LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

To You.—If you wish to change the post office address on your paper this Spring, don't forget to state the place where you have been receiving it, as well as the place where you wish to have it sent in future.

Appointed.—On Monday evening last, Mr. James Whitmer, of Liverpool twp., was appointed to fill the vacancy in the board of county Commissioners, caused by the death of Mr. Bretz. The appointment gives general satisfaction. This appointment only holds good until next fall when two Commissioners will have to be elected to serve one year.

Two Courts.—On Wednesday last, two courts were in session at one time, one being held in the court room, by Judge Bucher, and the other in the grand jury room, by Judge Junkin. This was quite a saving to the county, as the jurors must be paid whether panelled or not, and also a saving in witness costs. Judge Bucher was here to try cases in which Judge Junkin had been interested.

Hotel Changes.—A general change takes place in the Hotels in this borough, this spring. The Perry House so long kept by Mr. Sutch, is this year to be under the charge of Messrs. Grier & Gruver. The Eagle Hotel kept for the past year by John Shuman, has been leased to Mr. H. C. Meredith. Mr. Miller will leave the Mansion House, and the new landlord is Mr. Henry Patterson, of Howe township; while the Robinson House will be kept by Mr. Henry Rice, of this borough.

Malicious Mischief.—On Friday morning, when about to commence work, Mr. Bedford, who works in the plow-shop at the foundry, discovered that nearly all his tools were missing. For a time it was supposed they were stolen, but search around the premises revealed the fact that they had been hidden. A portion of them were subsequently found thrown in under the furnace, while some were concealed in a pile of boards, and others were dropped down in a recess, between two adjoin'g buildings, from where they were recovered only by the merest chance. It was a very childish way for any one to vent their spite.

Killed.—On Saturday afternoon the mail train West, when near the furnace below Newport, struck Mr. Abram Evans, killing him instantly. No blame can be attached to the engineer, who sounded his whistle, giving Mr. Evans ample time to get off the track. For some reason he failed to pay any attention to the warning, with the above sad result. The train was stopped, and the body was taken on to Newport station. Mr. Evans was an esteemed citizen of Miller township, and his sudden death caused a severe shock to his many friends.

Found Dead.—The Waynesborough Record (Franklin co.,) says: Mrs. Elizabeth Fahrney, an aged lady, was found dead at the house of her nephew, Mr. Andrew Senger, near this place, on Saturday morning last, where she had been staying for some time past. She was engaged in singing and religious conversation until a late hour in the evening, retiring in health and good spirits. In the morning a member of the family as usual entered the room to make up the fire and found her a corpse at the bedside. She was a daughter of Jacob Holsinger, dec'd, and wife of Dr. Jacob Fahrney, a man of more than ordinary eminence in the profession, who located in this place many years ago, and who is still remembered by many of our citizens.

Who is He?—A correspondent writing from Halifax, Dauphin county says: "On the 13th ult., a certain man of Perry co., called at one of our township schools claiming to be County Superintendent of Perry county. He stated that he had been requested by the county superintendent of the county to visit the schools in this district. He addressed the school as follows: "Scholars, I was very bad when I went to school (we think he has not grown any better); I hope you are not. I used to like the girls very much. I always tried to be by their side. But how different I am now; I cannot even bear to ride in a wagon if there is a girl on it. The latter clause created considerable excitement in the school; the larger girls appeared dispirited, while among the boys there was heard a general laugh of triumph. He then proceeded—telling them he had very sore eyes, which he received while going to school, by looking the teacher right in the eyes. He very kindly cautioned the school not to look their teacher in the eyes, as the same terrible result might follow. He closed by telling them that his monthly salary as county superintendent was only $40, and he was therefore obliged to follow basking in connection with it for a livelihood." Who is the lunatic?

Persons wanting the celebrated "Stellar Oil," an article that not only burns clear and bright, but is perfectly safe, can get it of F. Mortimer.

