name of the company and the property transferred to the purchaser. Mr. Bergner avers that about the same time Kirk Haines approached him as the authorized lowed by removal. So that the outrage on agent of Mr. Thompson and offered to sell | morals, must not only be endured, but the the hotel for $13,000 and 'burn the books.' | terrorism of power superadds silence as a The proposition was accepted with the understanding that the property should be deeded to the Pennsylvania railroad company. In accordance with the arrangements the company paid Mr. Bergner his judgment, of $7,000. Mr. Thompson alleges that he had paid Bergner $2,500 on the judgment, and to recover the difference he brought suit against him in the Dauphin county court of common pleas. A verdict was rendered in plaintiff's favor for over $1,600. The defendant carried the case to the supreme court, and that tribunal has reversed the judgment of the court below .- Harrisburg Patriot.

Laws Relating to Newspaper Subscriptions and Arrearages.

In response to a request, we give the law as it stands relating to newspapers and sub-

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the centrary, are considered wishing to continue their subscription.
2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their periodicals, the publishers may continue to send them until all arrearages are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to o. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the office to which they are directed, they are held re-sponsible until they have settled their bills, and ordered them discontinued.

A. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publishers, and the papers are sent to the former direction, they are beld responsible.

5. The Courts have decided that "refusing to take periodicals from the office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prime facts evidence of intentional fraud."

6. Any person who receives a newspaper.

6. Any person who receives a newspape and makes use of it, whether he has order ed it or not, is held in law to be a subscri od it or not, is held in law to be a subscri-ber.

7. If subscribers pay in advance, they are bound to give notice to the publisher, at the end of their time, if they do not wish to continue taking it; otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it on, and the subscribers will be responsible until an express notice, with payment of all arrears, is sent to the publisher.

THE CURRENCY QUESTION.

No paper in the United States has done more to arouse public sentiment upon the currency question than the New York Mercantile Journal. Recognized by the Merchants of the country, as the best Mercantile paper published, its opinions have not only a large circulation, but great weight in the community.

One of the most important principles laid down by that Journal, and to which we have previously called attention, is the proposition as set forth in the following:

"We hold that in the interchangeability (at the option of the holder) of National Paper Money with Government Bonds bearing a fixed rate of interest, there is a subtle principle that will regulate the movements of Finance and Commerce as a movements of Finance and Commerce as a accurately as the motion of the Steam Engine is regulated by its "Governor."—Such Paper Money Tokens would be much nearer perfect measures of value than Gold and Silver ever have been or ever can be.'

There is no doubt but what the present circulating medium is the best that the Nation has ever had, but we do not think the country has yet been educated to recognize paper as a substitute for gold, as a basis for a National Currency.

Mr. Wallace P. Groom, the President of the Journal publishing company has taken great interest not only in the question of Finance, but has given much thought to the subject of political economy and has offered a premium of $2000, for the best short work on that subject.

We have received from Mr. Groom a placard containing his views on these subjects, and an interesting calculation showing the increase of capital under different rates of interest which we have had posted up in the Post Office in this place, and to which we invite attention.

A Serious Charge.

Many excellent ladies whom misfortune has overtaken, accomplished, capable and worthy to appear in any circle, are earning their bread by what may be called hard labor in the departments.

But an element has been brought in among these worthy women which is an outrage upon them, a disgrace to the public service, and a glaring scandal seen of all men. It is notorious that Senators. Representatives and officials have imposed upon the departments loose characters, who are utterly unfit for such employment, and unworthy to mingle with the ladies who are contaminated and insulted by their presence. There is no use of mincing phrases about a palpable fact, or attempting to extenuate it under the cover of mistakes accidentally made. Members of Congress have pensioned their mistresses by scores on the treasury, and the same thing is true of many of the more important officers of the departments through whose agency appointments are made.

Notorious women occupy places of trust in many of the offices, the heads of which aspire to moral position, and figure as churchmen. While widows and orphans who have just claims upon the gratitude of the country are rudely turned away without succor or sympathy, profitable places are given to prostitutes, who revel in luxury throng the avenues, and flaunt their finery at the public expense.

