The U. B. Mutual Aid Society of Pennsylvania,

Present the following plan for consideration to such persons who wish to become members: The payment of SIX DOLLARS on application, FIVE DOLLARS annually for FOUR YEARS, and thereafter TWO DOLLARS annually during life, with pro-rata mortality assessment at the death of each member, which for the FIRST CLASS is as follows:

Table with columns: Age, Assessment, Age, Assessment, Age, Assessment, Age, Assessment. Rows 15-27.

Will entitle a member to a certificate of ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS, to be paid at his death to his legal heirs or assigns, whenever such death may occur.

A member, or his heirs, may name a successor; but if notice of the death of a member to the Secretary is not accompanied with the name of a successor, then the Society will put in a successor and fill the vacancy, according to the Constitution of the Society.

Should the member die before his four payments of five dollars are made, the remaining unpaid part will be deducted from the one Thousand Dollars due his heirs; his successor will then pay only two dollars annually during his lifetime, and the mortality assessments.

Male and Female from fifteen to sixty-five years of age, of good moral habits, in good health, hale, and sound of mind, irrespective of creed, or race, may become members. For further information, address L. W. CRAUMER, (Sec'y U. B. Mutual Aid Society,) LEBANON, PA.

CATHARINE BAKER, Administratrix. July 22, 1877.—ct

Where he was going.

A celebrated preacher who had been holding a series of revival meetings in a town on the canal, while walking along the towpath one day came across a boatman who was swearing furiously.

"Sir, do you know where you are going?"

The unsuspecting man innocently replied that he was going up the canal on the boat Johnny Sands.

"No sir, you are not," continued the preacher; "you are going to hell faster than a canal boat can convey you."

The boatman looked at him in astonishment for a minute, and then returned the question:

"Sir, do you know where you are going?"

"I expect to go to heaven."

"No sir, you are going into the canal!" And suiting the action to the word, he took the minister in his arms and tossed him into the murky waters, where he would have drowned had not the boatman relented and fished him out.

Quick Witted.

The proverbial quickness of Irish wit is illustrated by an anecdote related by Captain A. Whilst on the Peninsula, during the war, he came across a private belonging to one of the most predatory companies of the Irish brigades, with the lifeless bodies of a goose and hen, tied together by the feet, dangling from his musket.

"Where did you steal those, you rascal?" he demanded. "Faith, I was marching along wid Color Sargeant Maguire, and the goose—bad cess to it!—came out and hissed the American flag."

"But the hen, sir, how about the hen?" "It's the hin, is it? The hin, bless ye, was in bad company, and laying eggs for the rebels."

Once a careless man went to the cellar and stuck the candle in what he supposed was a keg of black sand. He sat near it drinking wine until the candle burned low; nearer and nearer it got to the black sand; nearer and nearer, until the blaze reached the contents of the keg, when suddenly the candle tipped over, and the light went out, and did no harm, for there was nothing, but sand in the keg.

"Doctor, what do you suppose is the matter with my little boy?"

"Why, it is only a corrustrified exegis anti-spasmodically emanating from the germ of the animal refrigerator, producing a prolificsource of irritability in the pericanyancy of the mental profundity."

"Ah, that's what I told Melinda, but she 'lowed it was w-o-r-m-s."

A young man writing home to his mother to select a wife for him expressed himself in the following language.

"Now, mother, I want you for tew pick out a girl for me, for I want one to be my wife. She must hev dark ize, lite hare, purlteeth, rosy cheeks, and a roaming noze; and I think Susan Jane Summers fills the deskripshun."

A young man went into a florist's store on Washington street, to buy a rose-bud for his affianced. Seventy-five cents was the price asked.

"Will it keep?" inquired the young man.

"Oh, yes, a long while."

"Then you may keep it." Exit young man.

It is a very cute thing to pinch somebody on the back of the leg, and accompany the movement with a yelp in imitation of a dog. A lank individual tried the trick on a three hundred pound friend recently, and the corpulent person lost his presence of mind and fell back on his tormentor. The lank individual was prried up from the pavement with a new spade.

In an editorial on the horse disease the "Congregationalist" suggested that it might be well to sit at the feet of a horse and learn humility. "Just so," says the California "News Letter," sit down at the hind feet of a mule, and if he don't humiliate you, pull his tail and tickle the inside of his legs with a stable fork."

A gentleman asked a little girl what it was that made a person feel so when another tickles him.

"I suppose it's a laugh creeping over him," was the reply.

In what case is it absolutely impossible to be slow and sure?—In the case of a watch.