A Remarkable Accident.—On Saturday afternoon as Wm. N. Seibert, Esq., was driving down Middle Ridge, on his way home from Newport to Bloomfield, one of the pole straps broke, when the sudden strain on the other strap caused the yoke to pull off the pole, and allowing it to drop to the ground. The pole then broke off near to the double-tree, and as there was no way for the horses to hold back the carriage, the only course was to keep them moving, and guide them as well as could be done under the circumstances. In this manner nearly three-quarters of a mile was traveled, until they reached the cross roads, near the church. At this point the driver thought to stop the horses by turning up the hill past Kough's barn. In doing this, however, the wheels cut under the bed of the vehicle so sudden, that it was thrown off the running-gears, and Mr. Seibert dragged out over the dasher by the lines, but not hurt. Mrs. Seibert's mother, who was in the carriage at the time was unhurt, and Mr. John H. Sheibley, who was coming up with them, had succeeded in jumping out safely while coming down the hill. When we consider the crooks and turns in the road, and the distance traveled without a pole to guide the vehicle, the escape of the party from injury is certainly very remarkable. The carriage which belonged to Judge Junkin, is a complete wreck, but the horses were not hurt, and stopped as soon as free from the carriage.

A ladies' lace dress cap and summer hat, wrapped up in a newspaper were lost, on the way down the hill. The finder is requested to return them to Mr. Seibert.

Institute Meeting.

Institute met at Comp's School House, in Centre township, on the 4th inst., at 7 o'clock P. M. On motion J. B. Clouser was chosen President, and A. Clouser Secretary. The exercises of the evening were opened with music by the teacher and scholars. "The Savior is Waiting at the Door." The subject for discussion, Moral Education, was then taken up by J. W. Soule, followed by J. W. Hibbs and others. The subject of Geography was taken up by J. B. Clouser, followed by J. W. Soule and J. W. Hibbs. Music, "Swing Low Sweet Chariot." Adjourned to meet Wednesday, March 11th, at 7 o'clock P. M. Subject for discussion, Moral Education and Grammar. A. CLOUSER, Sec.

Blain Fur Company.

Mr. Editor:—Seeing your notice of the exploits of the "Bloomfield Fur Company," we thought we would give some account of the "Blain Fur Company." With a force of six or seven hounds, and three or four men, they scour the Conegocheaque, east and west, for five and six miles, and even to the north side of the above named mountain, and over the Tuscarora mountain. Their force goes out about once a week and never comes back empty handed, but is sure to bring the scalp of some "critter." When one goes alone, (which is not often,) the rest are not uneasy about him, and do not send "messengers" after him, as we noticed the "Bloomfield Fur Company" sent after a certain one of their party. So far our Company has caught 16 Raccoons, 13 Foxes, and on last Saturday they brought home a large Catamount, the largest within the remembrance of the oldest citizen. We defy the County for better hunters and better hounds, and if any one doubts the truthfulness of this, let them address "Constable," Jackson township, Perry county, Pa., in care of James Morrow, inclosing a stamp to prepay postage. POSTER.

Blain, March 4, 1874.

Juniata County.

From the Millintown papers of last week we copy the following: Work was begun at the coal platform in Patterson on Monday, with twenty odd hands. David Cramer was appointed boss. All freight engines coal there. E. W. H. Kreider, Esq., has been appointed an honorary Vice President by the Board of Managers of Pennsylvania Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. Mr. Kreider, as per instructions from said Society, will organize the county into districts, and present the names of citizens of the respective districts to the Society for appointment.

Last Friday S. R. Rhoads, the enterprising cattle dealer, shipped three car loads of cattle from Perryville to Phoenixville, Chester county. Rhoads makes the trade lively.

A young man named Wilson, while at work, last Thursday, shovelling at the side of the railroad, near Tuscarora station, was struck on the head by the bumper of a passing locomotive. Drs. Crawford and Banks were summoned, and under their treatment he is doing well.

Cumberland County.

From the Carlisle Volunteer of last week, we copy the following: As far as we are able to learn only four new buildings are to be erected in this borough during the coming summer. This is not very encouraging for builders and plasterers.

There is considerable talk of annexing Newtown, in Newton township, to the borough of Newville.

Mr. Wm. Morrison, an aged citizen of our borough, and the inventor of the agricultural implement known as the "Morrison Corn Planter," died one day last week.

