Age	Assessment	Age	Assessment	Age	Assessment	Age	Assessment
15	60	28	73	41	92	54	1 70
16	61	29	74	42	94	55	1 80
17	62	30	75	43	96	56	1 92
18	63	31	77	44	98	57	2 04
19	64	32	79	45	1 00	58	2 16

26	71	39	89	52	1 50	65	3 00
27	72	40	90	53	1 60

Will entitle a member to a certificate of ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS, to be paid at his death to his legal heirs or assigns, whenever such death may occur.

A member, or his heirs, may name a successor; but if notice of the death of a member to the Secretary is not accompanied with the name of a successor, then the Society will put in a successor and fill the vacancy, according to the Constitution of the Society.

Should the member die before his four payments of five dollars are made, the remaining unpaid part will be deducted from the one Thousand Dollars due his heirs; his successor will then pay only two dollars annually during his lifetime, and the mortality assessments.

Male and Female from fifteen to sixty-five years of age, of good moral habits, in good health, hale, and sound of mind, irrespective of creed, or race, may become members. For further information, address

An Anti-billions Turkey.

Cuff was a gentleman's gentleman down in Virginia, and a darkey of most undoubted honesty and truth; but he would sometimes tell tough stories. He met "Kunel Johnson's nigg," as he called him, the other day, and after cussing and discussing various matters appertaining to their masters, they fell into the following conversation:—

Sam—Well, Cuff, how you was?
Cuff—Oh! I isn't no yrus.
Sam—How is all de folks down at de house?

Cuff—Oh, dey is able to be round, 'cep, de ole man's darter; she had de doctor de other day. He came in, looked at her, an' say she was bilyus, and giv her a box of engine vegetable pills. When de doctor go, she up an' trow de pills out de winder. She wouldn't take no pills—no, sah! Wal, de ole turkey-cock cum, an' greedy cuss, he gobbed down de pills, box an' all, wid de whole dirceshuns in four diff'rent lang-wiges. Next day we had company, an' had go kill dat turkey-cock, yo see. Brought him on de table biled wid oyster sauce; massah flourish his knife, and try to cut him up—couldn't get de knife into him.

"Cuff," says he, "how long did you bile this turkey?"

"Biled him an hour, sab."

"Take him away an' bile him anoder hour."

So I took him and biled him anoder hour.

Sam—Did de company wait?"

Cuff—Of course dey waited. I brought in de turkey agin, an' massa try to cut. But it was no go; massa git mad.

"Take him away an' bile him a week!"

Sam—Did de company wait?"

Cuff—Oh, yes de company waited!—Dey were bound to see de fun out, yer know. Wal, in a week I brought in dat turkey. Massa thought he got him dis time, sure. But he couldn't cut a hole in him—de ole cock couldn't be cut. Massa send for de doctor to had de turkey examined. De doctor come, look at de turkey, look all over him. Says he:—

"It's no use; you can't bile dis turkey, for he has taken a box of dese engine vegetable pills, an' der vant any bile in him!"

A Lady's Mistake.

Rather touching is this: In a neighboring county of New Jersey Mrs. A. entered a house where a funeral was to be held. Walking up to the coffin she looked the deceased steadily, and muttered, "Very much changed!" She seated herself, but soon arose and took a second look, repeating the remark. A third time she looked, and exclaimed, "How changed!"

"Madam," said a by-stander, "this is John West's body; Nancy Green's funeral is next door!"

And she went out from thence unto the neighboring structure.

Out West recently, a girl backed out of her marriage engagement when the minister got to the house. The bridegroom wasn't one of the broken-hearted kind. He turned to the assembled ladies, and said: "If there's ary another gal here that'll occupy this vacant situation, I'm her'n." Up jumped the sister of the lady who had declined to be a bride saying: "Count me in. Proceed, old tex slinger, with the performance. I ain't afraid." And the ceremony was performed to the delight of the groom and company.

A gentleman lately complimented his lady on her improved appearance.

"Your're guilty of flattery," said the lady.

"Not so," replied he; "for you are as plump as a partridge."

"At first, she said, "I thought you guilty of flattery only; but now I find you actually make game of me."

The Governor of Illinois recently pardoned a convict because they said he was dying of consumption. That pardon did more for that young man than would have been done by a dozen bottles of cod-liver oil. In twenty-four hours his lungs were as sound as if they had been made of brass.

A gentleman being asked by an old lady with rather confused ideas as to horses and dogs, if his dog was a hunter, said, "it was half hunter and half setter; that he hunted until he found a bone, and then set down to eat it."

In struggling to make a dull-brained boy understand what conscience is, a teacher finally asked, "What makes you feel uncomfortable after you have done wrong?" "My papa's big leather strap," feelingly replied the boy.

What requires more philosophy than taking things as they come? Parting with them as they go.

A man who wanted to be a minister said he believed he had been called "to labor in the Lord's barn yard."
