Swallowed a Needle .- A little girl, daughter of Mr. Peter Stouffer, of this borough, swallowed a needle which she was holding in her mouth, on Saturday evening. It lodged in her throat, but the physician being unable to reach it to remove it, he pushed it down from where it will pass off, without doing the child any injury.

Duncan's Island Bridge. - The recent bridge letting across the Juniata, appears to have stirred up the bile of some parties. There do seem to be some things that need some explanation, but we suppose the officials interested can easily show that everything was regular. The people have a right to know why a larger sum is paid, if a responsible party offered to perform the work for less money.

Died in the Cars .- A gentleman named J. B. Penfield, died on Tuesday morning in one of the palace cars attached to the fast line going east, just as the train was entering Harrisburg. He had returned to his berth, after a temporary absence when he was taken with spasms. On the arrival at Harrisburg, an inquest was held, and a verdict of died from apoplexy was rendered. The deceased was a resident of Oswego, N. Y. and with his family, was on his way home from a visit to California.

Suffocated .- On Thursday night a man named Perry Hipple, was found dead in the fillers room at the Newport Furnace. From the position in which the body was found, it is supposed he was overcome by the gas, and fell with his neck across a bench which strangled him, and caused his death. An inquest was held by 'Squire Zinu, and the jury rendered the stereotype form of verdict, viz. "The deceased came to his death from a cause to the jury unknown." The deceased was from Marietta, to which place the body was removed.

Fatally Burned .- Between 4 and 5 o'clock on Saturday afternoon an accident happened to a child of Frank Rohm's, in Centre twp., which proved fatal. The mother had gone out for water leaving a little girl aged about 4 years in the room alone. On her return from the spring, she found that the clothes of the child had taken fire, and before the flames could be extinguished the flesh on her arms and stomach was burned to a crisp. Aid was at once sent for, but in about three quarters of an hour and before medical help could be obtained, death came to the relief of the little sufferer.

Attempt to Kill .- Last Saturday evening week, an irishman by the name of Mc-Quean went to his brother-in-law's house, in Lykens with the avowed purpose of killing him. His sister seeing him coming closed the door, and fastened it, but as he tried to break it in, she opened it, and endeavored to get him home. While trying to persuade him to leave, her husband, who was intoxicated, got out. McQuean saw him, and threw a large stone, which struck McNailas on the head, and made him furious, when McNailas stabbed McQuain four times. Quite an excitement prevailed in that part of the town for some time. The police were called, and they soon had Mc-Nailas lodged in the lock-up, from where he was taken to Harrisburg. The injured man is recovering under the treatment of Dr. Myers.

Snyder County Ticket .- The following is the ticket nominated by the Republicans of Snyder county :

Sugars.-Now is the time to buy your Sugars for preserving. Prices are lower than they have been for ten years. Call at F. MORTIERA's, and examine the quality and bear the prices.

Our Mineral Wealth .- A gentleman who was recently prospecting throughout Perry county, for iron ore, gives the result of his search in a lengthy communication to the Harrisburg Telegraph, the following portion of which we copy:

"New Bloomfield is located on a level plat, and is surrounded by as good limestone land as can be found anywhere. As to the inhabitants, we, from our brief acquaintance, are inclined to the belief that few places in our State can boast of so much general intelligence, refinement and sociability as are found in the county and sociability as are found in the county seat of Perry county. During the summer season many health and pleasure seekers are found here, and of late years the number has been increasing.

While here we had a chat with Frank Mortimer, president of the proposed Duncannon, Bloomfield and Loysville railroad (also editor of the Bloomfield Times), whose exercities in its final exemplesion was hope. (also editor of the Bloomfield Times), whose exertion in its final completion we hope may be crowned with success. The route extends through a country groaning with iron ore and other minerals, and Perry county awaits but the completion of this road to enable it to make rapid strides in prosperity excelled by no county in the annuls of our State. Mr. M. informed us that all the rolling stock and ties have been secured, and the only obstacle in the way. secured, and the only obstacle in the way being the getting of the rails, which there would be no difficulty to get were it not that the officers of the road have no authority in the charter given to them to issue bonds for the payment of any debts, an oversight in its getting up, which authority they cannot get save by an act of the Legislature. Were some large corporation, as the Pennsylvania or Reading railroad company, to take the matter in hand immediately and furnish the rails necessary for the company.

its completion, they will eventually get control of a vast amount of mineral that will doubly repay the cost of the road.

