Thanksgiving Service.-A union service will be held in the M. E. Church, in Bloomfield, on Thanksgiving day, at 104 A. M. The sermon will be delivered by Rev. J. A. Crawford, of the Reformed

Fires.-On the morning of the 14th inst., the steam saw mill, planing mill, lumber yard and four or five dwelling houses, at Port Trevertor, Snyder county, owned by Wm. Harrold, Esq., were totally destroyed by fire.

On Saturday morning the 15th inst., the stables of Geo. C. Snydey, and Henry Zaring, in Liverpool, were also burned to the ground. The stables were used for the accommodation of the teams of boatmen, and it is supposed that the fire occurred through carelessness.

Serious Accident .- On Saturday morning while an oil train on the P. R. R., was running between Mexico and Thompsontown, the oil in one of the large iron tanks took fire. The portion of the train on fire was at once uncoupled from the rest and left to burn, but in a few moments the tank exploded with terrible force, throwing the oil to quite a distance, and seriously injuring several employes. One of the men injured named Lloyd Kreamer, was so seriously burned that his recovery is doubtful. He was a fireman on a wood train, and was passing the tank at the time of the explosion. The accident delayed travel but a short time.

Murder in Dauphin County .- On Friday a week, a man named Abraham Behm, residing near Middletown, was killed by two stragglers, while shelling corn in his barn. The intention of the chaps was to kill another brother and to rob the premises, but the housekeeper blowed a horn and aroused the neighbors, causing the murderers to leave before accomplishing their intentions. Two negroes have been arrested at Harrisburg, for committing the deed, and have been held for trial at the January term. The preliminary examination showed pretty conclusively that they were the guilty party.

Warning to Gunners.—On Tuesday afternoon, Emanuel and Charles Smith, two young men aged respectively 17 and 20 years, who reside near Dallastown, in York county, were out shooting partridges, when the former was accidentally shot by the latter, and almost instantly killed. A covey of birds flew up, when Charles, the younger brother, in raising his gun to shoot at them, prematurely discharged his piece, and lodged the contents of the load in Emanuel's stomach, causing his almost instant death. This is a most terrible warn ing to the host of gunners in this latitude, many of whom are unlearned in the art of handling guns.

Discharged .- James Duncan and Michael Smeigh, charged with robbing Michael Foltz of about $95, and beating him in the narrows between Newport and New Bloomfield on the evening of the 8th inst., was brought before Judges Junkin and Baker, on Friday, the 21st inst., on a writ of Habeas Corpus issued at the instance of their counsel, Lewis Potter. A number of witnesses were examined, but nothing was elicited tending to show that the defendants were in any way connected with the robbing. The evidence showed pretty clearly that a certain party who started with Mr. Foltz from Newport on his wagon, committed the deed.

Mr. Foltz was badly intoxicated and has no recollection of what occurred. The defendants were discharged, and the county directed to pay the costs. A large number of spectators were present and much interest was manifested.

Serious Fall.—On Monday evening a serious accident happened to Mr. Aaron Dorsey, at Duncannon, which may prove fatal. He was coming up from the depot just after the 7.37 train left, and (when as he supposed) at the crossing, he attempted to cross the railroad, but the night being very dark, he walked too far up and instead of crossing at the proper place was precipitated over the embankment, some fifteen or twenty feet in height. His cries attracted the attention of passers by, and he was picked up and taken to his shop close by, where Dr. Werner made an examination and dressed his wounds. A terrible gash of at least three inches in length was found to have been cut in his head, producing a slight concussion of the brair, the spinal column badly injured, besides a number of other bruises and some internal injuries. At this writing Mr. D. lies in a critical condition, but hopes are entertained of his ultimate recovery, which we trust may be fully realized.—Record.

