Some Hogs.-Mr. Michael Lebkichler, of Liverpool twp., has killed two hogs this fall that are hard to beat. One weighed 566 pounds, and the other 514 pounds.

Removals,-We call attention to the change made by Wright & Siddall, Druggists, formerly of 119 Market street, Philadelphia, they having removed to 106 Market Street.

Our friend Lew. T. Moul, has also chauged his location, and can now be found with Hanson Paul & Imboden, at 41 North 3rd Street. He claims to be able to sell cheaper Boots and Shoes than ever.

Taken Home.-Robert Kelly, Esq., well known to nearly every citizen in this county, died at Harrisburg, where he resided with his daughter, on Monday of last week. Mr. Kelly was one of the first settlers of this town and had held several county offices, in which he filled the duties with a fidelity worthy of emulation. He was a man respected by every one and had led such a life that we can feel well assured that to him, death was but going home. His remains were buried in Har-

To be Remembered .- Subscribers should remember that a publisher sends out hundreds of papers to as many separate in. dividuals widely scattered and has no means of knowing whether the papers are received, or when or where subscribers move except as they notify him. Remem- the duty of church officials to make simiber, too, that at the price papers are fur- lar provision for keeping their door-ways nished, the publisher cannot afford to clear of idlers and loafers? The church spend much time or write many letters to that does not do so ought to lose the supeach subscriber. The law therefore wisely makes a man to whom it is sent responsible until arrearages are paid and the paper stopped. The return of a paper by the P. M. unpaid is not enough.

Married on a Rallway Train .- A Pitts burg paper of Monday last says : "Yesterday an unusual event transpired on the eastern bound passenger train, on the Cleveland and Pittsburg railroad. Among the passengers was the Rev. T. J. Kennedy, a United Presbyterian Minister of Stenbenville. There were also two other persons, who, in the opinion of the conductor, Mr. Jenkins, might be made happy on receiving a few words of consolation from the reverend gentleman. The conductor unwilling to permit an opportunity to do a good turn to slip by unimproved, informed his clerical friend that a lady and gentleman, passengers in the rear car, wished to see him. Mr. Kennedy was escorted back, and on being introduced to the couple, was asked by the gentleman whether he had any objection to marrying them then and there. The minister replied that he had not, provided they were both competent to enter into the sacred relation. Being assured on this point, he requested the couple to stand up, and the ceremony was then and there performed-the train running at a speed of thirty miles an hour between Beaver and Rochester. The groom was Mr. S. J. Helmes, of East Liberty, and the bride Miss Melinda Conner, of Carroll Railroad Netice. - In another column will be found a notice for a meeting of the stock holders of the D. B. & L. R. R. company, for the purpose of electing a President and twelve directors for the ensuing year.

By some means a report has been put in circulation that the adoption of the New Constitution voided our charter. This report is entirely groundless. The only clause from which such an idea could originate is Art. XVI Sec. 1, which is as fol-

All existing charters, or grants of special or exclusive privileges, under which a bona fide organization shall not have taken place and business been commenced in good faith, at the time of the adoption of this Constitution, shall thereafter have no

This company not only had a bona fied organization some months since, but had been earnestly working to secure an amount of subscription which would warrant the commencement of grading-with every prospect of success-when the money panie of last fall put a temporary stop to the work. The present condition of financial affairs will not warrant much hope of anything being done this spring; yet the friends of the enterprise mean to keep the organization in such shape that they can at once make available any favorable turn in affairs. In the mean time the company is under no expense and the money paid in by the stock holders is not only safe but is drawing interest. We hope to see a full attendance of the stock holders at the com-

Loafers at Church Doors,-An exchange truly remarks that some young men act as if churches were a sort of public property, where they can do as they please without regard to the feelings of the congregation assembled, or to the rights and authority of the church officials. It is not au uncommon thing for them to assemble in the yard in front of the church, and smoke and talk loud, and otherwise annoy ladies and gentlemen passing in or out, and when remonstrated with, for them to retreat to the side-walk, and maintain that the church officers have no authority to prevent them from stopping there. Now and then church officers are obliged to appeal to the law in order to enforce a lesson of good order and gentlemanly breeding upon such persons. In that event the offender pays at the rate of $40 per lesson, besides the "incidentals," and a cheaplesson it is for one whose early educated has been so much neglected as to render him ignorant of the fact that gentlemen never lounge around church doors. In ancient times the sexes occupied opposite sides of the church and there was some excuse for waiting at the church door after the service that families and friends might get together, but that custom was changed many years ago, and in respectable society when young gentlemen accompany ladies to church they sit in the same pew with them and they come out together. It is understood, as a rule, that the young men who crowd around the doors of churches and places of amusement have no other business there than to stare at the ladies, and to annoy them by making scurrilous remarks and crowding the path-

The proprietors of all respectable places of amusement in the cities have police arrangements for protecting those who frequent their places. Why should it not be per; of all well-bred people.

