A Peetty Story.

A Detroit paper tells this pretty little story : A boy about ten years of age, leading a lively little dog, called at the Central Station and asked if that was the place where they shot dogs. Being answered in the affirmative, he said: "Well, please shoot my poor little Dan. He's an awful good dog, and he plays with the baby all day; but father's deaf and mother's sick, and I can't raise money to get a license.' Then turning to the dog, the boy lifted him up tenderly and stroked him, saying. "Poor Dan! how Billie will cry when I tell him you are dead !" Great big tears rolled down the boy's face, and in a little time those around him made up a purse sufficient to save his dog, and a person went with him after a license. The boy's eyes fairly sparkled at his unexpected luck; and speaking to the dog he cried out, "Yon're saved, Dan! Yon're saved; let's go right home to Billy !"

It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.
