Badly Hurt .- On Tuesday last, Mr. Singleton Sheaffer, met with rather a singular accident. While unloading a load of rails the rail on which he stood rolled, causing him to fall, and in so doing his side struck on the standard of the wagon breaking two of his ribs and driving one of the broken ribs into the lung. Mr. Sheaffer was removed to his home in Centre twp., and his injuries were attended to by Dr. Ard. At last accounts he was getting along as well as could be expected. The accident happened in this borough.

XAlmost Another Fire.-About 8 o'clock on Saturday evening, the smell of burning paper attracted the attention of some of the family of Hon. J. A. Magee, and, on investigation it was found that fire had been set among the paper under the stairs leading to the composing room of the Democrat office. Prompt application of a bucket of water which stood near extinguished the flame in time to prevent another disastrous fire. The hands in the office all say that none of them had been in that place during the evening, so that the only theory left is to call it an incendiary attempt to destroy that printing office, though we would much prefer to think the fire was caused in some accidenttal manner.

Stabbing Affray .-- On Friday night be tween 9 and 10 o'clock, a dispute occurred between Harry Reynolds and Henry Rice, of this borough, which the latter brought to and end by stabbing Reynolds, inflicting three severe wounds. One cut about two inches long, was made down the cheek, cutting through and knocking out one or two double teeth ; another cut was made on the throat, just missing the jugular vein, while another was made near the lower part of the shoulder blade, inflicting a painful wound. The wounded man was taken into Sutch's hotel, and after the injuries were dressed, was removed to the residence of Mr. James Clark, with whom he is learning a trade. At this time he is getting along pretty well, and will probably, if no change for the worse takes place recover, though his face will no doubt be somewhat disfigured. Young Rice was arrested on a warrant issued by Esq., Clouser, and lodged in jail, but was released on Saturday morning, his father going bail in the sum of $300, for his appearance at Court.

Runaways .- On Saturday last while Sheriff Rinesmith was attending a sale in Hunter's Valley, his horses which were hitched behind the barn got loose and ran away across the fields, and over the fences. They shortly got into swampy land when they were caught. The buggy was not so badly injured but what the Sheriff drove in it from there to Millerstown. After leaving there on his way home, he again had bad luck at the place where the new road begins, as in trying to back so as to get on that road, he and his son were thrown out and the horses ran on towards Newport. Fortunately they were not hurt and hastened on after the horses picking up the robes and contents of the wagon on their way. Before reaching Newport, they found the horses standing by the road, with the harness all right except one trace. Mounting the horses they continued their journey to Newport and from thence here.

A Gentle Bride,-The Sharon Herald says :

Our readers will remember that sometime since at a serenade of a newly-married couple in Hubbard, the gentle bride, Mrs. Calista Brisbine, appeared at the door and threw sulphuric acid in the faces of several of the party who were giving the chiraviri, fearfully burning whoever was struck by it, and destroying the eyesight of one or more of the parties. Suits for damages were entered by the injured persons, that of David Benjamin coming up for trial in the Trumbull county court last week and resulting in a verdict for plaintiff for $3,000.

Cattle Thief Caught .-- On Friday last, Mr. Theadore McCahan, caught a man named Rollin Templeton alias Johnson, who stole cattle and sold them to Messrs. McCahan of this place, last summer. He had heard of the thief and traced him to Williamsport, and on Friday, Mr. Theodore McCahan was walking along the streets of that place, and saw a man who he supposed was the thief, and accosted him by the name of Johnson. He said he thought Mr. McCahan was mistaken, but years and 4 months in the Penitentiary, and to pay a fine of $1, and costs.

A few days ago, while Mr. Wm. Kistler was threshing at the barn on Wm. Nelson's estate, the horses were frightened by the belt flying off, and ran around at a great speed for a number of times. One of the horses finally ran against the corner of the barn, and was somewhat skinned by the collision. That was all the damage done however. however.