A worthless "tramp" giving his name as George Prosser, in "tramping" past the store of Geo. Wagoner & Son's deliberately "cabbaged" a very fine lap robe, and made way with it as fast as his "trampers" could carry him. A neighbor having observed the larceny raised the alarm, and soon the cry of "stop thief!" resounded around, creating quite a commotion in our peaceful borough. The thief was soon overtaken, and in charge of Deputy officer Stahl, was "tramped" back to the office of Justice Leas, where he was committed to Fort Totton, to await the action of the court.

Adjourned Court Proceedings.

An adjourned Court convened on the 2nd inst., for the trial of cases in which Judge Junkin was interested as counsel, before his election to the bench, and also to clear the record of causes except such as have been brought within a short period. On Monday the miscellaneous business was transacted. Judge Bucher, of the 25th Judicial District, presided during the week, except on the trial of the first case.

George Leonard vs. David Bixler. The defendant in this action purchased plaintiffs Mill property, situated in Juniata twp., in consideration of which he was to pay $10,000, in certain annual installments. And the defendant upon petition to the court had the last payment of $900 opened and he let into a defense; and to recover this amount this action was brought. The defendant alleged that plaintiff had sold off a portion of the property, which he failed to strike out of the deed he delivered to him, and that it was defendants impression at the time of the purchase that said tract was still a portion of the farm. He therefore claims that the property was damaged to the extent of at least $1,000. Verdict for defendant for $589.88. Barnett and Markel for plff. Sponsor for dft.

Daniel Powers vs. Emanuel Keller. This was an action for malicious prosecution. It appears that in the year 1871, the defendant, Emanuel Keller, had his smoke house broken open and his meat stolen, for which he had the plaintiff arrested. The grand jury having failed to find a bill against him, this action was brought to recover the amount of money expended by plaintiff in his defense at that time, and for damages done to his character, by said prosecution. The jury after deliberating from early in the evening, until the next morning, found a verdict for plaintiff for $95. McIntire and Graham for plff. Sponsor and Neilson for dft.

Samuel Liggett vs. William Donally. This action was brought to recover $150, it being the price of a threshing machine, which the defendant had purchased of the plaintiff. In defense of payment he alleged that it failed to perform its work as thoroughly as plaintiff represented. The jury after being out almost the entire night returned a verdict for plaintiff for $67.33. The counsel for defendant entered a rule to show cause why the judgment should not be entered without costs. Liggett for plff. Barnett for dft.

Morgan Davis and Seifert McManns & Co. vs. William Setzler and Mitchell Jones. This was two cases combined and was an action of ejectment brought for the recovery of about three acres of land, situate in Tuscarora township, the value of which has been greatly enhanced on account of the iron ore which it contains. This case was an exceedingly tedious one, occupying nearly half the week. Verdict for defendant. Sponsor and Graham for pliffs. McIntire and Barnett for dfts.

The report of reviewers appointed to assess the damages sustained by David Bixler, of Juniata twp., by reason of the School Directors of said township, locating a school house upon his property, having been excepted to, was set aside and Wm. McClure, George Hoobaugh and John Stambaugh, appointed to make another report to next court.

Brief Items.

March came in like a lamb, but for the past few days "the lamb" has been pretty effectually lionized.

On Saturday the stage was obliged to suspend operations, in consequence of the terrible condition of the roads. The mail was carried on horse back.

The Methodist church at Thompsontown, at which place Rev. Wm. Scriber, well known on this circuit is stationed, has been enjoying a refreshing revival. Over twenty conversions have already taken place.

A bit of red pepper, the size of your finger end, dropped into boiling meat or vegetables will kill all unpleasant odor. Remember this when boiling cabbage.

The Record says that a certain married lady in the vicinity of Duncannon, desiring to attend a recent "social hop," gave her child (a babe about six weeks old) a dose of laudanum, which caused the little one to remain in a stupor until noon of the next day, when it was attacked by violent spasms, which came near causing its death.

A few days since a little daughter of Lemuel Sellars, at Cove Forge, fell from her chair and broke a collar bone.

It is a rare thing that physicians give any countenance to a medicine, the manufacture of which is a secret. About the only exception we know of is Johnson's Anodyne Linctament. This, we believe, all endorse, and many of them use it in their practice with great success.

Persons requiring purgatives or pills should be careful what they buy. Some pills not only cause griping pains, but leave the bowels in a torpid, costive state. Parsons' Purgative Pills will relieve the bowels and cleanse the blood without injury to the system.