Man Shot .- On Wednesday afternoon of last week, (the day being wet), several of the carpenters engaged in the erection of John Spotts' new barn, in South Middleton township, a few hundred yards south of our borough line, concluded to stop work' target shooting with a rifle. The men who participated in the amusement took position inside of Bosler's mill and fired through an open door way at a mark placed in a ravine some two hundred feet distant. Several shots had been fired, when Thomas Gibler, the miller at Bosler's mill, concluded to try his hand. Loading the gun and placing a cap on the nipple, he brought the piece to his shoulder and took deliberate aim at the target. At length he pulled the trigger, and at this very instant Henry Fiehl, a carpenter who had been engaged on the barn, and who had been outside the mill, turned the corner and stepped directly in front of the rifle, (his object being to enter the mill.) receiving the bullet in his head just above the ear. He fell, gave two convulsive struggles, and was dead. Of course the firing party was horrified, and Mr. Gible, who held the rifle that sent the ball crashing through Fiehl's head, was paralyzed with anguish.-Carlisle Volun-

Hearse Wrecked .- Yesterday morning at about 10 o'clock, while the funeral procession of an aged woman named McDermott was wending it sorrowful way down Seventeenth street towards the cemetery, the horses attached to the hearse became frightened at a locomotive and ran away. Starting at the bridge, they ran at a break-neck speed the distance of half a square, when the wheels struck the curbstone and the hearse was violently upset and thrown on the pavement. The jar was sufficiently severe to in a measure demolish the coffin, and the corpse was exposed to public gaze. The scene that ensued is said to have been a terrible one. Strong men turned pale, women sobbed aloud, and the harmony of the entire procession, which was a very large one, was seriously disturbed for the time being. The coffin was repaired as speedily as possible, and, borne by the pallbearers, the body of the old lady was conveyed to the "city of the dead" and consigned to its last home .- Altoona Tribune.

Neck Broken .- A most singular and fatal accident occurred on last Wednesday, while a number of men employed in Hefright's quarry, near Warrior Ridge Station, were coming to Huntingdon. A hand-car carrying some ten or twelve men, was attached, by means of a wire, held by Mr. Joseph Shoemaker, of this place, to a cattle train. The wire was fastened around some portion of the rear end of the car and the end thrown over Mr. Shoemaker's arm. Immediately preceeding the accident the handcar was running a little faster than the train and the wire was slack. The engineer put on more steam and the train shot forward. Mr. Shoemaker was unprepared for the sudden start, and was jerked from his position the car, turning a complete somersault upon the track, breaking his neck and otherwise injuring him. He was taken to his residence in West Huntingdon, where he lingered from noon until about half-past four o'clock. He was an excellent citizen, and leaves a beloved wife and numerous friends to mourn his untime ly end .- Huntingdon Journal.

Take Notice.-I have a number of accounts on my books which must be settled, and to those who know themselves indebted to me, I commend the following:

Assault on a School Mistress .- On Wednesday of last week, Miss Matilda Reeder, school teacher in Lower Augusta township, made complaint before Esquire Snyder, against Joseph Conrad for assault and disturbing her school. She alleges that Conand engage in the trial of their skill at rad entered her school armed with a large cart whip, and ordered her to leave the school room and go into the road and pick up a lot of stones which the scholars had thrown there. After threatening to use the cart whip upon her if she failed to obey his orders, she complied for fear of injury. Conrad was bound over in the sum of $500 to appear at court .- Sunbury American.

ART BEPARTMENT, 1874.

The flustration of THE ALDINE have won a worldwide reputation, and in the art centres of Europe it is an admitted fact that its wood cuts are examples of the highest perfection ever attained. The common pretuition in favor of "steel plates," is rapidly yielding to a more educated and discriminating taste which recognizes the advantages of the superior artistic quality with greater facility of production. The wood-cuts of THE ALDINE possess all the delicacy and claberate flushed the most costly steel plate, while they afford a letter reusering of the artist's original.

PREMIUM FOR 1874.

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE for the year 1874 will receive a pair of chromos. The original pictures were painted in oil for the publishers of THE ALDINE, to THE ALDINE, whose great Colorado picture was purchased by Comcress for ten thousand dollars. The subjects were chosents of represent "The East" and "The West." One is a view in The White Mountains, New Hampshire; the other gives The Cliffs of Green River, Wyoming Territory. The difference in the nature of the secures themselves is a pleasing contrast, and affords a good display of the artist's scope and coloring. The chromos are each worked from thirty distinct plates, and are it size [13 x 16) and in appearance exact hoseim-less of the originus. The presentation of a worthy example of America's greatest landscape painter to the subscribers of THE ALDINE was a boild out peculiarly harpy idea, and its ancessful realization is aftested by the following testimental, over the signature of Mr. Moran himself.