Two new furnaces have been placed in the Coart House, for the purpose of heat-ing the Court-room. They were put there by Messra, Fridley & Son, of Cariiele, and from appearances will make the room warm, without the disagreeable gas gener-ated by the former heaters.

On Monday afternoon last, the usual quiet of the Camberland county prison was disturbed by the freaks of Samuel Stack-field, colored, an inmate. He attempted his own life, and also slightly cut an oc-cupant of the cell. He was very violent in his demonstrations, but was quieted by the application of a shower bath.

A rumor is in circulation here that Wm. Nesbit, well known in this county, was recently murdered in Philadelphia. The story is that he had sold a drove of horses and had expressed the money all home ex-cept $100, and not making his appearance inquiries as to his where abouts resulted in learning that he had been found in Philadelphia with his throat cut.

BLAIN, Pa. Dec. 20th, 1873.

Mr. Editor .- The German Baptists have Mr. Editor. -- The German Baptists have had a series of meetings in the Union Church, at Manassas, but closed on last Friday evening. On Saturday, the 6th, they baptised three in a branch of the Sherman's creek, and on Friday, the 12th, the baptised three more They had two Sherman's creek, and on Friday, the 12th, they baptised two more. They had two ministers from Maryland, D. P. Sayler and J. D. Trostle. The Methodists have a revival going on in their church, on Church Hill. Several have been converted, and others are still at the bench. There will also be one started in our town in about three weeks, by the Lutheran and German Reformed. BLAIN.

chromos presented to subscribers of The Aldine for 1874 are such beautiful and unusual works of art-faithful copies of actual paintings in oil made by the celebrated artist, Thomas Moran, from studies of nature-that we feel justified in calling jail in this place, on Saturday. Several special attention to them. These chromos represent scenes characteristic of the East and West ; the White Mountains of New Hampshire, and the Cliffs of the Green River in Wyoming Territory. In all the range of grand and beautiful American scenery, it would be difficult to find two more picturesque and charming views, unlike as nature in her varying moods, yet appropriate companion pieces. They are every way worthy of the great art journal of America-" The Aldine." These chromos are so fine they can only be compared with the highest-priced pictures offered in the market.

Persons who would like to see them before ordering can examine the copies. at our office.

Body Snatchers at Corry .- There was a report Saturday night at Corry that a man had been murdered and his body dragged through the alley near the lock-up. The citizens turned out with lanterns, made a search and found where the body had been dragged, and found his pants, hat, etc.-Finally they traced it to a barn on South street, which was found to be fastened on the inside. Some of the citizens broke open the door and found the dead body of a man lying on the floor with an old strap around his neck, the body covered with mud where they had dragged him along .--He was recognized as a man by the name of Pratt A. Shoemaker, who lived at Spring Creek, and died about two week ago. His body was taken to Corry by a doctor to dissect. He had it in his office, and was likely to be found out, so under and was likely to be found out, so under-took to move it, and was caught. Some of them came in the night and loaded the body on a wheelbarrow and took it away.

the matter they went to a Justice of the Peace, when he confessed to the theft, and said he would try to fix it up all right. He was confined in the Williamsport lock-up over night and was then brought to the years ago, Templeton was sent to the western penitentiary, from this county, for larceny .- Hollidaysburg Register.

Sad Case of Poisoning. - Mrs. Sarah Davis, wife of Edward Davis, of McVeytown, died on last Wednesday afternoon a week, from a large dose of arsenic which she took on the Saturday previous during mental depression. She did not make the fact known for some days, and thus rendered medical aid unavailing. Her husband it seems was at times addicted to drinking, causing her much trouble, and some weeks ago she threatened to make way with herself unless he would quit it. No one thought she harbored the actual idea, but she must have brooded over it until at an unfortunate moment she yielded to the temptation. She was a daughter of Thomas Cochran, of Wayne twp., about 23 years of age, and had only been married about a year .- Alloona Tribune.
