FARM AND HOUSEHOLD ITEMS

We invite communications from all persons who are interested in matters properly belonging to this department.

Lands Unimproved and Improved.

BY PROF. J. D. BUTLER.

A lady having two lovers, accepted the one who was poor but smart, rather than the other who was rich but an imbecile.

She is a good model for a farmer. Let him prefer a Nebraska farm, for its capabilities though unimproved, rather than improved but fertile land further East.

Better a fortune in than with a man or farm. The one must grow, the other may dwindle.

So think 5,000 farm hunters, who have bought railroad land of the Burlington and Missouri River Railroad.

Old Shoes.

You probably think that if you look very sharply at an old shoe when you throw it away, you will know it again if it ever comes back to you.

Mr. John Altman, a farmer residing a mile West of Greensburg is the happy possessor of a two-year old bull and a spring chicken which manifest the most remarkable affection for one another.

Hatching from Cold Eggs.

A hen having left her nest for two days and a night, after setting within two or three days of the time of hatching, and the eggs being perfectly cold, out of curiosity I determined to try an experiment.

Late Plowing in of Clover Fields.

A correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette details several experiments which show that when clover sod is turned down in May, after the clover is up some inches, corn planted thereon is far less liable to be troubled by the cut worm, than if the land were plowed the fall before or early in the spring.

Charcoal in the Kitchen.

All kinds of utensils, it is said, can be purified from disagreeable odors, by rinsing them out with charcoal dust wet into a soft paste.