Burned to a Crisp .- The Altoona Tribune says :

One of the most melancholy accidents is has ever been our duty to record, occurred in the "Loop" this county, Wednesday morning last. Two members of the Wents family, a brother and sister, have been insane for a number of years, during all of which time they have been confined in a low shanty in close proximity to the residence of the balance of the family, as it was considered dangerous to permit them to run at large. As Dr. Rohrer and R. A. Bonine, Esq., of Hollidaysburg, were returning home from a hunting expedition, they discovered smoke and flame issuing from the roof and window of the shanty in question. The alarm was immediately sounded and the two gentlemen named rushed to the burning building with all possible haste, but it was too late to render any assistance to the unfortunate insane creatures inside, consequently they were burned to a crisp although it is a general supposition that both were smothered to death some time ere the flames reached them. Dr. Robrer, avera that it was the worst sight that over met his view. The origin of the fire is unknown.

A Narrow Pscape .- On Monday last Mr. Christian Forrer, of Carroll twp., met with an accident, and had a fortunate escape from a more serious one. While going down the hill near Mr. Lackey's, he attempted to get on his saddle horse from the wagon tongue, and slipping to the ground, fell in such a manner that his feet came in front of the wheel. His wagon was beavily loaded, but fortunately his horses stopped before the full weight of the wheel had got on to his ankles. As it was he was severely bruised.

A Love Letter.-The following is a copy of a letter picked up in Horse Valley, a few days ago. We leave the name blank, but otherwise the letter is a verbatim copy of the original. The chap evidently had it bad, but we hope is better by this time :

Cumberland County. - From the Cumberland county papers of last week, we copy the following :

The Shippensburg News says that the heaviest weight in the hog line that has reached us this season has been furnished us by Ross Meredith, who resides on Alex. Kyner's farm, and who killed a porker, a few days since, which, when dressed, weighed seven hundred and two pounds.

Brief Items.

In many places the warm weather has caused the buds to swell, and maple and dog wood leaves as large as a silver three cent piece are frequently seen.

The finest New Year's address we have seen this year was received from the Car-lisle Herald. The style in which it is prin-ted reflects much credit on the foreman of Bob Aker, a man whom most of our citizens would rather see pass by, than stop, passed through this place on Monday last. So it seems he has finished his term in the penitentiary.

A certain Mr. Morgan desires us to advertise his lottery. We don't know the gentleman and don't feel inclined to induce our readers to make any permanent invest-ments in Utah.

KIND WORDS.

The Associated Reformed Presbyterian says
—For years Perry Davis' Pain-Killer has been known as a most useful family medicine. For pales and aches we know nothing so good as the Pain-Killer. For many internal diseases it is equally good. We speak from experience, and testify to what we know. No family ought to be without a bottle of Davis' Pain-Killer.

MESSIS. PRINT DAVIS, & SON, Prov., R. I.,— Gents:—Although a stranger to you I am not to your invaluable medicine, Pain-Killer.
I formed its acquaintance in 1874 and I am on most intimate terms with it still; my experience in its use confirms my belief that there is no medicine equal to Pain-Killer for the quick

Throat, Croup, Brt. es and cuts. I have used it in all and found a speedy cure in every case.
Yours Truly, T. J. GARDINER, M. D.

Judging by our own experience whoever once makes a trial of Perry Davis' Pain-Killer, will not fail to recommend it widely as an unequalled liniment, and valuable internal remedy for colds and various other complaints.—Every

The efficacy of Perry Davis world-renowned Pain-Killer in all diseases of the boweis, even in that terrible scourge, the Asiatic cholera, has been amply attested by the most convincing authority. Missionaries in China and India have written home in commendation of this removed in territory. this remedy in terms that should carry conviction to the most skeptical, while its popularity in communities nearer home is ample proof that the virtues claimed for it are and angible. Among family medicines it stands unrivaled.—Boston Courier.

The Saturday Even'y Gasette of Boston says:
It is impossible to find a place on this broad land where Perry Davis' Pain-Killer is not known as a most valuable remedy for physical pain. In the country, miles from the pain. pain. In the country, miles from physician or apothecary, the Pain-Killer is checked as the exclusive panacea, and it never deceives.

"Perry Davis' Pain-Killer is really a val-"Perry Davis' Pain-Killer is really a val-uable medicament, and, unlike most of the ar-ticles of the day; is used by many physicians. It is particularly desirable in locations where physicians are not near; and, by keeping it at hand, families will often save the necessity of sending out at midnight for a doctor.
