A Hard Story.

The agent at Los Pinos Indian agency, Colorado, reports to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs the circumstances by which five men lost their lives lately while on the Ute Indian Reservation. One of a party of six on arriving at the agency was questioned as to what became of his companions.

Overly Large.

"Big Gabe" was the only name by which a notorious colored woman, living in the filthy, degraded, and bastard locality of Alaaka Street was known. Gabrielle, doubtless, was her proper name; for short she was called "Gabe" and for corporate capacity the word "big" was added as a prefix.

In a Boston Baptist church, on a recent Sunday morning, while the services were going on, a lady left her pew and walked up to the platform.

W. Grove Station, Ia., July 14, 1873.

Dear Sir—My wife first became lame nine years ago, Swellings would appear and disappear on her hip, and she was gradually becoming reduced, and her whole system rotten with disease.

Killed by a Mad Bull.

Shortly after 8 o'clock Monday, as Capt. Jesse Ludlam, of Bridgehampton, L. I., was returning home from a neighbor's and had arrived within a short distance of his residence, he perceived an animal tearing down the road at a furious rate of speed.

Conscience Stricken.

We learn that Mr. A. Sell, of Union township, Adams county, was appointed administrator to settle up an estate in said township. Our informant says about three months since, Mr. Sell was the recipient of an anonymous letter through the post-office, in which was enclosed twenty-five dollars and instructions to distribute the money among the heirs of said estate;

Miscellaneous News Items.

Horace Greeley's daughters will be comfortable. The executors of the estate have already put away $125,00 for their use.

Easton, Pa., May 25.—P. F. Ellenberger a prominent citizen of Easton, fell dead this afternoon of heart disease. He was a member of the State legislature during the session of 1863. He was fifty-seven years old.

A Boston target company, composed of twelve young ladies, went to Dorchester Heights on an excursion, the other day.—Their shooting was good, as usual, and a gold medal was awarded Miss Lizzie Flynn for hitting a young spooony in the leg, so that he had to go home to his mother.

Baltimore, May 26.—During the prevalence of the hail and rain storm yesterday afternoon, a barn on the farm of Mr. Geo. Ellis, a few miles from this city was blown down. Mr. Ellis, aged 45, and his daughter Mary, aged 18, who were in the barn at the time were both killed, being terribly crushed and mangled by the falling timbers.

Philadelphia, May 25.—A furious thunderstorm broke over the city this afternoon accompanied with vivid lightning. Large crowds of Germans, deceived by previous sunshine, had gathered in their usual out-of-town resorts to celebrate Whit Monday, and were rendered most unhappy by the drenching storm, causing a hasty retreat to their homes. The streets in the city were flooded.

In a Boston Baptist church, on a recent Sunday morning, while the services were going on, a lady left her pew and walked up to the platform. The minister, supposing she had something to communicate, advanced to meet her. She ascended the steps, and with an air worthy of a bishop, laid her hands on the head of the astonished minister and retired.

A Philadelphia lady lost a thousand dollar diamond out of her engagement ring, and though every means of search was employed, the case was finally pronounced hopeless. But, one day, the lady happened to be brushing the dust out of the trimming of her street dress, when lo! and behold! there was the lost diamond sparkling in the insecure crevice of a sounce.

Mr. G. Musser, a well-to-widower, of Decatur county, Illinois, had two grown-up sons. Mrs. Davis, a well-to-do widow, of Decatur county, Illinois, had two grown-up daughters. The Mussers have just wiped out the entire Davis family at one fell swoop, the old man marrying the old lady, and the two young men marrying the two girls, and they were all abroad the other day on a grand, consolidated bridal tour.

Rather a funny incident occurred the other day on the Southwestern Railroad of Georgia. A man named Wolf, residing at Marshallville, near the railroad depot, has five tow-headed children. Conductor Dasher had on his train a large party of Northern excursionists, who were anxious to see all the curiosities. Near Marshallville he told them that there was a man who had five tame wolves, all with a white spot on top of their heads.

Mon. David B. Mellish, whose death was reported on Saturday, was a fair illustration of the energy and devoted toil by which so many rise to eminence in this country, and of the tendency to overwork which ruins so many in the prime of life. Receiving an ordinary education, he began life as a journeyman printer, and subsequently worked his way up through the grades of school teacher, proof-reader, news and stenographic reporter, and local politician, until he secured a good political position, and finally a seat in Congress. All through life he was an indefatigable worker, giving of his best to all he undertook. In Congress he labored earnestly, and latterly attacked with all his powers the financial problem. This task, pressed upon a brain already overburdened, proved disastrous. Possessing a highly nervous and delicate organization, his mind gave way under the severe strain, and he ended his days in the Government Asylum of Washington.

An atrocious shooting case occurred in Philadelphia on Wednesday. A German, named Simon August Franks, shot his wife, discharging his pistol four times, three balls taking effect. The attack was unprovoked. The culprit in attempting to escape fell down an area way and was captured before he got further. The woman though in a critical condition has a chance to recover.

Tuesday evening Martin Cunningham, a railroad laborer, stabbed and killed a farmer named William Smith, at Newport, four miles above Easton, at a Whit-Monday dance. Cunningham was arrested and lodged in Easton jail.

"For the Blood is the Life." See Deuteronomy Chap. xii, Verse 23. The blood being the source from which our systems are built up and from which we derive our mental as well as our physical capabilities, how important that it should be kept clean.

Settling upon important organs, as the lungs, liver and kidneys, the effect is most disastrous. Hence it behooves every one to keep their blood in a perfectly healthy condition and more especially does this apply at this particular season of the year than any other.
