Biddy's Device. Young Paddy McShane-sure no lad could be bolder— Coaxed Biddy O'Shea to be sharing his lot; And Pat had a lively young pig on his shoul-

And Pat had a lively young pig on his shoulder, And she on her head bore a big iron pot.
From the town, just at nightfall, as home they were walking, (Through a dark, lonely thicket their winding path lay,) Biddy set down the pot, stopped her laughing and talking,
Paddy turned round and an'd her the cause of delay. "Och," said she, "I'm afraid ye'll be acting uncivil; I'll not go alone through the thicket wid For, Paddy, avick, you're as wild as the divil, You'll be kissing and squazing me, that's what you'll do."

"But the pig," replied Pat, "that I've lugged so securely, If loosed, back to town like the divil he'd trot."

"Och, Paddy," sald she, as she looked up demurely, "Sure, couldn't ye put the pig under the pot ?"

How Shall a Woman Fasten her Stockings ? How shall a woman fasten her stockings so as not to interfere with the circulation of the blood, or spoil the shape of the lelet me see-of the honi soit qui mally pense. After the most careful research, as far as our limited facilities would allow, we arise-from our humble explorations, and humbly tender the following suggestions: Wear them short and let the tops bubble over the shoe in the form of lace, a la beer-mug. If you have 'em long, put mucilage inside and stick 'em to you.

Have them long enough to tie about the waist, and use the top for a panier. Edge the tops with steel, and fasten a loadstone to your corset. Fasten a strip to each stooking, extend and attach, with blue ribbons, to the ear Pin them in some other article of cloth-them gracefully up each side of the body, ing in the immediate vicinity. [Hold still now, we are doing this for your own good:] Fasten them to a nail and go barefooted.

Attach a small balloon to each stock-Make them out of material that will draw up.

If you are thirty-five and unmarried, make a hole near the top of each stocking and butten it to your knee cap. These are all the methods that suggest themselves to us at present, and of the number some one or more may be deemed worthy of adoption. The fellowing anecdote of Senator Allen, now Governor of Ohio, is told by a Western paper : The Senator was addressing a large audience in the native town of our informant,-When about half through his speech, after making some positive assertions, a stento-

"That's a lie, sir !" The Senator paused a moment, and then nsked,-

The answer was given,-

"My name is Vass."

rian voice cried out,-

The Senator responded,-"I move the V be stricken from that man's name. All you in favor of it, say ay." And a hundred voices cried out, "Ay."

"Now," said the Senator "you are voted an ass." A Dutchman in Lehigh county had his second wife arrested on a charge of attempting to 'kill his boy Yacob with a flat-iron 14 years old". He also said-"She makes assault und battery mit me und runs de house oud und hollers murder to make der blame mit me." The woman was fined five dollars which the husband paid with dubious doubts of the satisfaction gained by the operation. Charlie.—"I say, Ma, what relation is Clara to us ?"

my maid, dear! Why do you ask?"

Mrs. Blooblud .- "Clara? Oh, Clara is Charlie .- "Ob, because you said one ought only to kiss one's relations, and brother Tom was kissing her like mad on the stairs just now !" 13" A boy was praising the skill with to stop her." "What was that for?" asked a person standing near. " Because the imitation thunder turned der so naturally that the old woman had all the milk sour." My A man who was told by a clergyman to remember Lot's wife, replied that he had trouble enough with his own, without remembering other men's wives.

to" "Do you understand me now?" thundered a country pedagogue to an urchin, at whose head he throw an inkstant. "I've got an inkling of what you mean," was the reply.
