We can confidently recommend him to any person wanting the services of a member of the legal fraternity. His office is next door to Mor-

Flendish .- A few nights ago some heartless fiend placed a lot of ties on the railroad track, in the vicinity of the rope ferry, but fortunately they were discovered before a passenger train, which was then due, arrived. The rope would be too good for a fiend of this nature. No punishment is too severe .- News.

Fire in Harrisburg.-On Wednesday forenoon at about 11 o'clock, a fire broke out in the State printing office, on South Third street, which gives employment to two hundred and fifty to three hundred persons, about two-thirds females. Before all the employes could escape by the stairway in the back part of the building the flames had made such headway that many men and women had to leap from the second-story window to the ground. In twenty minutes the whole building was in flames, and at 11:35 the four walls fell to the ground with a terrible crash. Nothing of the contents were saved. The last three days of the Constitutional Convention proceedings, all the extra copies of the whole session's proceedings, one thousand volumes of books belonging to the State Li-brary, to be rebound, with all the valuable machinery, presses, etc., are totally destroyed. Mr. Singerly's loss is over $100,-000, with not one cent of insurance. The building was a fine brick structure, five stories high with a Mansard roof, and was supposed by many to be fire-proof. The office of the State Journal was also in this building. Everything belonging to that paper is lost. The blow, especially to the female portion of the employes, is a terrible one. Coming at this time makes it doubly so. The fire spread to three frame dwellings on Third street, occupied by Messrs. Lentz, Stahl and Kepner, two of Carroll township. which were totally destroyed. The loss on these properties will be at least $6,000, with an insurance of about $3,000. On Blackberry alley, Frederick Swartz's livery stable and Dr. George Dock's stable were totally destroyed; insurance about $1,000. The stables of Henry McCormick and George Bergner were partially destroyed. The Lochiel Hotel was on fire several times The Lochlel Hotel was on fire several times but saved from much injury by great exertion. The falling walls of the State Printing Office struck several brick houses on the opposite side of Third streat, one of which was badly knocked in. Much excitement prevailed, and great fears were entertained for the safety of the girls in the printing office. Wild rumors of cases of sufficiation were affoat, but it is positively asserted that all escaped uninjured. Several men were slightly cut by glass in escaping through the windows.

Take Notice .- I have a number of accounts on my books which must be settled. and to those who know themselves indebted to me, I commend the following :

"To avoid proceedings unpleasant,
I suggest you pay what is due;
If you do you'll oblige me at present,
If you don't, then I'll oblige you."
F. MORTIMER.

Found Hurt .- About dusk on Saturday evening Michael Foltz, of Perry Furnace, was found lying on his wagon, with his head resting on one front wheel, his feet on the other and perfect'y belpless. At the time he was found his team was coming up the ridge. Help was obtained and he was taken to the residence of Abram Pee, where he remained insensible during the night, and from which place he was re moved to his home on Sunday. His pocket was empty when he was found, though when he left home his wife says he had a pocket knife and a pocket book containing over $100. We learn that when he left Newport he was badly intoxicated and was held up by some persons until he got out of town. The question that naturally arises is " who sold the liquor?" or if insensibility was "caused by concussion of the brain," as the doctor thinks probable, who did the injury?

Cumberland County.-From the Cumberland county papers of last week we copy the following:

It is currently reported that the Pennsylvania and Cumberland Valley companies are about building a branch road from the D. & M. road, near William's mill, to the works of the Philadelphia and Reading Iron and Coal Company on the south Mountain, a distance of about five miles. A large force of laborers, it is said, will be put on during the present week. If this branch is built it will run parallel, and close to the Harrisburg & Potomac road for a distance of seven miles.