No attempt has been made to eradicate this evil. It is, on the contrary, protected and palliated. Remonstrance has been folnecessity. If this be not infamy in its worst form, that word has lost all meaning. And yet it is strictly true, and known to be true by the President, his Cabinet, his Bureau chiefs, and Congress, to say nothing of the community which is a disgusted witness of these indecencies .- Land & Law Advisor.

Fearful Tornado in Kansas

Parsons, Kansas, July 2 .- The Parsons Sun (extra) contains the following particulars of another fearful tornado in Neosho county. It struck Galesburg, a station on the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railroad. eleven miles from here, about 9:30 P. M., yesterday. The storm was a fearful one. The heavens were one sheet of flame, accompanied by a terrible burst of wind and rain. The tornado came from the southwest, and first struck the stone house of Mr. Geddings, half a mile south of Galesburg, blowing it down, and burying Mrs. Geddings and three children in the ruins. The children were instantly killed, and Mrs. Geddings was seriously injured. The gale next struck Mr. Roder's house, which was blown down. He was seriously, and his wife fatally injured. Two other houses were blown from their foundations. The tornado moved in a narrow belt and swept everything in its track, houses, fences and crops as clean as a mower's scythe. At Parsons three houses were struck by lightning, but no serious damage was done. The rain came down in torrents, and much damage was done to wheat and corn crops

AND now Connecticut has spoken against the back pay steal, as we see that the House has passed a resolution declaring that the increase of pay of Congressme was unnecessary, and requesting Senators and Representatives to labor for the repeal of the law. The retroactive salary provision is especially condemned, and Benstors and Representatives from this State are commended for opposing the measure.

FOREIGN.

Violent Earthquake.

Florence, June 30 .- The violence of the earthquake yesterday morning was concentrated in the country north of Venice, where its effects were terrible both in the loss of life and the ruin of property. At Bellumo four persons were killed and many injured, at Plere d' Alpago several were injured, at Torres two were killed. at Carago four, at Puos eleven, at Vissone two and at Cuvessago one, Several churches are in ruins, many were badly shattered, and hundreds of houses have been levelled with the ground. The inhabitants have not yet recovered from their terror and thousands are encamped in the fields, but there has been no recurrence of the shock.

Florence, July 3 .- A dispatch from Belluno, fifty-one miles north of Venice, says that the shock of an erthquake was felt in that place this morning.

A volcano near Farra, a town ten miles from Belluno, which has been quiet for some time, commenced an eruption, and the water of a lake in the vicinity boiled.

Madrid, June 30 .- A dispatch from the commander of the government troops at Seville announces that he has been compelled to withdraw his forces from that city in order to prevent a conflict between the soldiers and citizens.

Such Nonsense.

A young lady in Pittsburgh named Agnes Schmidt lately abjured the Jewish faith and was admitted into the Catholic church. In giving an account of the ceremonies gone through with, a local paper winds up as fol-

"She was baptized in her adopted faith by Father Reardon, a young priest. The ceremony was very impressive. After the usual questions as to why she came to the church, as to her faith and belief, the priest breathed on her to exorcise the evil spirit in her, after which the sign of the cross was made on her forehead, eyes, ears, mouth, heart, and between the shoulders. She was then anointed, and the ceremonies concluded."

Accident at the Hoosac Tunnel.

An accident occurred in the tunnel at midnight on Sunday, by which four men lost their lives and two were seriously, if not fatally, injured. When about four thousand feet from the eastern portal of the tunnel, a box of giant powder and exploders which the regular morning gang was carrying into the tunnel on a box car, immediately behind a locomotive, caught fire and exploded with terrific effect, shattering the car and instantly killing four men and wounding two others quite seriously.

Wife Murder in Syracuse.

Syracuse, N. Y., July 3 .- Last night DeWitt Comstock, aged 36 years killed his wife, Eliza, aged 42 years, by breaking in her skull with a cobble stone. He was jealous and drunk, and going home at midnight quarreled with his wife, resulting in her murder. Comstock gave himself up.

Disasters.

Henry Ward Beecher said not long go in a sermon : " Where knowledge is a virtue, ignorance is a crime." Every government is bound to promote education to enforce education upon every child that comes into the world. "You ought to put your ballot-box behind your school house, and every child that votes should go through the school house to vote. ought to be made obligatory upon a man to be intelligent." If this is made thoroughly practical the day when politicians can blindly lead the people will be a thing of the past.