Were the road to be extended to Newton Hamilton, a town on the P. R. R., almost an hour's time could be saved to passengers going westward by this route. For proof of this assertion take, a map of our State and trace the P. R. R., from Duncannon to Newton Hamilton—then the new route across the country.

We were to see a body of fossil ore developed within one week on the farm of Mr. Lackey, and found it to be from 2½ to 3 feet in depth, and extending a distance of three miles in length and something near one-fourth of a mile in width. Vast beds of various species of ores have within a few weeks been discovered, which will yield thousands of tons of metal. Every indication of other mineral substances exist in various points on the route of the proposed various points on the route of the proposed D. B. and L. R. R., with an abundance of timber existing everywhere.

We returned from Perry highly delighted, and advise all pleasure and health seekers to visit old Perry, and feel confident that one week's snuffing of its healthy air will be worth to them all it costs. W."

Protection against Moths :- Many of our housekeepers will be glad to know of a remedy for the great loss and trouble caused in our houses every season by the ravages of moths. A German inspector of passenger cars states, that a single stem of hemp, with the leaves and blossoms, mixed with the stuffing of a car seat, will protect it from moths for years, and that hemp for this purpose should be gathered just when in blossom, dried rapidly in the shade, and kept in covered wooden vessels in a dry place. If this preventive will protect car cushions there is no reason why it should not be as effective under carpets and in sofa and lounge cushions.

Is Your Wife Fretful?

This is certainly very wrong of her. No cares, but all that gives her no right to disturb her lord's peace. Let me whisper in your ear. I think I can suggest a scheme that we learn that Mr. Daniel Sensabaugh, a resident of Mifflin township, died suddenly on Monday evening last. After eating his supper he said he was unwell, and a few minutes later was dead. doubt she will plead her thousand and one that will make her ashamed of this irritability. Try upon her the tenderness of the honeymoon. Don't think to make her happy with a dress; but when you come home bring with you a "Singer" sewing machine-show her that she is in all your thoughts. This is the medicine that will cure her. It is specific for many of the worst complaints among our wives.

Glass Jars .- The best styles of Glass Fruit Jars, at low prices can be had of F-MORTIMER.

For the Bloomfield Times. Wants What is Due Him.

Wants What is Due Him.

Mr. Editor.—As the interesting bounty case was decided in New Jersey in favor of the soldiers, why should the Government not pay the $33.33 with interest from the time we were discharged? We claim that the Government has as good right to pay her debts as any body else. We think we waited long enough for our money, and if there are any soldiers willing to give one dollar a piece to get this case tried and see if we can't get our bounty, let us hear from them through the "Times." If there is money enough in the United States Treasury to pay double salary to officers, there should surely be enough to pay an honest debt.

Now if there are any willing to go in to collect this claim let us hear from them. A DOZEN OF US.

For the Bloomfield Times. Absent Minded.

Blain, July 7, 1878.

Mr. Editor.—There is a man near this town so absent minded, that when he goes to town on horse-back, he forgets all about his horse and walks home without him, and only remembers of having ridden to town when he reaches home and prepares to retire. He is cutting wheat now, and he sometimes forgets that the reaper runs by horse power, and when he goes out to cut wheat in the morning and wants to start he finds there is "no go" in it because he has forgotten his horses. He is wishing the reaper would run by steam, so that it would require no horses. That follow ought not to have a horse.

Jackson Cornerponders. BLAIN, July 7, 1878.

JACKSON CORRESPONDENT.

The Highest Bidder Wins !

The Legislature passed an act making an appropriation of eighteen thousand dollars, for the erection of a bridge across the mouth of the Juniata River, to be borne jointly by Dauphin and Perry county. Now that the Bridge has been let for the full amount of the appropriation, we as a tax payer, desire to know the manner, and the means of said letting. Duncan's Island was the place advertised at which the letting was to take place, but the Commissioners, and their retinue, clerks, &c. missioners, and their retinue, clerks, &c. hied them away to Harrisburg, as they said for the purpose of searching for a person who made a bid, but was not on the who received the consideration?

