Iron in the Blood

MAKES THE WEAK STRONG.

The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Protoxide of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an altiment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "athousand ills," simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The enriched and vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damages and waste, searching out morbid secretions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.

This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarplaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhea, Bolls, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding vectorion, but are permanent, injusing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.

stitution. Thousands have been changed the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.

Wanted His Letters.

An incident recently occurred at the Boston post office that was a little more amusing than musical.

An individual stepped up to the general delivery window, and in a somewhat subdued tone, asked:

'Any letters for me?' 'What name, sir?' said the clerk in attendance.

'Watt,' replied the applicant.

What name?' repeated the clerk, in a still louder tone. Watt, sir ?'

'What name?' shouted the clerk still louder, growing red in the face in his

'Watt, sir, is my name,' now shouted

the applicant, in return. 'Yes,' responded the man of letters, putting in all the power of lungs be possessed, and shouted like a new adjutant at the head of a raw regimentwhat is your name sir ?'

'Yes I know it is,' now screamed the other, red and excited. 'Do you mean to keep me yelling at you all day in this manner? Give me my letters.'

By this time two or three clerks inside the window had come to the rescue of their comrade, and a small crowd had gathered around the excited letter-seeker outside, who was shaking his fist, and denouncing the post office department for placing a deaf man at the delivery window.

'What do you mean by calling me deaf.' Said the clerk, who overheard the remark.

'Why you are deaf, aint you?' asked: his enstomer. 'Not a bit of it,' said the clerk; but you are, ain't you.' 'No sir, I can hear a whisper a mile

. Then why did you keep saying what? when I asked your name ?'. Because Watt is my name - James Watt. Oh I thought you said what all the time,' said the clerk. 'So I did ; W-A-T-T, Watt.'

At this a fellow-clerk suggested that they had better give old Watt's-his-name his letters; which was done, and the crowd, including several disappointed individuals who were in anticipation of a fight, instead of a laugh, dispersed.

A Thoughtful Bachelor.

An old bachelor in Orleans county, Vt., thinking over the subject, and particularly the expense of mantaining a family, set the table in his lonely abode with plates for himself and an imaginary wife and five children. He then sat down to dine, and as often as he helped himself to food he put the same quantity on each of the other plates, and surveyed the prospect, at the same time computing the cost. He is still a bachelor.

Aunt Charity S --- was a good old soul and had her recipes for everything, which she was always quoting to the neighbors. The following is one of them and we print it, as it may be of great use to our readers. It was given to a lady who expressed doubts as to the freshness of some eggs she had. "La me!" says Aunt Charity," it's the easiest thing in the world to find out. Jest take a dozen of 'em, no half of 'em, no it's a doz-well raally, I can't say, but it's ither a dozen or half dozen, and you put 'em in a pail full, no half a pail full-part full-no well, well, it's ither a pail full or half pail full of water- and the good eggs will swim on top-no, the good eggs will sink to the bottom-no, that's not it-the good eggs well swim-no, no, I declare, I don't raally know; but any way the good eggs will ither sink or swim.

A fine old Dutch lady one day last week, unfortunately fell from the top of the cellar stairs, feet first, clear down to the bottom, humping every step. Her head, however, during the whole journey down, was right side up. On reaching the bottom being somewhat jarred and unsettled she exclaimed to her husband, whose name was "Mine Got, pater ! Pater ! come quick, I'sh knocked mine prains out on every sthep."

It is needless to say Peter ran quickly, and belping the good old lady up, exelaimed-