That there were other responsible bidders is not doubted for a moment. Bidders too within a few dollars of $18,000. To-bias Bichel's bid was for $17,000. J. R. Dunbar & Co., $17,285,00. The Iron Bridge Co.$17,400.00. H. Heikel, $17,700. All these bids were made by responsible parties. One of the flimsy pretexts as given by the parties connected with this questionable transaction is that Christian Heikel, the highest and successful bidder agreed to exonerate the Commissioners from any trouble in regard to the stone. from any trouble in regard to the stone. Forsooth, as if they should have any trou-ble after the bridge was let. For was not $18,000 the maximum amount that could be expended under the appropriation, and then why be troubled with the stone, for the erection of the piers. Mr. Wister re-leased the right of way, and all difficulty was avoided in this direction. There are more facts connected with this transaction but we forbear at present, and would be pleased to have some official connected with the Court House of either county to rise and explain. We understand that the Commissioners of Dauphin county receive $1,200 per annum compensation for their services, and are not allowed anything for incidentals. This is right and proper and should be so in this county. The county's indebtedness being something like forty thousand dollars, we are jealous of, and desire to know how our money is expended. How it comes that bridges are let to the highest bidder, when there are other bidders equally responsible. These little inaccuracies should be explained away if possible by the officials. Of our right to be informed, we hope none of the aforesaid officials will question, and as a right we

We also demand an investigation, and the exposure of any person guilty of irregularities, be they Commissioners, clerks, or anybody else connected with a matter that is of so much importance to the people we would also like to know if there is anything in the law prohibiting a Commissioner from being superintendent of the work after insisting in an eloquent speech, that the highest bidder should have the bridge to build? We also demand an investigation, and July 9, 1873.

Cumberland County .- From the Cumberland County papers of last week, we copy the following :

Mr. Tobias Seitz, of West Pennsborough township, is fattening a steer, which weighs 3,200 pounds. It is his intention to keep the same until sometime during the holidays, and then dispose of him.

Charles Taylor, who was shot through mistake a few weeks since is recovering, and will soon be able to resume work. The ball has not yet been extracted and still remains in the back part of his neck.

A valuable sorrel stallion belonging to Mr. Wm. M. Henderson, broke his leg in some manner on Monday. The horse will undoubtedly have to be shot, as it is the opinion of many persons that he cannot re-

We learn that Mr. Daniel Sensabaugh,

Mr. Mich. Rider, who lives about two miles north east of Dry Run, had a very valuable roan mare killed by lightning on the morning of the 4th. She was found dead in the field at the root of a locust tree, with a piece of the bark of the tree in her mouth. There was a strip of hair shingled off her neck and breast. The lights then forked and passed down her legs. The lightning

Thursday afternoon the mail coach, be-longing to H. C. Ries, which runs between Shippensburg, and Dickinson, narrowly es-caped being converted into a pile of oven wood. Mr. Rice had left his team stand-ing in front of the post office, while he went for the mail pouch, and during his absence the team started at full speed up the street. One of the animals being blind, not knowthe coach against the large post on the side walk in front of Ruby & Co.'s drug store, where the vehicle was brought to a sudden There were two occupants in the both ladies, who were speedily removed, having suffered no injuries, but apparently badly frightened.

Brief Items.

Mr. George Eppley has been appointed postmaster at Marysville, this week.

A conductor named Wm. Gillard, em-ployed on a ballast train, was injured at Perdix station on Monday of last week.

The Republican Delegate elections will be held on Saturday, July 26th and the county Convention will be held on the county Convention Monday following.

A cow belonging to Mrs. Mary M. Cup-ples, of Brown tp., Mifflin co., gave birth to twin calves last week. This cow has had four calves within a year—twins twice.

Nearly one half of all the sewing machines sold fast year in the United States were Singer machines, showing the appreciation the public bave of their merits.

So far we have found among our list of subscribers, two 'ten cent men,' that is two men who refused to pay ten cents postage on their paper for the next six months. Poor fellows!

A very severe rain storm passed over this county at an early hour on Friday morning. Several buildings in the lower end of this county and in Dauphin county were injured by lightning.

Van Amburg's Show on Monday of last week gave unusual satisfaction to those who visited it. The men mere the most quiet and orderly of any set of show men

The benefits of "local option" were plainly to be seen during the visit of the show last week. Though the crowd on the streets was very great, no drunkeness was to be seen, and the town was remark-

The Central Pennsylvania Conference of the "Evangelical Association," at their late session, held in the borough of Lewisburg, located a mission along the Juniata river, at and between the points, Thomp-sontown and Lewistown, and have appoint-ed the Rev. S. W. Seibert, of this place, missionary on said field of labor.

On Monday of last week a young man driving a dark gray horse attached to a a buggy was thrown out just beyond Breneman's blacksmith shop, while trying to pass another vehicle. The young lady with him proved the "best man" of the two, as she stuck to the buggy. It took about half an hour to repair damages and get under way again, and we much fear he did not get a chance to drive past the other vehicle after all.
